A New Thing

To say the past two months have been a blessing is an understatement. We have seen so many incredible things happen in the lives of students. Here are a few stories that we have heard about students that have been impacted by Christ through the ministry of FCA:

A volleyball player decided to go to the FCA college getaway at the last minute after Justin kept asking her for several days in a row. She didn't want to, but her friends were going and she had nothing else to do so she went. By the end of the retreat, her life had been impacted in a tremendous way. Before leaving the retreat, we had a chance to gather all of our students in a room and talk about what God had been doing in their hearts and lives that weekend. The volleyball player spoke up and said, "I didn't want to come to this retreat but I am so glad I did. When we split up into huddle groups, I ended up sharing about something in my past that I haven't told too many people about. I thought I was alone but there were other girls in my group that had been through the same thing. I realized I wasn't alone and some of the girls prayed for me." She also said she never really cries in front of people and she cried in her huddle and when she shared with us. Since then, she has been more consistent in coming to the huddle and her team lifegroup. We are excited to see what fruit comes from her confessing something the enemy meant for harm in her life. We know that by sharing that thing in her past, God is going to heal that part of her!

We have also been tremendously encouraged and impacted by our leaders. They are incredible to say the least. They don't announce certain things that they are doing in their walk with the Lord, but we seem to always inadvertently find out! There is a student who is fasting three days a week, a couple girls who have decided not to wear makeup because they want to train themselves not to think that their identity is in the way they look, and a couple guys who have prayed diligently every week together at the soccer field since the beginning of fall 2012. We have also received text messages late at night from our leaders telling us how a group of them got together to pray about a certain need that had come up. They stop what they are doing and make it a priority to bring their requests to the Lord. I don't tell you these things so you will be impressed, I say all of these things to show that God is working and moving in the hearts and lives of athletes here at MC. He is doing a new thing through FCA and you are a major part of this fruit!

"Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." Isaiah 43:18-19

Ministry Pics

We had 46 student athletes attend the College Getaway this year. Our challenge to them was to stay connected and most of them have been consistent to come to the on campus huddle every week.

Family and unity has been our theme this year, and one way we accomplish this is through our league competition between the boys and the girls. We began announcing "Game of the Week" events for teams to earn more points. This particular picture was taken at the basketball "Game of the Week" which was also our "Costume Out" night where we encouraged students to dress up and come cheer on the Choctaws!

On March 4, our students held a worship night at FCA. It was so incredible to see everyone engaged in worship!
