Mississippi College
A CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

Dear Prospective Graduate Student:

We are delighted that you are interested in our graduate programs. As you can see Mississippi College has a variety of quality graduate programs and majors.

Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award bachelors, masters, education specialists degrees, the education doctorate and the first professional degree in law. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Mississippi College. The Commission is to be contacted only if there is evidence that appears to support the university's significant noncompliance with a requirement or standard.

In addition, the graduate programs have received accreditation from the following groups: The Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs, The Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs, The National Association of Schools of Music, and The National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education. This testifies not only to the quality but the variety of the university's instructional programming.

Further documentation of quality can be seen in U.S. News and World Report's listing of "America's Best Colleges," Barron's 300 Best Buys in College Education, The New York Times Best Buys in College, and the esteemed Templeton Foundation, which lists the country's top 100 character-building colleges.

These quality graduate programs are offered in a Christian environment that combines faith and learning. When you enroll in a graduate program at Mississippi College, you become part of a Christian community whose members share a set of values and care about each other.

We welcome the opportunity to serve you as a graduate student at Mississippi College. For additional information, please contact our office at 601.925.3225.

Sincerely,

Debbie C. Norris

Debbie C. Norris, Ph.D., Graduate Dean, and
Vice President for Planning and Assessment