*University accrediting agencies require a certified social worker as instructor.

No foreign language or speech requirement, however, it is strongly encouraged as an elective.
It is strongly suggested that the above courses are taken prior to enrolling at MC, however, any courses not offered or taken at a community or 4-year college can be satisfied while enrolled at MC.

The maximum number of junior/community college semester hours that can be applied toward a degree at Mississippi College is 65.

Admission requirements to enter the Social Work Program at MC:

Cumulative GPA = 2.5 or higher
Completed program application form
Three letters of reference
Admissions interview with Social Work Admissions committee.

The admissions process for the Social Work program takes place during the Fall and Spring semesters.

Notes:

1) Sixty-five hours applied towards graduation from Mississippi College must be earned at a senior college, regardless of the number of semester hours taken at the junior/community college level. This means that the maximum number of junior/community college semester hours that can be applied toward a degree at Mississippi College is 65. The last 33 semester hours must be taken at Mississippi College.

2) Day students must take one to four semesters of Chapel. See Undergraduate Catalog for specifics.

3) Students must demonstrate proficiency in basic English grammar, usage, and writing skills by earning a passing score on the Writing Proficiency Exam.

4) See Mississippi College Undergraduate Catalog online for requirements for specific major.
