SECTION I: PROGRAM INFORMATION

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Key terms in this section are listed below. Click on the link to view the definition(s) in the glossary.

Academic Major

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

- >> Teachers Prepared by Subject Area
- >> Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2019-20.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

What are CIP Codes?

No teachers prepared in academic year 2019-20

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2019-20. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education—Chemistry" category.

What are CIP Codes?

Do participants earn a degree upon completion of the program?

• Yes No

No teachers prepared in academic year 2019-20

If your program does not grant participants a degree upon completion, or has no teachers prepared, leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

>> Program Assurances

Program Assurances
1. Program preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to tea based on past hiring and recruitment trends.
Yes No
Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom. Yes No
Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects. Yes No Program does not prepare special education teachers
4. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities. Yes No
 5. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students. Yes No
Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families. Yes No
7. Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable. Yes No

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

The Teacher Education and Leadership Department has provided multiple placements for candidates in classrooms with students varying in abilities, socio-economic status, and backgrounds. The experiences have been sequenced to provide opportunities for candidates to work in diverse classrooms with the Department using an assessment system for data analysis and interpretation to inform future programmatic changes. Courses such as EDU 300--Introduction to Education present the legislation, laws, and code of ethics for working with students from special needs populations along with an introduction into "culturally responsive" instruction. Additionally, PSY 435--Psychology of the Exceptional Child, delves into the specific Special Education eligibility categories under IDEA along with characteristics and behaviors. Specific content methods courses investigate teaching strategies in how best to serve these students for the grade level and content of the specific education major.

Annual Goals: Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

10. Describe your goal.

The goal for the Teacher Education and Leadership (TEL) Department for the 2021-2022 school year is to prepare at least 3 candidates in Special Education.

SECTION II: ANNUAL GOALS

Annual Goals: Instruction of Limited English Proficient Students

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

Did your program prepare teachers in instruction of limited English proficient students in 2019-20?
 If no, leave remaining questions for 2019-20 blank (or clear responses already entered).

Yes

No

2. Describe your goal.

The goal for the Teacher Education and Leadership (TEL) Department for the 2019-2020 school year is to prepare at least 2 candidates in the English Language Learner (ELL) endorsement category.

- 3. Did your program meet the goal?
 - Yes
 - No
- 4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

The TEL Department worked very hard to reach the goal of preparing teacher candidates in the area of English Language Learners (ELL). The TEL worked with the Foreign Languages Department (housing the TESOL state-approved endorsement program for ELL K-12 teachers) to offer the four additional courses in a fully, online format during the summer session as well as the traditional, fall/spring course offerings.

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

S. Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:
MC does not have a bachelor's degree in Instruction of Limited Language Students. We do have a state-approved, endorsement route for traditional undergraduate education majors from any field of study.

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. (§205(a)(1)(B))

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact Westat's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Pre-service teachers are required to take EDU 317, Instructional Technology in the Classroom. This course provides candidates with basic technology literacy, application skills, and strategies to integrate technology in the curriculum to enhance learning for a diverse society. This course is driven, in part, by the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) standards, as well as the Mississippi Technology Standards for Teachers. Building on the knowledge base from EDU 317, teacher candidates in the methods courses use the following to integrate technology in an instructional lesson: 1) creating presentations that enhance and differentiate lessons to accommodate the diverse learner, 2) collecting, managing, and analyzing data to improve instruction and student achievement, 3) using application programs and online resources to provide high order thinking activities, problem-based learning activities, virtual tours, simulations activities, lesson planning, assessment, and grade books, and 4) providing equal technology access for all students.

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. (§205(a)(1)(G))

THI:	S P	AGE	INICI	UDES

>> Teacher Training

Teacher Training

- 1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:
 - a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

General education teachers are required to take a specific course related to working with exceptional children including all of the eligibility categories and specific teaching methods for ensuring learning goals are met within the general education classroom. In addition, all education candidates are exposed to the laws and legislation protecting the rights of special education students in EDU 300--Introduction to Education and specifically the MS Code of Ethics pertaining to the specific rights of special needs students. All education candidates are also required to participate in classrooms with exceptional education students as part of the preliminary field experience program, and they also encounter many exceptionalities in their final clinical field experience. Additional experiences are included in the Professional Block Methods semester prior to the clinical semester of student teaching for elementary education majors and in the content methods courses for the K-12 and 7-12 content majors.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

General education candidates are introduced to all of the Special Education eligibility categories and the specific legislation IDEA governing the rights of Special Education students in EDU 300--Introduction to Education. In addition to this introductory course, all education majors are required to take a specific course related to working with exceptional children including all elements in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, particularly focusing on responsibilities of the general education teacher on the Individualized Education Program (IEP) team. The clinical semester of student teaching provides opportunities for teacher candidates to participate in IEP teams in addition to their coursework.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

General education candidates are introduced to working with English Language Learners (ELL) in EDU 300--Introduction to Education to support their learning in the general education classroom. Specific content methods are provided in the specific methods courses and are identified as "culturally responsive" instructional procedures.

- 2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?
 - Yes

No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

Mississippi College does not offer an undergraduate degree in Special Education, but instead offers a state-approved program leading to an Endorsement in Special Education (Mild/Moderate). An addition to all of the general education courses dedicated to special needs students, the state-approved endorsement program requires teacher candidates to take specific coursework in: understanding the characteristics and behaviors of students with Mild/Moderate learning disabilities, developing and managing individualized programs for students with Mild/Moderate learning problems in both elementary and secondary levels, understanding and interpreting current educational and psychological testing procedures, and understanding organizational procedures for teaching special needs students.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the *Individuals with Disabilities*Education Act

Since all of the candidates pursuing the endorsement in Special Education (Mild/Moderate) are education majors, the clinical semester of student teaching provides opportunities for teacher candidates to participate in IEP teams in addition to their coursework. All candidates pursuing the endorsement in Special Education are placed in an "inclusion" classroom for student teaching as well.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

All general education candidates are introduced to working with English Language Learners (ELL) in EDU 300--Introduction to Education to support their learning in the general education classroom. Specific content methods are provided in the specific methods courses and are identified as "culturally responsive" instructional procedures. Since all candidates pursuing the Special Education (Mild/Moderate) endorsement are education majors, all participate in this training for working with ELL students.

Mississippi College continues to be NCATE accredited and has been since 1960. Reports are on file with the Mississippi State Department of Education and NCATE. Our most recent accreditation visit was conducted in November 2020, and the EPP is awaiting continued CAEP accreditation in May 2021. All EPP educator preparation programs have been fully reviewed by the state (Mississippi State Program Review - Spring 2019) and are in "Good Standing" with MDE. For those programs eligible to undergo Specialized Program (SPA) Review, all have been nationally recognized by their respective professional organizations.
