About the University

General Catalog Information

Accreditation and State Authorization

Mississippi College was first authorized by the Mississippi Senate and House of Representatives in 1826 as an "academy" under the name, Hampstead Academy. The institution has operated as an educational institution since that time. The name, Mississippi College, was formally approved by the Mississippi House and Senate in 1830.

In the modern era, Mississippi College is institutionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SASCOC), to award bachelors, masters, education specialist degrees, and doctoral degrees. Questions or complaints about the accreditation of Mississippi College may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, by calling 404-679-4500, or by using information available on the SACSCOC website (www.sacscoc.org/).

In addition to institutional accreditation, Mississippi College is authorized and approved by the Mississippi Commission on College Accreditation (MCCA) as a private, not-for-profit institution to offer postsecondary academic degrees. The MCCA has authority to address possible violations of its standards and regulations, policies and procedures, as well as address possible violations of an institutions own policies and procedures. The MCCA website (www.mississippi.edu/mcca/) has links to a Student Complaint Process form that can be used for all complaints and also provides information related to filing complaints with other relevant entities and branches of the State and Federal government. The MCCA may be reached by mail or phone as follows: Mississippi Commission on College Accreditation, 3825 Ridgewood Road, Jackson, MS. 39211. Phone 601-432-6336

Volume 108 Number 1

Students entering Mississippi College for the 2023-2024 session (effective May, 2023) must meet major and minor requirements as set forth in this edition or as in any agreement made with other institutions, as well as the general degree requirements for graduation contained herein.

A student readmitted after an interruption of more than two years in the course of study at Mississippi College may, at the discretion of the University, be required to fulfill the graduation requirements in the catalog in force at the time of readmission.

This Catalog does not constitute a contract between the University and its students. The University reserves the right to change any of its regulations, charges, rules, and courses without notice and to make such changes applicable thenceforth, not only to new students but also to students already registered.

Mississippi College offers curricula in various professional fields, as well as general or liberal arts education. In the professional fields, curricula generally include both academic and practical or clinical requirements. In some professional fields (such as nursing, teacher education, and others) it is necessary to pass an examination or other requirements of the professional organization in order to be admitted to the profession. Curricula at Mississippi College are designed to expose students to the skills and knowledge essential to the relevant profession, and the student must successfully complete the requirements of the appropriate curriculum in order to receive a degree. However, Mississippi College cannot guarantee that any student admitted to a given program of study will complete that program successfully. Neither can Mississippi College guarantee that one who completes the degree program will pass the external examination of the professional organization or secure employment in the profession. These factors are not within the control of Mississippi College.

All undergraduate students enrolled at the University are subject to all rules and regulations as specified in the Student Code of Conduct as well as other university policies. Copies of all student policies may be secured from the Office of the Associate Vice President for the Student Experience and Dean of Students or accessed on the Mississippi College website at https://www.mc.edu/students/policies/. Failure to read these policies does not excuse students from the requirements and regulations contained therein.

No commercial solicitation is allowed on Mississippi College property or of Mississippi College students. It is the goal of Mississippi College to assist in the development of good health and clean air. All buildings including areas near entrances and exits on the Mississippi College campus - Academic, Administrative, Athletic, Residential, and the Student Center - are declared to be "smoke free" and all persons associated with the University are expected to adhere to the policy of "No Smoking."

Student complaints are handled through the campus offices having responsibility for the area where the complaint is directed. Complaints relating to academic issues should be in writing and filed with the appropriate department chair or the chair of the complainant's major department. The complainant may discuss the grievance with the department chair who will address the grievance first. The decision of the chair may be appealed to the dean whose decision will be final. In cases where the dean is the source of the complaint or in an extraordinary case, the complaint will be handled by the Provost. For non-academic areas, complaints should be filed or discussed with the appropriate supervisor of the area where the complaint is directed. The supervisor may advise the student on the appropriate route for addressing the complaint or refer the matter for resolution by the appropriate vice president whose decision is final.

Mission

Mississippi College, governed by a Board of Trustees elected by the Mississippi Baptist Convention, is a private, coeducational, comprehensive university of liberal arts and sciences and professional studies dedicated to the pursuit of academic excellence. Founded in 1826, Mississippi College is the oldest institution of higher learning and the largest private university in the state of Mississippi. As a Christian institution, Mississippi College values the integration of faith and learning throughout the educational process.

Consistent with its Baptist heritage and relationship to the Convention, Mississippi College provides a quality Christian education for its student population. Students select the University because of the quality of its academic programs, Christian environment, and location. The University strives to recruit students who demonstrate excellence in scholarship, leadership, and church/community involvement. The majority of students come from Mississippi and other southeastern states.

Mississippi College stimulates the intellectual development of its students through the liberal arts and sciences and concentrated study in specialized fields. Furthermore, the university environment promotes the spiritual, social, emotional, and physical development of its students and encourages them to utilize their skills, talents, and abilities as they pursue meaningful careers, life-long learning, and service to God and others. The University emphasizes those undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs which offer opportunities for service. Additionally, the University reflects its responsibility of service to the community through a variety of learning opportunities and numerous cultural enrichment experiences.

Mississippi College is committed to excellence and innovation in teaching and learning. The University seeks to employ and retain faculty who are dedicated to teaching/learning and advising students, who support and engage in scholarship and creative activities that advance knowledge, and who seek to continue their own professional development. The University also seeks to employ and retain staff and administrators who are equally dedicated to supporting these efforts. Furthermore, the University selects employees who reflect Christian values and a commitment to service. Mississippi College is an equal opportunity employer in accordance with Title VII and applicable exemptions.

Official mission statement as adopted by the Board of Trustees 1998

Vision

Mississippi College seeks to be known as a university recognized for academic excellence and commitment to the cause of Christ.

Size and Location

Although Mississippi College is the largest private university in the state, it is still small enough to retain a friendly atmosphere. Located in the community of Clinton in the center of the state, the University is ten minutes away from Jackson, the state capital and largest metropolitan area in Mississippi. A variety of activities are available to university students living in such a setting.

Mississippi College profits from its ideal location and, in turn, the University contributes to the community. The educational needs of a metropolitan area are changing, and Mississippi College responds to those needs by expanding its instructional programs. The undergraduate program includes a flourishing Business Administration program. About 2,396 students are enrolled for undergraduate studies. Approximately 1,184 students are enrolled in the Graduate School which offers work leading to 20 graduate degrees. In response to the need for legal education in the area of the state capital, Mississippi College has a School of Law with about 366 students seeking J.D. and LL.M. degrees.

Statements of Compliance

Mississippi College is a Christian University affiliated with the Mississippi Baptist Convention. The Mississippi Baptist Convention elects all members of the Board of Trustees of the University.

Mississippi College complies with all applicable federal and state nondiscrimination laws, and does not engage in prohibited discrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, genetic information, veteran status, or disability in admissions and employment. As a religiously affiliated university, Mississippi College is exempt from provisions of certain nondiscrimination laws.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, and subsequent amendments, is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. Students have specific, protected rights regarding the release of such records or information contained therein. Mississippi College will release confidential or personally identifiable information only with the student's written consent and will release information defined as "Directory Information" only in the best interest of the student. Students may file a consent form in the Office of the Registrar giving permission for non-directory information to be released to their parent(s) or third parties. If an undergraduate student does not wish to have any information released for any reason, he/she may file a written request to that effect in the Office of the Registrar. A confidential notice will be placed on the student's record and this confidential status will remain on their record permanently until a signed release by the student is filed with the registrar. Graduate students may file a request for confidentiality with the Dean of the Graduate School. Questions or complaints regarding FERPA rights should be directed to the Provost (MC Box 4002, Clinton, MS 39058) or the Registrar (MC Box 4007, Clinton, MS 39058). Complaints regarding alleged failures by Mississippi College to comply with the requirements of FERPA may also be filed with the Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education 400 Maryland Avenue, SW Washington, DC 20202.

Title IX

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 states, "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance." Mississippi College does not discriminate on the basis of sex in employment, admissions, student retention, or other educational programs except in those instances which are claimed and exempted on the basis of the religious tenets of the Mississippi Baptist Convention. Inquiries and complaints regarding the application of Title IX may be directed to Dr. William Townsend, Vice President and General Counsel to the President (MC Box 4005, Clinton, MS 39058). Alleged violations of Title IX should be directed to Dr. Kristena Gaylor, Associate Professor of Management and Economics in the School of Business and Title IX Coordinator https://www.mc.edu/title-ix/.

Veterans

The Mississippi State Approving Agency (SAA), is the approving authority of education and training programs for Mississippi. Our office investigates complaints of GI Bill beneficiaries. While most complaints should initially follow the school grievance policy, if the situation cannot be resolved at the school, the beneficiary should contact our office via email at saa@msva.ms.gov.

Accreditation

Accreditation is an important assurance to the university student. Mississippi College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award bachelors, masters, education specialist degrees, and doctoral degrees. Degree-granting institutions also may offer credentials such as certificates and diplomas at approved degree levels. Questions about the accreditation of Mississippi College may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, by calling 404-679-4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website (https://www.sacscoc.org/).

Allowing Veterans to Attend or Participate in Courses Pending VA Payment

Background

Section 103 of Public Law (PL) 115-407, 'Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018,' amends Title 38 US Code 3679 by adding a new subsection (e) that requires disapproval of courses of education, beginning August 1, 2019, at any educational institution that does not have a policy in place that will allow an individual to attend or participate in a course of education, pending VA payment, providing the individual submits a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to educational assistance under Chapter 31 or 33.

Pending Payment Compliance

In accordance with Title 38 US Code 3679(e), Mississippi College adopts the following additional provisions for any students using U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Post-9/11 G.I. Bill® (Ch. 33) or Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment (Ch. 31) benefits, while payment to the institution is pending from VA. Mississippi College will not:

Prevent the student's enrollment;

Assess a late penalty fee to the student;

Require the student to secure alternative or additional funding;

Deny the student access to any resources (access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities) available to other students who have satisfied their tuition and fee bills to the institution.

However, to qualify for this provision, such students may be required to:

Produce the VA Certificate of Eligibility (COE) by the first day of class;

Provide a written request to be certified using Mississippi College's online submission of the Veteran Verification of Enrollment Form after enrollment has occurred for the designated term for use of VA benefit.

The Veteran Verification of Enrollment Form is the student's authorization submission for use of their VA Education Benefit. Without the completion of this form, Mississippi College is not authorized to take action on behalf of our students for this benefit.

Provide additional information needed to properly certify the enrollment as described in other institutional policies or as outlined as required criteria with VA for benefits.

GI Bill[®] is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).

Graduate Degrees, Majors, Post Baccalaureate, and Certificate Programs

Academic Resource Facilities

Mississippi College provides learning resource facilities which enhance the teaching/learning environment on campus. The major facilities are the Leland Speed Library, The Teaching and Learning Center (TLC), The Writing Center, Academic Computing Labs, and the multimedia language laboratory.

The Library

The Leland Speed Library provides comprehensive collections, technologies and services in support of MC's academic programs. Research assistance is available in person, via phone and text, and Ask A Librarian. Books, eBooks, streaming media and e-research resources are available to both on-campus and distance learners 24 hours a day. The Teaching and Learning Center (TLC), located on the main floor, aids faculty and campus departments in their original video/audio productions and provides video productions of campus events. Special collections, located on the top floor, include the Mississippi Baptist Historical Commission collections and the Mississippi College Archives. The building offers study spaces, soft seating, quiet spaces, and individual and group study rooms.

Academic Computing Labs

Academic Computing Labs provide an environment in which Students and Faculty can fulfill their academic needs. These labs are located in several buildings across campus and staff provides assistance.

Faculty

The institutional goal of academic excellence is achieved through the quality of instruction. Mississippi College's faculty is dedicated to teaching. A high percentage of the faculty holds earned doctorates, and over fifty percent of those who teach undergraduates also teach graduate courses. Mississippi College professors are competent, serious about their work, and interested in their students. Although also engaged in research and other types of professional work outside the classroom, they consider teaching to be their highest priority.

Organizational Structure of Academic Programs

Many choices are available to students at Mississippi College when they reach the point of deciding upon a major field of study. The instructional program is divided into one college, made up of three schools, and five additional schools: the College of Arts and Sciences, consisting of the School of Christian Studies and the Arts, the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the School of Science and Mathematics; the School of Business, the School of Education, the School of Nursing, the Graduate School, and the School of Law.

Mississippi College is classified as a comprehensive university because of the breadth of programs and degrees. Undergraduate degrees are awarded in 80 fields of study and graduate degrees are awarded in over 25 fields of study. Graduate degrees may be earned in a variety of Master's degree programs. In addition, the Specialist in Education (Ed.S.), the Master of Fine Arts (M.F.A.), the Doctor of Education (Ed.D.), the Doctorate of Professional Counseling (D.P.C.), and the Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.) degrees are offered. The undergraduate curriculum is centered on a "university core curriculum" which is comprised of the basic courses required of all undergraduate students. These fundamental courses provide a strong basis upon which to build a more specialized course of study. Detailed information on graduate programs is found in the Graduate Catalog, and detailed information on the School of

Admissions

General Policy

Undergraduate admission and readmission decisions are made by the Office of Enrollment Services based on a variety of factors including, but not limited to, academic records, scores on standardized tests (ACT, SAT or CLT), an analysis of the application for admission, prior enrollments, lapses in enrollment, relevant character or conduct records, and other criteria as may be relevant. Mississippi College seeks to admit students whose academic preparation and background, personal characteristics, behavior, conduct, and cooperative spirit indicate that they would profit from and contribute positively to the life of a Christian university community.

Mississippi College reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant without assigning reason and to reject any applicant, rescind admission, or discontinue a student's continued enrollment if (i) between the date of an application and the start of classes there is a change in the condition or status of any information provided by the applicant that would have been a basis for denying the application when it was reviewed by the Admission Committee or (ii) any information provided by an applicant proves to be untrue at the time of its submission.

Mississippi College complies with all applicable federal and state nondiscrimination laws, and does not engage in prohibited discrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, genetic information, veteran status, or disability in admissions and employment. As a religiously affiliated university, Mississippi College is exempt from certain provisions of some nondiscrimination laws. Inquiries and complaints should be directed to the Vice President for Advancement and Legal Counsel to the President (MC Box 4005, Clinton, MS 39058).

All applicants must complete an application online at https://go.mc.edu/apply/. Completed applications should be submitted online by the first day of class for the entering term. Early application is encouraged because decisions regarding admission are made on a rolling basis as applications are received.

Applicants must have documented evidence of having had the MMR within the last ten years or evidence of having had two immunizations if they were born on or after January 1, 1957. This does not apply to students seeking online enrollment. There is an opt-out process for students with medical or religious objections.

Information furnished to Mississippi College must be true and accurate; the withholding of pertinent information or the furnishing of false information may result in denial of admission or in dismissal.

Freshmen Admission

In addition to submitting the completed application, prospective freshmen must have satisfactorily completed the graduation requirements of an approved high school. Applicants who have not completed high school will be considered upon achieving passing scores on the General Education Development test (GED). Home schooled applicants must meet the same requirements as other freshmen. Each home schooled applicant must submit a self-reported transcript that demonstrates completion of a high school equivalent curriculum. Mississippi College reserves the right to require additional proof of academic achievement determined by the Dean for Enrollment Services.

All candidates for freshmen admission should submit the following:

Application. A completed application and payment of the application fee - https://go.mc.edu/apply/.

Transcripts. An official transcript of all high school work completed to date delivered to the Office of Enrollment Services; this transcript must either be sent from the high school directly or hand delivered by the student in a sealed envelope from the high school. Upon graduation, applicants must have a final transcript sent to the Office of Enrollment Services, showing date of graduation, signature by the school official and/or an official seal.

Test Scores (optional*). In order to be competitive for scholarships, official ACT, SAT or CLT scores for all applicants who graduated from high school within the last five years must be sent to the Office of Enrollment Services directly from ACT, SAT or CLT headquarters or from the student's high school. Score reports brought by the applicant are not acceptable. For students not immediately eligible for admission based on their transcripts, a minimum composite score of 18 on the American College Test (ACT), or a comparable combined score on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or Classical Learning Test (CLT) is required. Some majors may require an ACT/SAT/CLT on file for situations including, but not limited to, admissions to program, class placement, licensure, and/or advanced standing.

*some majors may require an ACT/SAT/CLT on file for situations including, but not limited to, admissions to the program, class placement, licensure, and/or advanced standing.

Mumps, Measles, and Rubella (MMR) Immunization Certificate. Immunization record must verify two MMR shots within the student's lifetime or one within the last 10 years.

Housing. Students seeking campus housing are required to log in to the online housing portal. They will pay a non-refundable $200 housing fee and reserve a residence hall room.

Temporary Permit to Register

Applicants who decide to attend Mississippi College that have met the required criteria but still have an incomplete admission file will have the opportunity to register for classes under a temporary permit. Required criteria are the conviction question, signature, and Bursar's Office clearance. The applicant must have an overall cumulative GPA of C (2.00) on all work attempted. No financial aid will be applied to the student's account until their file has been completed. If the applicant does not complete their file, a hold will be placed on their file and they will not be able to register for the following term until the admissions process is completed.

Early Admission

Outstanding secondary school students who choose to enter college before graduation will be considered for admission upon completion of the junior year. Application by each student must be supported by a composite ACT score of 24, (or a comparable SAT or CLT score), a B average on all high school work attempted, and a recommendation from the high school guidance counselor. A student who has completed seven semesters of high school work with a composite ACT score of 24, (or a comparable SAT or CLT score), and has a C average and a recommendation from the high school counselor may apply. In addition, Early Admission students are required to meet with the Provost before being accepted to Mississippi College.

Restricted Admission for Freshmen

Applicants whose ACT scores or SAT scores are slightly below the minimum required scores will be considered for admission by Foundations for University Success Committee, if high school records and counselor evaluations indicate an ability to do university work. The committee will make a recommendation to the Dean of Enrollment Services. If admitted, these students will be required to participate in the Foundations Program and will be admitted on restricted admission. The following classes must be completed before restricted admission can be lifted; English 100, IDS 111, Math 100, and IDS 112. If the student has not achieved an overall 2.0 or higher GPA at the completion of 24 credit hours, which includes the required Foundations classes, the student will be suspended.

Transfer Admission

The Office of Enrollment Services will consider community/junior college graduates and transfer students whose transcripts indicate eligibility to return immediately to the school last attended and whose grades show evidence of ability to do college level work. A student is considered a transfer student after 12 semester hours have been successfully completed (2.00 average on a 4.00 system is considered successful) at a regionally accredited institution after graduation from high school. Courses must be comparable to courses offered at Mississippi College (See Grades Transferred from Another Institution).

If a transfer student does not have 12 transferable credit hours, they will be subject to freshmen admission standards (ACT score requirements and high school transcript at a minimum. If a transfer student has less than 12 transferable credit hours and less than a 2.0 GPA, the Director of Undergraduate Admission will evaluate the student's academic history to determine the admission status of the transfer applicant.

All candidates for transfer admission should submit the following:

Application. A completed application - https://go.mc.edu/apply/.

Transcripts. Official transcripts from all colleges attended to date mailed to the Office of Enrollment Services directly from each college attended. Transcripts can be mailed physically or sent electronically through these approved transcript services: Scrip-Safe, Parchment Exchange, and Credentials Solutions. Student copies are not acceptable.

Mumps, Measles and Rubella (MMR) Immunization Certificate. Immunization record must verify two MMR shots within the student's lifetime or one within the last 10 years.

Housing. Students seeking campus housing are required to log on to the online housing portal. They will pay a non-refundable $200 fee and reserve a residence hall room.

Transfer students should know the following:

Credit from Junior/Community College. Sixty-five hours applied towards graduation from Mississippi College must be earned at a senior college, regardless of the number of semester hours taken at the junior/community college level. This means that the maximum number of semester hours from a junior/community college that can be applied toward a degree at Mississippi College is 65.

Grades Transferred from Another Institution. Grades earned on transfer work from other institutions will be shown on the permanent record at Mississippi College but will not be used in calculating the grade point average at Mississippi College.

Mississippi College typically considers for transfer credits earned at institutions that have regional accreditation that are comparable to disciplines or courses offered at the University and in which the student has earned a grade of C or higher. Academic course work completed in a discipline not taught at Mississippi College that meets Mississippi College's quality standards may be evaluated for general elective hours.

Mississippi College does not accept for transfer toward a degree the hours earned with D grades from another institution if the student was admitted with less than a 2.0 average on all transfer coursework.

Mississippi College may accept up to 10 hours of credit for course work with a grade of C or higher from schools not regionally accredited, or from technical or vocational course work. These hours would count toward general elective credit. Students may appeal during their first semester to have non-accredited, technical or vocational course work evaluated for transfer to academic department specific courses by completing the appropriate form in the Office of the Registrar and submitting all course descriptions and/or syllabi. Course work will be evaluated by academic departments to determine if credit represents coursework relevant to the degree sought, with course content and level of instruction resulting in student competencies at least equivalent to those of students enrolled at Mississippi College. Final approval rests with the dean of the school whose decision will be final. Evaluation of transcripts is done by personnel in the Office of the Registrar.

Simultaneous Enrollment. Students may not be simultaneously enrolled at Mississippi College and any other institution. Special permission for simultaneous enrollment may be granted only by appeal to the Provost.

Approval to Take Courses at Other Institutions. Once enrolled at Mississippi College, a student must have prior approval of any course to be taken elsewhere for credit at Mississippi College. A form for this purpose is available online and in the Office of the Registrar.

Required Hours Taken at Mississippi College. The last 33 semester hours must be taken in residence at Mississippi College. A minimum of 12 semester hours must be taken at Mississippi College in the student's major field and 6 hours in the minor; but not more than 45 semester hours may be transferred for credit toward a bachelor's degree on a major in any department. Mississippi College limits academic residency to no more than twenty-five percent of the degree requirements for all undergraduate degrees for active-duty service members. Academic residency can be completed at any time while active-duty service members are enrolled. Reservists and National Guardsmen on active-duty are covered in the same manner.

Transfer Credit

All entering transfer students must provide transcripts of all prior college/university work; these transcripts will be evaluated as promptly as possible by the Office of the Registrar. (See Grades Transferred from Another Institution) Once enrolled at Mississippi College, a student must have prior approval of any course to be taken elsewhere for credit at Mississippi College. A form for this purpose is available from the Office of the Registrar.

Restricted Admission for Transfer Students

Students who have accumulated a deficit of 15 to 29 grade points from the last institution(s) attended will be considered for admission to Mississippi College on restricted admission. Also, those students who have been suspended from their previous institutions and have sat out of school the required amount of time may be admitted to Mississippi College by the Committee on Enrollment Appeals on a restricted admission status. Restricted admission students must earn a 2.00 grade point average on their first 15 hours, and the 15 hours may be taken in one semester or over several semesters. Earning a 2.00 grade point average over the first 15 hours will result in the lifting of the restricted admission status; failure to earn a 2.00 grade point average over the first 15 hours will result in suspension from Mississippi College. The Committee on Enrollment Appeals will not address an appeal for a suspended student for a minimum of one year after the student was dismissed.

Readmitted Students

A former Mississippi College student (one who was not registered during the preceding regular semester) must apply for readmission through the Office of Enrollment Services.

Application. A completed application - https://go.mc.edu/apply/.

Transcripts. Transcripts from all colleges attended since the time that the student has been enrolled at Mississippi College must be sent directly to the Office of Enrollment Services from the colleges attended. Student copies are not acceptable. Students readmitted to Mississippi College after a five-year interval may be required to repeat courses if there have been significant changes in course content.

Housing. A non-refundable $200 housing fee is required if the applicant desires campus housing.

Readmission on Academic Probation

Students who have previously attended Mississippi College, were suspended, and have been readmitted by the Committee on Enrollment Appeals, will be admitted on academic probation. Students readmitted on academic probation must improve their cumulative grade point average to at least a 2.0 within two full-time semesters or four part-time semesters. At the end of that time frame, if the student has not earned a cumulative 2.0 grade point average, they will not be allowed to continue study at Mississippi College. An appeal will not be heard again for a minimum period of one year. (See Right of Appeal for Academic Suspension section of the Undergraduate Catalog.)

NOTE: If a student is suspended more than two times from Mississippi College, it is highly unlikely that the student will be given another opportunity to study at Mississippi College.

Non-Degree Undergraduate Admission

A non-degree student is one who is not working toward a degree. Although credit is given for passing work, the credit is not applied toward a degree. If a non-degree student desires at a later time to pursue a degree, application as a regular student must be made. If the student is admitted as a regular student, the University will determine whether work taken as a non-degree student will be acceptable toward meeting degree requirements.

A non-degree student is expected to abide by the rules and standards of Mississippi College. A non-degree student may be admitted to Mississippi College with an official transcript from the last university attended (if applicable). Non-degree applicants must provide the following:

Application. A completed application - https://go.mc.edu/apply/.

Transcripts and ACT. Freshman applicants must have an official high school transcript mailed directly to the Office of Enrollment Services from the high school attended. Applicants who have not completed high school must have an official high school transcript mailed directly to the Office of Enrollment Services from the high school attended along with an official ACT score and a letter of recommendation from their high school counselor. ACT Score required if Freshman graduated within the last five years.

College Transcript. Transfer students must have a letter of good standing or a transcript mailed directly to the Office of Enrollment Services from the last college attended. Transcripts can be mailed physically or sent electronically through these approved transcript services: Scrip-Safe, Parchment Exchange, and Credentials Solutions. Student copies are not acceptable.

Mumps, Measles and Rubella Immunization Certificate. Immunization record must verify two MMR shots within the student's lifetime or one within the last 10 years.

Appeals for Admission

Right of Appeal for Academic Suspension

Undergraduate students placed on Academic Suspension may appeal through an appeals process that originates in the Office for the Provost. The Provost office will determine if the appeal will be reviewed. A successful appeal will return the student to Academic Probation with number of semesters on probation determined by the appeals body. A status of academic probation or academic suspension becomes a part of the student's permanent record. Students who have previously attended MC, were suspended, and have been readmitted by the Committee on Enrollment Appeals, will be admitted on Academic Probation and follow the above process.

Right of Appeal for Readmission after Academic Suspension

Any undergraduate student who is suspended for academic reasons has the right of appeal for readmission to the Enrollment Appeals Committee. This committee will consider each case on its merits, taking into account the full academic record, the student's rate of progress in making up deficiencies, and any special circumstances that might reflect on the student's ability and readiness to do acceptable university-level work. One who is readmitted on appeal will be placed on Academic Probation and will have up to two full-time semesters or four part-time semesters to improve his/her cumulative grade point average to 2.00. If the student fails to raise his/her cumulative GPA to 2.0 in the time granted, the student will be suspended a second time and an appeal will not be heard for at least one year. Inquiries about this policy and appeals process should be directed to the Provost (MC Box 4002, Clinton, MS 39058).

Right of Appeal for Denial of Admission

In the event a student is denied Admission to Mississippi College or has their admission revoked prior to matriculation, the student may appeal the decision through a formal appeal process. Inquiries about this process should be directed to the Office of Enrollment Services (MC Box 4026, Clinton, MS 39058).

International Student Admissions

A prospective international student applying for admission as an undergraduate to Mississippi College must provide the following:

- 1. A fully completed online International Admission Application form (https://go.mc.edu/apply/)
- 2. Applicants must meet the following English requirements

Students can apply for admission to an academic program and meet the English proficiency requirements using TOEFL or IELTS scores*. If students can submit an original TOEFL iBT score of 69 or an original IELTS score of 5.5, then the requirement to take the institution's English proficiency exam will be waived. Original scores or certified/attested copy must be sent directly to the Office of Global Education at Mississippi College either from the testing service or from a partner agency in order to be considered for undergraduate admission.

Students unable to meet the above standards can apply for our Intensive English Program (IEP) until their English scores are at a level to apply for admission to the undergraduate program. Successful completion of IEP does not guarantee admissions to the undergraduate program. All other criteria must be met.

*Besides TOEFL iBT and IELTS scores, PTE and ITEP language proficiency scores can be accepted as well.

International students who have a high level of language proficiency (IELTS score between 5-5.5, or TOEFL between 65-68) but have not met the full academic admissions English language proficiency requirement can be admitted to the Pathway Program. Students in the Pathway Program will take credit-bearing English Language Learner courses as well as taking a couple of courses in their field of study in the first semester.

3. A financial statement indicating ability to finance study during one year at Mississippi College. The applicant must provide evidence of sufficient financial support for tuition, educational supplies, and personal living expenses such as transportation, vacation room and board. There are approximately sixty days in the calendar year (vacations and semester breaks) for which on campus residential accommodations are not available. Students must decide if they will be in residence halls during these periods. Additional charges for residence halls during vacations and semester break periods will apply. Please contact the Office of Global Education to determine the current amount required.

- 4. A $25.00 non-refundable Application fee is required. This fee may be paid by bank draft, personal check, or paid by credit/debit card through Flywire (https://www.flywire.com/).
- 5. Transcripts of all high school and college grades with literal translations into English. Students attempting to transfer credits received in secondary degrees or courses completed at universities outside the United States must request a Course-by-Course evaluation from a credentialed evaluation service. Mississippi College requires the evaluations services to be credentialed through the Association of International Credential Evaluators, Inc. (AICE) or the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES).

The services Mississippi College suggests are:

North American Education Group 505 Paradise Road U#254 Swampscott, MA 01907 https://www.naeg.org/

Education Evaluators International, Inc 11 South Angell Street #348 Providence, RI 02906 https://educei.com/

Miami, FL 33173
https://www.jsilny.org/

The student must pay for the evaluation. Transcripts from institutions located in the United States must be mailed from these institutions directly to the Office of Global Education at Mississippi College.

International students should visit the Office of Global Education's website (https://www.mc.edu/international/) for details concerning admission requirements before contacting the Office of Global Education.

Students will be required to purchase health insurance each year through the University. The policy will provide medical, medical evacuation, and repatriation coverage with Mississippi College as the trustee beneficiary.

Before arrival at Mississippi College, the applicant must be immunized against measles/mumps/rubella (MMR). To ensure compliance with Mississippi State Department of Health regulations, Mississippi College will require international students to submit proof of test screening for tuberculosis by interferon gamma release assays (IGRA) performed in the United States after their arrival and prior to the start of classes. These test results must be submitted to the MC Office of Global Education before the start of classes. Costs for all TB and MMR testing will be paid by the student. An international student who holds an F-1 or J - 1 student visa is required to carry a full course of study in the fall and spring semesters. A full-time undergraduate course load is twelve (12) credit hours. All tuition and fees are expected to be paid at the time of registration.

IEP 330 – The Mississippi College Undergraduate Classroom

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): none/enrollment limited to first semester international undergraduate students and exchange students.

This eight week course explores the international undergraduate student experience at Mississippi College. Students will participate in class discussions; produce reflective journals; utilize Turnitin, SmartThinking, and Canvas; learn how to navigate MyMC and BannerWeb; and understand how to maintain their F-1 student visa status while working toward their degree.

Financial Information

Location of Business Office

The Business Office is located in the foyer of Nelson Hall, Room 106.

Student Expenses

The cost to attend Mississippi College and the refund policies have been approved by the Board of Trustees and are designed to be as fair as possible to both the University and the student. If a student or parent feels the policies have not been administered as written, and in a fair and equitable manner, an appeal may be directed to the Provost, Telephone: 601.925.3202.

Payment Policy

Tuition and fees are due and payable in full by the given deadline each semester unless utilizing the monthly payment plan. Accepted forms of payment are cash, check, money order, MasterCard, VISA, Discover, American Express, pinless debit and eCheck

Any account balance not paid by the given deadline will be considered past due and will be placed on hold. Students with an account on hold will not be able to register for any upcoming semesters, view grades online, receive transcripts and may result in possible withdrawal from classes. Past due accounts will also be subject to a late payment penalty. However, any student awaiting funding from VA Ch 31 and 33 will not be assessed a late payment penalty. Monthly Payment Plan - The University offers a monthly payment plan, a convenient method for planning and budgeting tuition and fees for the fall or spring semester. Under this plan, costs may be paid in four (4) monthly payments per semester. More detailed information may be obtained by contacting the Business Office at 601.925.3307 or 1.800.738.1287 or by email at bursar@mc.edu or by visiting https://www.mc.edu/offices/business/.

Fees

The total expense of an undergraduate student attending Mississippi College for the nine-month session, excluding books and personal expenses, is approximately $32,588. This is payable by semester. The University reserves the right to revise prices as economic conditions warrant.

Refunds/Return of Title IV Funds

The return of unearned Title IV aid is calculated in accordance with Federal regulations. This calculations applies to any student who meets the following criteria:

Withdraws from the university or ceases class attendance prior to the end of the term and Received Federal Title IV aid (Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Federal Direct Loan, Federal Plus Loan, but not Work Study)

If a student withdraws from the university or ceases class attendance prior to the end of the term, the university is required to calculate the amount of aid earned. Any unearned aid must be returned according to the provisions of the Higher Education Amendment of 1998. The withdrawal date is determined when the student initiates the withdrawal process in Banner web. The withdrawal date for unofficial withdrawals is the midpoint of the semester or the last date of attendance that a professor provides to the Financial Aid Office. The calculation of the return of these funds may result in the student owing a balance to the university.

The student is responsible for any balance due on the account after the Title IV funds have been returned. The student's responsibility also includes earned Title IV aid and any tuition and fees due to the institution.

The university is responsible for the return of unearned tuition and fees. To determine the institution's responsibility, multiply the total amount of institutional charges for the semester by the percentage unearned. Compare this result with the amount of Title IV aid unearned, the lesser amount is the unearned Title IV aid the institution is required to return.

Federal regulations require Mississippi College to have a fair and equitable refund policy. If a recipient of Title IV aid withdraws during a period of enrollment, Mississippi College must calculate the amount of Title IV aid the student did not earn. The percentage of aid earned is equal to the percentage of time completed. Unearned Title IV funds must be returned to the Title IV programs.

If a student withdraws on or before the 60% point of enrollment, the percentage of aid earned is equal to the percentage of time completed. If a student remains enrolled beyond the 60% point of enrollment period, 100% of the aid has been earned for that period. The percentage of earned days is calculated by taking the number of days the student attended the university and divide it by the total number of days for the semester. The amount of aid earned is equal to the amount of aid disbursed plus the amount of aid that could have been disbursed multiplied by the percentage of earned aid. The amount of earned aid is subtracted from the total amount disbursed. This is the unearned aid that should be returned.

All unearned Title IV funds must be returned to the Title IV programs. If Title IV aid was used to pay institutional charges first, the University will return unearned Title IV funds up to an amount that is equal to the amount disbursed to the U.S. Department of Education.

Funds are returned in the following order up to the full amount disbursed:

Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loan,
Federal Subsidized Direct Loan,
Federal PLUS Loan,
Federal Pell Grants,
FSEOG, and/or
Other assistance under TITLE IV.

Financial Assistance

All matters concerning financial aid are under the direction of the Committee for Enrollment Appeals, composed of administrators, faculty, staff and students. This committee establishes policies regarding financial aid. The amount of aid awarded a student is based on either scholarship or financial need. Aid is offered under the categories described below. Financial Aid will be disbursed approximately two (2) weeks following the first day of classes for the fall and spring semester. The Bursar's Office will disburse the aid to students' accounts. Summer federal financial aid will be disbursed after July 1st. Undergraduate students must be in at least 6 hours on July 1st to receive their federal aid. Graduate students must be in at least 3 hours on July 1st to receive their federal aid.

Institutional Scholarships

Scholarships are awarded on a first come, first-served basis. Institutional scholarships are intended to recognize the student's outstanding academic achievement, service in the community, and leadership skills. A comprehensive listing of those scholarships and requirements can be found on the MC website. Academic scholarships are awarded based on a student standardized test score for freshmen and GPA for transfers. Students may also qualify for additional aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. These awards are based on the student's EFC. Once a new student is awarded institutional aid, this award will be theirs for the time at Mississippi College as long as they maintain minimum GPA requirements. Students must be enrolled full-time in order to receive institutional scholarships. (An exception to this rule is made if the student is in their final semester.) Students who are under 21 years of age must live in a residence hall or at home with their parents. Those students electing to live off campus will lose all institutional scholarships. Scholarships cannot be used during the summer terms. Should a student have more scholarships and aid than the total of their direct costs, up to $500 will be refunded to the student each semester.

Renewal Requirement for Institutional Scholarships

Students must sign a scholarship acceptance letter. The letter contains the type and amount of scholarship awarded and the condition for scholarship renewal. Scholarships are renewed annually if the student meets the condition as outlined in their letter of acceptance.

Students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 for the following scholarships:

New Trustee Scholarship New Presidential with Distinction

Students must maintain a 2.5 GPA for the following academic scholarships.

Heritage Scholarship

Dean's Scholarship

Presidential Scholarship

Presidential Scholarship with Distinction

Transfer Presidential Scholarship

Prisidential Scholarship with Distinction

Christian Ministry Scholarship
Christian Ministry Dependent Scholarship
Financial Need Scholarship
Speaker's Tournament Scholarship

Baptist Student Union Scholarship Institutional Need Grant

Institutional Scholarship Band Scholarship

Jazz Band ScholarshipMusic Scholarship Math and Science Scholarship
Hillman Scholarship Chamber Choir Scholarship

Speed Scholarship

Scholarship recipients who fall below the required GPA will be placed on probation for the next semester enrolled. If after the probationary semester the student's cumulative GPA is not restored to the required level, the student will be placed on scholarship suspension and will lose the scholarship immediately. If after the probationary semester the student's cumulative GPA is not restored to the required level, but the student makes the required GPA for the probationary semester, then the student will be allowed a second probationary semester. If after the second probationary semester the cumulative GPA is not restored to the required level, then the scholarships would be suspended. The scholarship will be re-instated when the cumulative GPA meets or exceeds the minimum requirement. Notification of all actions will be sent to the student in writing.

Institutional scholarships recipients are expected to demonstrate good character in all aspects of their lives. Students who engage in serious misconduct may lose part or all of their scholarship support. The imposition of disciplinary action sanctioned through the student disciplinary process could also include loss of scholarship support. Students can receive scholarships for their first undergraduate degree only. Once degree requirements are met for the first undergraduate degree, the student is no longer eligible to receive institutional scholarships. Students who choose to enter college before graduation from high school upon completion of their junior year are not eligible for any institutional scholarships.

State Scholarships and Grants

The following scholarships and grants are available to residents of Mississippi:

Mississippi Tuition Assistance Grant

Mississippi Eminent Scholars Grant

HELP (Higher Education Legislative Plan for Needy Students)

Application procedure and eligibility information about these programs may be obtained from the Mississippi Office of State Student Financial Aid at 1.800.327.2980. This information is also available on the State Financial Aid website at https://www.msfinancialaid.org/.

Federal Student Aid

Students wishing to be awarded federal student aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). To receive priority consideration for campus-based federal student aid the application must be received by the central processor by March 1, with Mississippi College being designated as a recipient of FAFSA data. Applications received after this date will be given consideration depending on the availability of funds. Campus-based programs for which a student may be awarded include: Federal Work Study Program (FWS) and the Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG).

In addition, awards may include the Federal Pell Grant and the Direct Student Loan. Parents of undergraduate students may apply for the Parent Loan for Undergraduate Student (PLUS), and TEACH Grant.

The FAFSA is to be completed online at https://studentaid.gov/.

Student Employment

Students who desire to work on campus should contact the Office of Career Development at (601) 925-3901. Due to the limited number of jobs on campus, campus employment cannot be guaranteed. If a student is eligible to receive Federal Work Study, then they are eligible to work up to 8 hours per work during the enrollment period.

More information is available online at https://www.mc.edu/career/

Receiving and Maintaining Financial Assistance

All students that received federal aid must be working toward an eligible degree from Mississippi College. Students must make progress towards a degree in order to maintain being eligible to receive federal aid. Satisfactory Academic progress is evaluated at the end of each semester. This would be at the end of fall, spring and summer terms. The progress is evaluated by using the following standards:

Quantitative - Undergraduate and graduate must successfully complete 67% of all hours attempted during the semester. Attempted hours are those hours that will appear on one's transcript. Successful grades are A, B, C, and D. Unsuccessful grades W, F, or I.

Qualitative - Undergraduates must maintain a GPA of 2.0 to remain in good standing with the university. Graduate students must maintain a GPA of 2.75 - 3.25 to remain in good standing. The required GPA's depend on the degree the graduate is pursuing.

Maximum Hours- If an undergraduate student exceeds 190 hours, they are placed on financial aid suspension. If a graduate student exceeds 150% of the published required hours, they are placed on suspension.

Once Satisfactory Academic progress is evaluated, students who fail to meet the standards are first put on financial aid probation. Students on academic probation will be eligible to receive financial assistance for the first semester on probation, and they will be eligible to receive financial assistance for the second semester provided substantial academic progress was made during the first semester of probation. Those students on financial aid probation are eligible to receive their federal aid during their time of probation. If a student is on financial aid probation for 2 consecutive semesters, then the student is placed on financial aid suspension. The student will be ineligible to receive federal aid, but they will be eligible to attend the university. Students that are placed on academic suspension are automatically placed on financial aid suspension.

Students who are denied financial assistance due to unsatisfactory academic progress have the right to appeal the denial. Students should place in writing the request to appeal to the Committee for Enrollment Appeals. (Contact the Director of Financial Aid, Telephone: 601.925.3212.) The full satisfactory academic progress policy can be found on the Mississippi College website at https://www.mc.edu/offices/financial-aid/satisfactory-academic-progre. Once a decision is made concerning the student's appeal, the student is notified in writing the decision that was made.

Student Life and Activities

Student Government

Every undergraduate student at Mississippi College has membership in and is represented by the Student Government Association (SGA). Each year the student body elects Executive Council members which include: President, Vice-President, Chief Justice, Business Manager to represent them. These officers help to promote student welfare, perpetuate university customs and traditions, and to train in the principles of democratic government preparing for distinguished citizenship. They cooperate with the administration in promoting well-ordered conduct among the students and enforcing the regulations of the University, as well as those of the Student Leadership Council.

Disability Accommodations and Services

Student Accessibility Services: The Mississippi College Student Accessibility Services (SAS) is committed to ensuring that educational programs are accessible to all qualified students. SAS provides access and opportunity to academic courses, programs, and activities. The office supplies assistance to students with disabilities in the form of accommodations, advising, and referral services so they may have equal access to the academic and non-academic programs at Mississippi College and participate fully in all aspects of student life. Reasonable accommodations are delivered on a case-by-case basis for students who have demonstrated a need for these services.

Students with disabilities needing accommodations should contact Student Accessibility Services, Nelson Hall, basement, Telephone: 601.925.3852 or email: accessibility@mc.edu. Additional information regarding policy and procedures can be found on the Mississippi College Website at https://www.mc.edu/offices/accessibility-services/

Emergency Procedures

Recognizing that safety is to a certain extent the responsibility of the entire campus community, the Office of Public Safety lists Emergency Procedures on its website (https://www.mc.edu/offices/safety/procedures). Any questions may be directed to the Office of Public Safety at 925.3204.

Student Policies

All students should be familiar with the policies of the University and the rules and regulations with which govern student behavior. These policies_may also be accessed on the Mississippi College website at https://www.mc.edu/students/student-experience-policies.

Student Publications

The Tribesman is the University yearbook published annually by an appointed student staff.

Blue and Gold Media is the student voice of Mississippi College, MC's student-produced media group publishing stories, videos, and podcasts online at https://www.blueandgoldmc.com/

The Arrowhead is a magazine published by students. It carries a number of stories, poems, photographs and feature articles written by students, faculty members and alumni.

Student publications play an important part in the extracurricular activity on any university campus. The University newspaper, the literary magazine, and the yearbook are the Mississippi College student publications. They preserve the events and experiences of campus life in the permanency of print for students to read and enjoy.

The Publications Council oversees all matters relating to student publications. The Council interviews and elects editors, assistant editors and business managers of the student publications. The Council has the authority and responsibility to deal with problems concerning student publications.

The maximum amount of credit that one may earn in a semester for working on student publications is 1/2 semester hour.

Athletics and Intramural Sports

Mississippi College offers proper balance to its students in physical development opportunities and competitive interest through a first-rate intercollegiate athletic program for men and women. The University participates in eighteen men's and women's sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track, and volleyball. Although a member of the small college category, the University has produced many players and coaches who have gone on to win national recognition. The University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Gulf South Conference (GSC) and participates according to the rules and regulations established by these organizations.

A well-balanced program of intramural sports is provided for Mississippi College's students, faculty and staff. This program provides a means of recreation and physical fitness for the individual who does not participate in varsity athletics. This program is designed to provide persons of all fitness levels the chance to play on a competitive, organized sports team without the time demands of varsity sports. Teams are organized from the residence halls, clubs and various campus groups to compete in sports such as flag football, tennis, ultimate frisbee, basketball, soccer, softball, and outdoor volleyball.

Throughout all levels of physical activity, Mississippi College emphasizes the physical, social and recreational benefits to be gained through active participation. With these educational values in mind, the University fosters a program that encourages as broad a participation as possible. Mississippi College is proud of this active program and the hundreds of students, faculty and staff who participate in it annually. Details can be found at https://www.mc.edu/students/policies/intramural-athletics.

Student Organizations

Student activities and organizations at Mississippi College help to facilitate students in their development academically, socially, emotionally, spiritually, and physically. Mississippi College also offers numerous other opportunities for students to get involved such as: campus ministries, music ensembles, student publications, campus elections and honors, and intramural and varsity athletic programs. All student organizations on the main campus are authorized by and operate under the supervision of the Student Activities and Services Committee according to regulations listed at https://www.mc.edu/students/policies/student-organizations. This committee is made up of members of the administration, faculty, staff, and student body.

Christian Life

One of the most distinctive aspects of Mississippi College is our long heritage of Christian witness. We are a Christian college where Christ is worshiped and honored. We understand that not all of our students at Mississippi College are Christians, but it is our hope that as students become part of our campus community they will grow in their understanding of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. We place a great value on "the integration of faith and learning throughout the educational process" and it is our desire that every member of our campus have opportunities to acknowledge Jesus as Lord and have the opportunity to grow in their understanding of Christ. It is also our belief that being a Christian involves service to God and others, we therefore encourage members of the Mississippi College community to serve and give back to society through the various ministries and service projects that have been established. The goal of Christian Life at Mississippi College is to foster respect for, encourage inquiry regarding, and develop participation in the teachings of Christ and the traditions of the Christian Church.

Under the umbrella of Christian Life there are four unique components: Campus Ministries, Church Relations, Faith Engagement and Community Service. While each one of these areas have been developed to assist in educating students to a life of faith, Campus Ministries is most directly related to purposes of Student Life. Students are encouraged to participate in all aspects of Christian Life and to discuss their ideas with each other and bring any concerns to the Associate Vice President for Student Experience and Dean of Students, Dr. Jonathan Ambrose. His office is located in the basement of Nelson Hall, and he can be reached at 601.925.3275 or by e-mail at jwambrose@mc.edu.

Campus Ministries

As a student comes to Mississippi College, he/she will find opportunities for spiritual growth and enrichment. Many activities are planned for the personal benefit of the student. Each activity is voluntary, and the student must take the initiative to become involved and thereby profit from it. Besides ministries located on MC's campus, students are encouraged to participate in the worship and teaching ministries of the churches in the area. More information can be found on the Christian Life Website: https://www.mc.edu/students/christian/campus-ministries.

BSU (Baptist Student Union)

The BSU is a campus ministry that exists to be a community among friends, growing in Christ, impacting the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The BSU's focus is to be a student-led, Christ-centered ministry that seeks to provide opportunities for spiritual growth and Christian community. We do this through our weekly worship service called Vision, as well as discipleship small groups.

FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes)

FCA is an organization at Mississippi College that focuses on influencing athletes and coaches to use their influence for Christ. At MC, our mission is to form an army of believers to disciple and serve every athlete and coach on campus, displaying the love of Christ through our personal faith; being unashamed and transparent with a presence of overflowing joy that sets this campus on fire. We are seeing this mission accomplished by teams being affected by Christ in a visible way, community being developed and encouraged, raising up disciples who are constantly growing and multiplying other disciples and seeing coaches coach biblically.

Special Programs

Throughout the year, a wide variety of special programs provide educational and cultural opportunities to Mississippi College students. Many are open to the local community as well. Outstanding lecturers in literature, science, mathematics, political science, and religion have appeared recently on campus in programs open to the public. Vocal and instrumental performances are also an almost weekly occurrence throughout the university year, and numerous art exhibits are on display during each year, specifically those in the Samuel Marshall Gore Gallery located directly behind the Leland Speed Library.

Music Ensembles

The Mississippi College Singers

The premier choral organization of Mississippi College, the MC Singers represent the university in performances locally, regionally, nationally and internationally. Membership is by audition only, and all undergraduate members receive scholarship funds. With only rare exception, membership in the MC Singers spans the full academic year, fall and spring semesters.

The Symphonic Winds

The Symphonic Winds presents concerts of classical wind band literature as well as pops/variety repertoire throughout both semesters. Scholarships are available for all members. An audition is required.

The Jazz Band

The Jazz Band presents concerts of big band and jazz charts of many styles for on and off campus events. Scholarships are available for all members.

The Choctaw Marching Band

The Choctaw Marching Band performs at all MC home football games. This fall semester ensemble rehearses during the marching season and performs a wide variety of music from many different genres during the games and at half time. Scholarships are available for all members.

MC Worship Collective

MC Worship Collective is the primary ensemble for students in the BA in Music: Worship Leadership degree. The collective is comprised of instrumentalists and vocalists who perform various forms of modern worship music. In addition to giving both on and off-campus concerts, MC Worship Collective also leads worship weekly for MC chapel service. Membership is by audition only and students are expected to commit to MC Worship Collective for both fall and spring semesters. Auditions take place in the fall. Scholarships are available for all members.

The Choctaw Chorus

The Choctaw Chorus is a non-auditioned, mixed-voice ensemble with broad campus participation from all majors at Mississippi College. Performing primarily in on-campus venues, the Chorus performs secular and sacred literature and major choral works from all musical periods.

Residence Hall Students

Living on campus adds a wonderful dimension to a student's life and education. It is the desire of each Residence Life professional that the residence halls will truly be a place where students can develop, not only scholastically but socially and spiritually as well. Every effort is made to make living on campus as comfortable and pleasant as it is convenient.

To promote better student relationships, a broader exchange of intellectual thought and to foster the general student welfare and culture of Mississippi College, the university has made a sizable commitment to providing a residential environment that contributes to an overall educational experience. Accordingly, all single full-time undergraduate students, under the age of 22 and classified as dependent, as determined by the MC Office of Financial Assistance, are required to live in a campus residence hall unless they commute from home. Furthermore, the policy addressing the award of institutional scholarship funds directly relates to this requirement. (University Policy 4.14.10)

The residence halls are reserved for students enrolled for classes at Mississippi College. Generally, full-time (12 hours) status is required, but exceptions are occasionally made for students with special circumstances.

Special permission is required from the Director of Residence Life for a part-time student (below 12 hours) to live in a residence hall.

There are ten residence halls and two apartment complexes for our students. Each residence hall and apartment complex has a Lead Resident Assistant with upper-classmen students serving as Resident Assistants.

Vehicle Registration

In the interest of campus safety and because there is a finite amount of parking space, all vehicles driven on campus by faculty, staff and students must be registered with the office of public safety.

Vehicle registration fees are included as part of tuition and fees. A decal designating specific parking areas is issued for each vehicle registered. Decals are issued through the Office of Public Safety after first registering at (https://www.mc.edu/offices/safety/parking-permits). Anyone driving on the campus is subject to University traffic safety regulations. Violators will be fined, with fines going into a student scholarship fund. Students accumulating more than five traffic citations may have their parking privileges on the campus revoked. Designated parking spaces for handicapped students are provided. Rules and regulations are specifically listed on the Public Safety website (https://www.mc.edu/offices/safety/traffic-regulations.

Identification Card

Every student who does not have an ID card from a prior semester will obtain an Identification Card during the registration process. The student is expected to have this card in his/her possession at all times. Use of another student's ID is not allowed. Students will use the card for admission to school-sponsored activities and as a voting permit during student body elections, for library privileges, to scan for chapel credit, and for obtaining a copy of the TRIBESMAN at the end of the school year. Resident students will use their ID cards for meals in the Hannah Food Court, points in the Chick-fil-a and Einstein Bagels located in the Commons, Pimento's Café, the coffee shop in Speed Library, as well as to gain entrance through secured doors in residence halls. A student withdrawing from the University should surrender his/her ID card to the Bursar's Office at the time the withdrawal is initiated.

Residence Hall Telephone Service

The University dorm rooms are wired for telephone service, but it is only available upon request. If you desire service, please contact Residence Life for service to be activated. The number will be assigned to the room by the University's Information Technology's Network and Security Department.

Mailroom & Copy Center

The Mailroom and Copy Center offers full-service mail and print services for Mississippi College students, faculty and staff.

The main Mailroom and Copy Center location is located on the lower level of Alumni Hall. The Alumni Hall location receives letter mail only. Packages sent from FedEx, UPS and USPS are all sent to the Campus Operations Stockroom Location.

Mailboxes are only provided for students living in the residence halls.

The hours of operation for the Mailroom and Copy Center are:

Monday- Friday 8:00am to 4:00pm

Copy Center services include high-quality black & white and color printing/copying, print consulting, scanning/imaging and document management, wide-format print of posters and much more.

We ask for 1 working day (from the time we receive it) to produce your average order. If it is more complicated or a larger than average order, it may take longer. Most orders, however, are turned around in less than 1 working day. If you have a rush order, we will do everything we can to accommodate you. Please do not request something as a rush unless absolutely necessary. Rushing your order means that someone else's order will be delayed.

Additional information regarding our Mailroom and Copy Center can be accessed on the Mississippi College Website at https://www.mc.edu/offices/mailroom/

Health Services

Student health services are provided through the Mississippi Baptist Health Systems, Inc., at the Healthplex, located on the Mississippi College Clinton campus. These services are available to full time students. Because of the existing relationship between Mississippi College and Baptist Health Systems, Inc., it is recommended that emergency care be handled through Mississippi Baptist Medical Center Emergency Room. To assist with the cost of health services, students are encouraged to retain insurance coverage on their parent's or spouse's policy whenever possible. Additional information regarding policy and procedures may be accessed on the Mississippi College Website at https://www.mc.edu/offices/health/.

Bookstore

The Mississippi College Bookstore is located on the corner of Jefferson Street and Madison Street. The primary mission of the store is to provide textbooks and course materials for purchase. The bookstore is operated by Follett Higher Education Group whose management and personnel strive to provide efficient, courteous, and reliable service at all times.

Students may purchase books in the store or on-line before the semester starts. Text book rental is also offered. The store accepts Visa, Master Card, American Express, Discover, and personal checks.

Students may conveniently charge educational purchases to their account through the last "drop day," as set by the current Academic Calendar. Purchases may be offset against anticipated financial aid or paid when the next monthly billing statement is received by providing the store cashier with the purchase information and MC student ID. Please keep in mind that charges placed on student accounts must be paid off on time to avoid late fees. If needed, a monthly payment option is offered for the fall and spring terms.

The bookstore will buy back textbooks year round, except the first two weeks of each semester.

The store's regular hours during fall and spring semesters are Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 pm. During the first week of registration (fall and spring), the bookstore extends its hours until 6:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday. Summer hours are Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m., and 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. on Friday.

Food Services

MMI Dining offers multiple outlets for food service on campus for your dining pleasure.

The main cafeteria is located on the first floor of the B.C. Rogers Student Center. Here you can enjoy "classic favorites" that are almost as good as your mother's home cooking. (If you think ours is better, we won't tell her and neither should you). Our Grill area prepares fresh daily features such as Philly Cheesesteaks or Blackened Chicken Po-boys. Our "Bowl You Over" station might have loaded Mac-n-Cheese or Shrimp and Grits as a daily feature. Our always fresh salad bar, brick oven pizza and design your own deli favorites are available at lunch and dinner daily. Be sure to save room for hand dipped Blue Bell Ice cream.

Student Conduct

It is assumed that every student enrolling in Mississippi College agrees to conduct themselves in a manner conducive to the highest sort of mental and moral development in keeping with the ideals and traditions of the University. Personal misconduct either on or off the campus by anyone connected with Mississippi College detracts from the Christian witness Mississippi College strives to present to the world and hinders full accomplishment of the mission of the University.

As an institution pledged to the Christian principle of concern for others, the University enunciates a definite position on certain matters. Students who elect to attend the University, realizing its position on such matters, are expected to respect and abide by that position. Students who evidence an unwillingness or inability to conduct themselves in accord with University standards and any other rules and regulations of the University not specifically listed here, either on or off the campus, shall be subject to disciplinary action.

The faculty, administration, and Student Government Association cooperate in the student conduct process. Student participation in the conduct process is by allowance and not as a delegation of ultimate authority or responsibility. This procedure, it is hoped, will aid the students of Mississippi College to be judged by their peers, according to and by the rules, regulations, standards, and ideals of this institution, allowing them an opportunity to exercise self-discipline to the fullest extent possible.

In addressing an alleged violation of regulations or conduct deemed inconsistent with the ideals and standards of the institution, the University reserves the right to make any and all necessary investigations including, but not limited to, an on-premises investigation and inspection of any residence or living quarters on University property.

Disciplinary expulsion, suspension and probation may become a part of the permanent record. Parents or guardians may be notified of serious disciplinary action taken concerning their dependents. Rules and regulations are specifically listed in the Mississippi College Student Code of Conduct at Policies | The Student Experience | Mississippi College (mc.edu))

Drug-free Environment

Mississippi College is committed to the establishment of a completely DRUGFREE environment in the lives of each student enrolled for any and all study at the University, or involved in any way in any Mississippi College program. The use, possession, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students at Mississippi College is expressly forbidden and the same shall not be tolerated on any property owned or controlled by Mississippi College, nor shall the same be tolerated at or as a part of any activity undertaken at or under the direction or supervision of Mississippi College. Illicit drugs shall be defined to include any use, possession, distribution, sale, manufacture, or evidence of consumption of narcotics, controlled substances or illegal drugs on or off Mississippi College property, or at a Mississippi College-sponsored events or programs in accordance with federal, state, and local laws.

Any violations of the provisions of this notice, or of any statements of a similar nature published by Mississippi College, relative to illicit drugs, will result in disciplinary action which may include expulsion, suspension, mandatory successful completion of approved rehabilitation programs, and/or probation, any of which may become a part of the permanent record of the person violating or breaching any expression of this statement or similar published University rules and/or regulations.

Additionally, the University expressly reserves the right to refer any person violating this or similar regulations to the appropriate law enforcement officials for prosecution for violation of civil and/or criminal laws, as authorized by The DRUGFREE Schools and Communities Act of 1989.

Academic Information

New Student Orientation

Orientation for freshmen and transfer students is held periodically, starting in the spring, continuing during the summer and at the beginning of each semester. Academic and social expectations for students and parents are addressed during each orientation as well as class scheduling and registration. All new students are expected to be in attendance.

Career Development

The Office of Career Development provides personalized coaching to students planning for a future career and/or a graduate or professional school. The Office of Career Development offers additional resources and job search assistance throughout a student's academic experience, and up to four years after graduation. Visit Career Development on the web at mc.edu/career. Contact the Office of Career Development at career-services@mc.edu or 601-925-3901 to schedule an appointment.

Student Success

The Office of Student Success offers one-on-one assistance to students struggling academically. The office supports students as they identify and address academic concerns, connecting them to the appropriate campus resources. Contact Student Success to schedule an appointment at https://www.mc.edu/success/.

Advising

Mississippi College provides academic guidance for its students. Freshmen are assigned to faculty advisors for registration. All upperclassmen who have chosen their major fields are assigned to advisors in the department of their choice. Students who have not selected majors are assigned to other members of the faculty, but, upon choice of majors, they should initiate an Undergraduate Major Change process through the MyMC portal so that records can be transferred to advisors in the major fields.

University Core Curriculum

The purpose of the General Education Program (University Core Curriculum) at Mississippi College is to prepare students for a lifetime of learning. Inspired by and consistent with our mission as a Christian university, the program is designed to instill basic skills and knowledge deemed necessary for disciplined study, global awareness, and reasoned response to a changing world. This educational experience should assist students as they build academic majors and minors. The General Education Program is divided into learning areas defined by an educational goal and outcome objectives.

Analytical Reasoning and Effective Communication: The ability to think critically and independently, apply scientific and quantitative methods, and communicate effectively should empower students to:

communicate logically and precisely engage in problem solving and in making informed judgments conceptualize and solve numerical problems study and learn about the natural world

Personal Values and Attitudes: An understanding of, Christian ethics, personal wellness, and interpersonal relationships in society should empower students to:

develop skills for making responsible moral choices based on an understanding of Biblical principles enhance physical and psychological well being engage in team-building and cooperative efforts as well as individual initiative

Social and Cultural Understanding: An examination of various dimensions of human civilization should empower students to acquire perspective into the society and culture of Americans and other peoples acquire knowledge of the arts and humanities enhance skills for the dynamics of relationships

University Core Curriculum and other Graduation Requirements

Majors, Minors and Concentrations

For a bachelor's degree the student must complete an approved major and minor, with the exception that certain comprehensive majors do not require a separate minor. A major is a specified program of study usually containing at least 30 semester hours of courses unique to the field. A comprehensive major, which does not require a minor, may include courses from related fields in its 50-65 required hours. Music, as is common at other institutions, requires more (55-94 hours).

Some majors allow a choice among designated concentrations of courses within the major. A concentration consists of 12-18 hours of related courses, taken along with the basic courses required of all students in that major. Transfer students must complete a minimum of 12 hours of the major at Mississippi College.

A student may earn a second major by completing all requirements specified in that field provided both majors are offered within the same degree; ex. both majors must be offered in the Bachelor of Arts degree.

A minor is a specified program of 18-21 hours in a field separate from the major. Courses counted in the major cannot be counted in the 18-21 hours in a minor. Transfer students must take a minimum of six hours in the minor at Mississippi College. Courses counted in one minor cannot be counted in a second minor.

Second Bachelor's Degree

Ordinarily, students may not be awarded two degrees at the same time.

In order to qualify for a second bachelor's degree the student must satisfy all course requirements for the second degree sought and must complete a minimum of 33 semester hours in residence at Mississippi College with 66 grade points in addition to the credits used for the first degree. Depending upon the student's academic standing, and with prior approval of the Provost and the Registrar, coursework for both degrees may be undertaken contemporaneously. When completing a second bachelor's degree, the minor requirement is waived for the second degree program. A transfer student with a degree from another institution must fulfill the aforementioned stipulations in seeking a second degree from Mississippi College (a minimum of 33 semester hours in residence at Mississippi College with 66 grade points), including a minimum of twelve hours in the major and six hours in the minor (if declared) at Mississippi College.

Academic Loads

Full Time Students - An individual qualifies as a full-time student if he/she is registered for a minimum of 12 semester hours of academic work per semester.

Regular or Normal Load - The regular or normal load for students is 16 hours per semester. However, upper class students may, on the advice of their faculty advisors, take as many as 18 semester hours of academic work, provided they have a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. See Grade Point Averages section of this Undergraduate Catalog.

Load for Freshmen - Freshmen are advised not to take more than 17 semester hours of academic work in one semester. Eighteen semester hours may be taken with advisor's permission.

Load for Seniors - Seniors who have a grade point average of 3.5 on work taken at Mississippi College may, during one semester of their senior year-and one semester only-take a maximum of 21 credit hours. Permission for such must be secured from the Provost. Under no circumstances will a student be allowed to enroll in more than 21 hours during a semester.

Load and Hours Required to Graduate - All bachelor's degrees require at least 130 semester hours. Therefore, the student who takes only the minimum load of 12 hours per semester will need 11-12 semesters to graduate. By taking the more normal load of 16-17 hours, most students can complete requirements in 8 semesters.

Load for Summer Session - In summer session the maximum load is one academic course in the May term, and two academic courses per term (plus a non-academic course if needed), for a total of 17 credit hours for the summer session. Statements concerning maximum academic load apply whether a student takes all of his/her work at Mississippi College or whether he/she takes work here and elsewhere at the same time. Note that students must obtain permission from the Provost to take courses elsewhere while they are enrolled at Mississippi College and/or working toward a degree from Mississippi College. (Form available online and in the Office of the Registrar)

Change of Schedule: Drop, Add, Audit, Withdrawal

Drop or Add Courses

After the second full week of classes in a fall or spring semester, students who have been reported by a faculty member to the Registrar's Office will be administratively dropped from those classes for which they are registered but have never attended.

Students register for courses on-line through Banner Web according to schedules published on the Banner website. Consultation with an advisor is a requirement, and the student must understand that if there is any deviation from the schedule agreed upon with the advisor, full responsibility rests on the student. After classes have begun, courses may be added or dropped according to the college calendar published in the on-line catalog and schedule.

Adding Courses

Students will not be allowed to enter a course after the first week of a semester or the beginning of the second class period of a summer term unless special permission is granted by the Provost, in consultation with the dean and the department chair.

Dropping Courses

The official drop date for each term is published in the college calendar and class schedule. After that official date, a student may not drop a course without receiving an F in the course unless he/she requests and receives special permission from the Provost, in consultation with the dean of the appropriate school.

Dropping a course after the official drop date without receiving an $\underline{\mathbf{F}}$ should be rare. The following conditions must be met:

Student experiences extenuating circumstance (circumstances beyond the student's control)

Student must be passing course requirements

Student has attended class with regularity, and has demonstrated general good faith toward completing the requirements of the course.

For more information regarding changing a course schedule, students should contact the Office of the Registrar, (601.925.3210) and/or consult University Policy 2.13.

Auditing Courses

Briefly stated, auditing a course conveys the normal privileges of the course, but without the responsibility of grades and without credit. The student registers for the course and pays full tuition. Although the work is not graded, the student is expected to participate in at least 75 percent of class meetings and activities in order for the audit to appear on the permanent record.

Any change from audit to credit must be accomplished by the last day for adding a course, and any change from credit to audit must be made by the last day to drop a course. No credit can be given for a class audited, nor is the student permitted an examination for credit. The only way to earn credit is to take the course anew for credit. Audit hours do not count toward eligibility for financial aid. No faculty member is authorized to admit anyone as an auditor to any class unless the auditor is registered as such. A drop/add form must be completed, including obtaining the instructor's signature, before a course can be changed from credit to audit.

Withdrawal from the University

A student desiring to withdraw from the University should initiate the withdrawal by accessing the Complete Withdrawal link in the MyMC student portal. It is necessary for the correct procedure to be followed as discontinuance of class attendance without official withdrawal earns a grade of F in each course. See Refund Policies in this catalog for withdrawal/ refund schedule.

Any claims for refunds of tuition will be based on the date on which the student initiates the withdrawal. If students are living on campus, it will be necessary for them to notify the Director of Residence Life regarding their moving out of the residence hall.

Summer Session Drops and Withdrawals

When a student is taking only one course in a summer session and drops it, it is considered a withdrawal from the University. The student should initiate the withdrawal by accessing the Complete Withdrawal link in the MyMC student portal.

Course Numbering System, Undergraduate

For undergraduate courses, Mississippi College uses course numbers consisting of a three-character subject code followed by a 3 or 4 digit number.

Lower-division Courses: Numbers beginning with 1 and 2 are considered Lower-division courses primarily for freshmen and sophomores:

1-Level: Courses beginning with 1: Freshman 2-Level: Courses beginning with 2: Sophomore

Upper-division Courses: Numbers beginning with 3 and 4 are considered Upper-division courses primarily for juniors and seniors:

3-Level: Courses beginning with 3: Junior 4-Level: Courses beginning with 4: Senior

Some 4-level courses carry dual credit, undergraduate/graduate. These courses cannot subsequently be changed to graduate credit nor repeated for graduate credit at the 5-level.

Specific information about post-baccalaureate graduate courses is found in the Graduate Catalog and the Law School Catalog.

Classification of Students

Classification is based on the student's standing according to earned hours at the beginning of any regular session.

By Hours

Freshman: (0-23 hours) one working toward a bachelor's degree.

Sophomore: (24-53 hours) one working toward a bachelor's degree.

Junior: (54-83 hours) one working toward a bachelor's degree.

Senior: (84 or more hours) one working toward a bachelor's degree.

By Degree Status

Degree seeking student: one who has made declaration of a specific degree and major and is enrolled in those courses required to attain such degree.

Pre-baccalaureate non-degree student: one who does not have a bachelor's degree and is not working toward a degree at Mississippi College. The student is eligible to take any undergraduate course for which he or she is qualified. The student will be admitted through undergraduate admissions as a non-degree seeking student.

Post-baccalaureate non-degree student: one who already holds a bachelor's degree and is not working toward a degree at Mississippi College. The student is eligible to take any graduate or undergraduate course for which he or she is qualified, as determined by the faculty member or department concerned. The student will be admitted through the Graduate School as a non-degree seeking student.

Graduate student: one enrolled in a master's, education specialist, counseling specialist or doctoral degree program at Mississippi College.

Law student: one enrolled in Mississippi College School of Law.

Special Ways to Earn Credit

The normal way to earn degree credit at Mississippi College is by taking regular university classes. However, the University does have several ways of validating prior learning or accepting credit from external sources. All such credit must meet Mississippi College standards and, for enrolled students, must be approved in advance by Mississippi College. The maximum total of such credit in any combination is 30 semester hours.

Advanced Placement Credit (AP)

A student may earn credit for university-level Advanced Placement (AP) courses, provided that the score set by Mississippi College is made on the standardized examination. An official copy of the AP College Grade Report is required to award credit.

^{*}CLEP credit in English is limited to a total of six (6) semester hours. A student may CLEP only one literature exam.

Correspondence or Extension Credit

^{} A single examination covers the foreign language skills usually learned from the end of the first year through the second year of college study.

^{}CLEP credit in history is limited to a total of six (6) semester hours chosen from the courses listed above. To meet the six (6) hours of history CORE requirement, both courses must be from the same series, i.e. United States History or Western Civilization.

^{*}Students who have previous credit for PLS 202 will NOT be allowed to receive credit for PLS 201 per the History/Political Science Department.

Mississippi College does not offer work by correspondence and prefers that its students not take correspondence courses from other institutions except in cases of scheduling difficulties that cannot be resolved in some other way. In such cases the appropriate dean may permit transfer of correspondence credit, but in no case can more than six semester hours of correspondence or extension credit be accepted.

Credit For Service In The Armed Forces

Credit for specialized training in the armed forces may be granted on the basis of recommendations published in A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experience in the Armed Services, insofar as the recommendations can be applied toward requirements for graduation. An official copy of the Joint Services Transcript is required to award credit. Up to three semester hours of Physical Education credit may be granted for completion of basic training or the equivalent. Students should submit a copy of discharge papers reflecting Honorable Discharge to the Office of the Registrar.

Credit Validated by Examination

In some cases a student may wish to receive university credit for a course taken through a reputable institution not offering university credit or combination of such coursework and other experience. With the approval of the Provost, such credit may be established by the student's passing satisfactorily an examination on a course of comparable content given at Mississippi College. There is a fee for validating credit. See the Office of the Provost for details. 601.925.3202. (See Special Examinations section of this catalog.)

International Baccalaureate (IB) Credit

Students who are interested in obtaining IB credit should contact the Office of the Registrar, Telephone: 601.925.3210.

Military Officer Training Programs

Mississippi College offers courses in two military officer programs: U.S. Army ROTC and U.S. Air Force ROTC. Army ROTC courses are offered as Military Science and Leadership (MSL) courses. Air Force ROTC courses are offered as Aerospace Studies (AOS) courses. Courses are not available on campus but are part of a cooperative program with another local institution. For information about Army ROTC call 601-925-3856 and for Air Force ROTC call 601-979-1620.

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Develops principles and exercises for individual fitness and healthy lifestyle.

MSL 104 - Leadership Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Develops principles and exercises for individual fitness and healthy lifestyle.

MSL 201 - Applied Leadership and Management I

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): MSL 203.

Takes the unique approach of placing cadets in a wide variety of group exercises designed to emphasize various professional leadership competencies and insights.

MSL 202 - Applied Leadership and Management II

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): MSL 204.

Continuation of MSL 201.

MSL 203 - Leadership Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Develops principles and exercises for individual fitness and healthy lifestyle.

MSL 204 - Leadership Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Develops principles and exercises for individual fitness and healthy lifestyle.

MSL 301 - Advanced Leadership and Management I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): MSL 303.

The study, practice and evaluation of adaptive leadership skills in challenging scenarios related to squad tactical operations.

MSL 302 - Advanced Leadership and Management II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): MSL 304.

Uses intense situational leadership challenges to build cadet awareness and skills in leading tactical operations up to platoon level.

MSL 303 - Leadership Laboratory

MSL 304 - Leadership Laboratory

MSL 401 - Semiar in Leadership I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): MSL 403.

Develops cadet proficiency in planning, executing and assessing complex operations.

MSL 402 - Seminar in Leadership II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): MSL 404.

Explores the dynamics of leading in the complex situations of current military operations in the contemporary operating environment.

MSL 403 - Leadership Laboratory

MSL 404 - Leadership Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Develops principles and exercises for individual fitness and healthy lifestyle.

Internship Programs

Academic credit is awarded for experiential learning through the internship programs. Some academic departments provide internship experiences for their majors. Students interested in internships should contact their academic advisors as soon as possible. All forms related to new internship sites must be completed and filed with the advisors by the following deadlines: Fall Semester - March 15, Spring Semester - October 15, and Summer Semester - February 15. After the internship site is approved, registration for the internship must be completed by the last add date for the semester in which the internship is to be completed.

Grades

Undergraduate Grading System

The University uses the following grading system:

- $\underline{\mathbf{A}}$ is reserved for work which is definitely superior in quality.
- B is given for work which is consistently good and which manifests sufficient interest, effort, or originality to lift it above average work.
- c is given for average work and shows that basic requirements in class assignments have been met. It is the minimum requirement for graduation.
- D earns credit but is below the standard required for graduation.
- F indicates failure and naturally carries no credit.
- W Withdrawal (does not count in the student's academic standing.)
- CR earns credit hour(s) without grade points.
- AU refers to audit credit without hours or grade points.
- NA No Audit because requirements were not met.
- No Credit because requirements were not met.

- I "Incomplete" may be given to a student who has been unavoidably hindered from completing work required in a course, provided that:
 - a. semester attendance requirements have been met;
 - b. the request is made at a point beyond the last date to withdraw from a class;
 - c. in the opinion of the professor, the student has completed the vast majority of work required for the course and the remaining work can be accomplished independently and without significant over sight by the professor;
 - d. the student is doing passing work; and
 - e. the student has made prior arrangements with the faculty member to complete the remaining work

The grade of I affects the grade point average because it carries no grade points and the course hours are calculated as hours attempted and grade point hours. The grade of I must be removed promptly or it becomes an F; it cannot be removed by repeating the course. The course syllabus outlines the criteria faculty members use in determining a student's final grade in the course.

The grade of PR is only available when, by design, coursework extends beyond the semester or term in which the course is scheduled and the course has prior approval of the Academic Council. The current list of approved course numbers is maintained within the Registrar's Office. The PR grade does not count in grade point hours, and thus does not affect GPA until changed to a single letter grade upon successful completion.

Requirements for course completion are outlined within the course syllabus or in prior arrangement with the course instructor. Requirements not completed within the designated timeframe results in the PR grade removal and the grade earned assigned.

Grade Points

 $\underline{\mathbf{A}}$ = 4 grade points per hour

 $\underline{\mathbf{B}}$ = 3 grade points per hour

 $\underline{\mathbf{C}}$ = 2 grade points per hour

 $\underline{\mathbf{D}}$ = 1 grade points per hour

 \mathbf{F} = 0 grade points per hour

 $\underline{\mathbf{I}}$ = 0 grade points per hour

 \underline{CR} = 0 grade points per hour

PR = 0 grade points per hour

Grade Point Hours

Grade point hours are those hours for which a student registered and received a letter grade (A, B, C, D, F, I). Grades of F and Incomplete are included in grade point hours. No withdrawals or dropped courses are included.

Credits in non-academic courses do not carry grade points. Note information on credit for Varsity Sports (PED courses) in the section of this Undergraduate Catalog.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

One's grade point average is based on grade point hours at Mississippi College. If one repeats a course, both grades enter into calculation of the grade point average. The formula for GPA is number of grade points divided by grade point hours. Any exceptions to calculating GPA by repeating a course are identified in Policy 2.15 of the Mississippi College Policy and Procedure Manual.

Mid-Term Grades for Undergraduate Students

Mid-term grades are calculated for undergraduate students both fall and spring semesters, with special emphasis on freshmen. They are not a part of the student's permanent record. These grades are available to the student on the Mississippi College Banner website.

Grade Reports

A record of each student's grades (transcript) is kept in the Office of the Registrar, and a report is available to the student at the close of each semester on the Mississippi College Banner website.

Repeated Courses and Grades in the Permanent Record

A grade on a student's permanent record cannot be changed for reasons external to the course itself. A grade of F remains on the record when the course is repeated, and both grades count in the calculation of grade point average. Courses passed cannot be repeated for credit or used to pull up low grades; with special permission by the Provost an exception can be made in the case of a D grade. Both grades then count in calculating grade point average, but the credit counts only once. See Academic Fresh Start and Calculation of Grade Point Averages for Special Purposes when Courses are Repeated sections of the Undergraduate Catalog.

Note: Successful completion of a course, regardless of GPA considerations, is based on the grade of the last attempt. (For example, if a student took a course and earned a D and then repeated the course and earned an F, the student would not have successfully completed the course, even though a passing grade had been previously earned.)

Grade Correction/Appeal

A student questioning a semester grade must, before the end of the following semester, ask the faculty member of the course to check for possible error. One who then still believes that the grade is inaccurate or unjust may appeal to the department chair and, if necessary, to the dean of the school whose decision will be final. In cases where the dean is the source of the grade or in an extraordinary cases, the appeal will be handled by the Provost.

When it has been determined that a grade will be changed, the faculty member must acquire and process a Permanent Record Change (Grade Change) form from the Office of the Registrar.

Incomplete Grades

When a student has an acceptable reason for failing to complete a course on time, his/her record will be marked "Incomplete." The I grade is not to be abused to provide preferential treatment for a student who is unprepared through choice or carelessness. It is given only when circumstances beyond the student's control, such as illness on examination day, make it impossible to complete the course on schedule. The faculty member informs the student of the postponed date for completion of the work, which should be as soon as possible after the emergency that made the delay necessary but no later than the end of the next semester. An I that is not removed by the deadline becomes an F whether the student remains in school or not. (In extraordinary circumstances the student may petition the Provost for an extension of the deadline.)

To receive an I grade the student fills out a Request for Incomplete Grade form obtained from the Office of the Registrar or the faculty member and pays a fee. Upon completion of course requirements, the faculty member uses the Permanent Record Change (Grade Change) form to submit a new grade to the Registrar. The faculty member, not the student, turns the grade in to the Office of the Registrar.

An I cannot be removed by repeating the course; if the course is repeated, the I becomes an F and counts among the hours attempted and grade point hours, as does the new grade.

President's and Dean's Lists

During each semester those full-time undergraduate students (12 semester hours or more of undergraduate grade point hours) whose grade point averages are 4.00 are recognized as being on the President's List and those between 3.50 and 3.99 are recognized as being on the Dean's List. Grade point average is calculated on grade point hours.

Undergraduate Academic Standings

The following end-of-term academic standings become a part of a student's permanent record. In order to be in Academic Good Standing, a student must have an overall grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.00 at the end of each fall, spring or summer semester. A student must be in academic good standing in order to take courses at another college/university for transfer back to Mississippi College. If a student's overall GPA falls below 2.00 at the end of a fall, spring or summer semester, the student is immediately placed on Academic Probation. A student placed on academic probation has up to two full-time semesters or four part-time semesters to improve his/her cumulative grade point average to 2.00 and return to Academic Good Standing. If the student enrolls in two full-time semesters, four part-time semesters, or a combination of the two and fails to raise his/her cumulative GPA to 2.0, the student will be placed on Academic Suspension.

If a student is suspended from Mississippi College due to unsuccessful academic performance, he/she is ineligible to enroll the following spring or fall semester and may not attend summer school. The student may then reapply and file an appeal for readmission (See Right of Appeal for Academic Suspension section of the Undergraduate Catalog). If a student is readmitted to Mississippi College and does not earn at least a 2.00 cumulative GPA in the time allowed, the student will be suspended a second time and cannot apply for readmission for at least one year.

Right of Appeal for Academic Suspension

Students placed on Academic Suspension may appeal through an appeals process that originates in the Provost's Office. A successful appeal will return the student to Academic Probation with number of semesters on probation determined by the appeals body. A status of academic probation or academic suspension becomes a part of the student's permanent record. Students who have previously attended MC, were suspended, and have been readmitted by the Committee on Enrollment Appeals, will be admitted on Academic Probation and follow the above process.

Right of Appeal for Readmission after Academic Suspension

Any student who is suspended for academic reasons has the right of appeal for readmission to the Enrollment Appeals Committee. This committee will consider each case on its merits, taking into account the full academic record, the student's rate of progress in making up deficiencies, and any special circumstances that might reflect on the student's ability and readiness to do acceptable university-level work. One who is readmitted on appeal will be placed on Academic Probation and will have up to two full-time semesters or four part-time semesters to improve his/her cumulative grade point average to 2.00. If the student fails to raise his/her cumulative GPA to 2.0 in the time granted, the student will be suspended a second time and an appeal will not be heard for at least one year. Inquiries about this policy and appeals process should be directed to the Provost (MC Box 4002, Clinton, MS 39058).

Enrollment in Absentia

Enrollment in Absentia is an enrollment term for students who are not in residence at Mississippi College during the semester of their expected graduation. These students may have been given special permission by the Provost to finish final required credit hours at another institution, or they may be students who have a graduation requirement deficiency and plan to correct it during the Enrollment in Absentia term. This enrollment status must be repeated if the student continues in deficiency for a successive or later term. An Enrollment in Absentia fee is assessed for each term to which this category applies.

Academic Fresh Start

A student who has not been enrolled in any post-secondary academic institution for the immediately preceding twenty-four consecutive months may reapply to Provost for admission as an academic fresh start. If admitted in the academic fresh start program, the student may be allowed to begin their coursework and grade point calculation anew. All university credits earned at Mississippi College by the student prior to his or her admission in the academic fresh start program will be eliminated from computation of the student's grade point average and may not be used to satisfy requirements for a degree provided that the student's transcripts will continue to reflect his or her complete post-secondary academic record. A student who retakes courses as a consequence of being admitted in the academic fresh start program will not be deemed to be repeating those courses.

If a student is readmitted to Mississippi College as a "fresh start", he/she must complete at least 24 grade point hours with a minimum 2.00 GPA before being allowed to take courses at another institution for transfer to Mississippi College, not withstanding all other requirements for graduation.

Examinations

Final Examinations

Regular examinations are held at the end of each semester. No examination of a regular class may be held at any other time except that designated by the administration. A student who is deliberately absent from an examination without legitimate reason will be given a grade of F for the course.

In some cases, exceptions can be made; for example, students who have more than two examinations in one day may ask that an exception be made. A legitimate exception to changing a final exam schedule must be approved by the Dean of the school after the student works out arrangements with the faculty member.

Exemption from Examinations for Graduating Seniors

Seniors who have a B average in a given course during the term or semester in which they complete requirements for graduation from Mississippi College may be exempted from the final examination in that course at the discretion of the faculty member. Seniors who are exempted from examinations are to meet the class through its last meeting prior to examination.

A student who is deficient in any requirement for graduation will not be eligible for exemption from examinations. Also, a faculty member has the right to require any senior to take the examination in a given class. Thus, the student should not assume that he or she will be exempt except when specifically so informed by the faculty member.

A senior who is eligible for exemption may elect to take the examination in order to receive a better grade; in such case, the grade scored on the examination must be used in determining the final grade.

Special Examinations

Occasionally a student needs a special examination for credit such as removing an incomplete or validating credit for courses taken at a reputable institution not offering university credit or a combination of such coursework and other experiences. With the approval of the Provost, the student will pay the appropriate fee in the Bursar's Office and present the written permit to the faculty member. It is the student's responsibility to arrange with the faculty member an acceptable time for the examination. (Credit Validated by Examination of the Undergraduate Catalog.)

Dead Days

Monday-Wednesday preceding semester final examinations are known as "Dead Days". These days are designated on the Academic Calendar for each semester. During those designated days, no extra-curricular activities can be scheduled. Class work proceeds as usual, but it is expected that no periodic test will be given at the last meeting of class.

Study Day

Thursday before final examinations each semester is known as "Study Day" and is to be used by students to prepare for final examinations. No classes will meet and no extra-curricular activities can be scheduled.

Attendance/Participation

Class attendance/participation is an essential part of university education, and students are expected to attend/participate regularly and punctually all classes and laboratories for which they are registered. Cumulative absences/nonparticipation may result in a lowered grade or loss of credit for the course. Tardiness is also subject to penalty, as is any failure to complete required class work on time. Although some specific requirements may vary according to the nature and structure of the course, the following guidelines summarize university policy:

Class attendance/participation is required, and accurate records are kept.

For online courses, nonparticipation means the failure to login for any group assignments (i.e., chats, etc.), tests, or weekly assignments. Excessive absences are the same as for the classes that meet 1 time per week.

Students must not accumulate excessive absences. A student receives a grade of F in a course immediately upon accumulating the following number of absences, whether excused or unexcused:

12 in semester classes meeting 3 times per week

8 in semester classes meeting 2 times per week

4 in semester classes meeting 1 time per week

6 in summer day classes

In other classes which meet on different schedules, a student will receive an F in a class immediately when absences, whether excused or unexcused, (including university functions), exceed 25% of the class meetings.

Absence Appeal. If a student misses more than the number of class periods specified in university policy and believes that there are reasonable explanations for the absences, he/she may appeal the absences to the dean of the school in which the course is being taught. Students may obtain a Student Absence Appeal Form from the office of the appropriate dean.

For lesser numbers of absences/non-participation, the student should expect a lowered grade in the course, with the maximum penalty of one letter grade for each week of absences (in a semester) or the equivalent. The calculation of the semester grade, including any penalty for absences, is the responsibility of the faculty member and may vary according to the nature of the course and the grading scale used. In some classes points will be deducted from the semester grade for unexcused absences; in others, the penalty may be built into the grading scale by means of frequent pop quizzes, grades for class participation, etc.

The faculty member will excuse a limited number of absences/non-participation for serious illness, for field trips, for representing the University, and perhaps for other emergency reasons which the faculty member finds justifiable.

Whether an absence/non-participation is excused or not, the student who is absent misses some learning that takes place in the class. Naturally, the faculty member is more inclined to assist the student in making up the work if the absence was excused. However, the responsibility for work missed rests entirely with the student.

A student registering late will be charged for all absences/non-participation occurring prior to his or her reporting to class, although these may be treated as excused absences.

Students are expected to attend class beginning with the first class meeting (or participate in online classes the first week). Students who have not attended class (or participated in an online class) within 14 calendar days of the first day of class for full semester classes or within 7 calendar days of the first day of eight week classes (brick-and-mortar or online) will be administratively dropped from class.

Chapel Attendance

Chapel exercises are a significant part of the University's educational program, and attendance is a part of the requirements for graduation. Participation in a given semester is limited, however, by the space available. For the best utilization of present seating capacity, the following requirements have been established.

Freshman	(0-23 sem. hrs.)	4 semesters
Sophomore	(24-53 sem. hrs.)	3 semesters
Junior	(54-83 sem. hrs.)	2 semesters
Senior	(84 or more hrs.)	1 semester

All incoming students are required to register for Chapel One for their first semester at MC. Chapel attendance requirements may be found at https://www.mc.edu/students/christian/chapel/attendance-policies. There are no excused absences from Chapel.

Four sections of Chapel are offered each spring and fall semester: Chapel One, Chapel Two, Chapel Three, and Chapel Four. All students should complete Chapel One during their first semester at MC. Then, students should complete their subsequent semesters of Chapel in sequential order (Semester 1: Chapel One; Semester 2: Chapel Two; Semester 3: Chapel Three; Semester 4: Chapel Four). A student cannot receive credit for a section of Chapel more than once; each section can only be completed once. A student will not receive credit for Chapel attendance in any semester in which he or she does not meet the attendance requirements. Chapel attendance requirements may be found at https://www.mc.edu/students/christian/chapel/attendance-policies. There are no excused absences for Chapel.

Attendance requirements for Chapel One, Chapel Two, Chapel Three, and Chapel Four may be completed through a weekly Large Group Chapel gathering and/or Chapel+ opportunities.

Students in programs that meet only at night or online, of necessity, are exempt from the Chapel requirement.

Mental Health Services

Mental Health Services: Mississippi College Mental Health Services (MHS) supports the mission of the university by promoting and facilitating the mental, emotional, spiritual, and physical health of students. MHS provides a wide range of mental health services to students, including personal/individual counseling, consultation, group therapy, community referrals, campus-wide mental health and wellness programs, alcohol and drug awareness, and crisis intervention. MHS provides a free service to all full-time Mississippi College students and operates on a short-term outpatient therapeutic model. MHS is here to educate, advocate and counsel students concerning mental health.

Students wishing to meet with a counselor should contact Mental Health Services, Alumni Hall, 4th Floor, Telephone: 601.925.7790 or email: mentalhealth@mc.edu. Additional information regarding policy and procedures can be found on the Mississippi College Website at https://www.mc.edu/offices/mental-health-services/. Crisis information and additional mental health support information can be accessed on the Mississippi College Counseling Website at Are you in crisis? | Mental Health Services | Mississippi College (mc.edu)

Study Skills

In order to assist students who need to improve their study habits or skills, Mississippi Colleges offers two special courses (IDS 111 and IDS 112). Mississippi College provides a variety of free services in order to help its students succeed. Students can go to the MC website at https://www.mc.edu/success/tutoring to find a departmental schedule of available tutoring sessions. Student Counseling Services works with students who meet ADA, and in conjunction with other areas offer assistance with study skills.

General Policies

All information is held in strict confidence except information indicating the intention of violating the law or behaving destructively toward others or toward oneself. The individual's records in Student Counseling Services are for his or her use only and are not part of the permanent records of Mississippi College. Student Counseling Services may be used by Mississippi College students at no extra charge.

Career Development

MC Career Development aims to help students and alumni grow in their confidence both professionally and personally, resulting in a successful career. We accomplish this mission, within a Christian setting, by providing the most current resources, employment information and support. Students are encouraged to begin using Career Development early in their academic experience at Mississippi College.

Career Development collaborates with faculty and staff as well as employers to offer a variety of events and programming designed to help students and alumni make informed career and/or graduate and professional school decisions. Career coaching, resume/cover letter writing, employment search and interview preparation sessions can be scheduled. An online job board (Handshake), on-campus interviews and an annual Career Day provide opportunities for MC students and alumni to connect with local and national employers. Through the online job board, students have access to both on-campus and off-campus jobs. Career Development manages Handshake so that it can be a centralized location for students to job search.

Career Development professionals are dedicated to providing the necessary programs, resources and support needed to guide students and alumni in their chosen path. For more information, visit us on the web at https://www.mc.edu/career/ or call (601) 925-3901.

Honesty

Mississippi College students are expected to be scrupulously honest. Dishonesty, such as cheating or plagiarism, or furnishing false information, including forgery, alteration or misuse of University documents, records or identification, will be regarded as a serious offense subject to severe penalty, including, but not limited to, loss of credit and possible dismissal. See the Mississippi College Student Code of Conduct or University Policy 2.19 for specific information regarding penalties associated with dishonest behavior at Mississippi College. Copies of the Mississippi College Student Code of Conduct are available in the Office of the Office of the Associate Vice President for the Student Experience and Dean of Students, basement of Nelson Hall. Copies of University policies are available on the Mississippi College web site.

Transcripts

Requests for official transcripts of credits must be made through the online request system found at https://www.mc.edu/offices/registrar/transcripts. For each transcript, a fee of $15.00 is charged and must be paid in advance. The certified original copy will be mailed directly to the designated recipient, transmitted electronically to approved receiving schools or designated individual, or given to the student in a sealed envelope. While transcripts may not immediately be issued for students whose accounts have unpaid balances, students in pursuit of employment should place an order and then contact the Business Office at 601-925-3307 to confirm that the transcript recipient is an employer so that it may be issued.

E-mail, faxed, mailed, and phone requests cannot be accepted.

Requirements for Graduation

General Degree Requirements for Graduation

The following are general requirements for the bachelor's degree.

Hours Required-At least 130 semester hours of university credit, at least 120 of which must be in academic courses. A maximum of 30 hours in any combination may be accepted from the following sources: correspondence and/or extension courses (no more than 6 hours), advanced placement, CLEP, credit by examination, credit for specialized training in the armed forces, and international baccalaureate. Credits are measured in terms of semester hours. A semester hour represents one hour of recitation or lecture, or three hours of laboratory work, per week for one semester of approximately 15 weeks, or the equivalent.

Residence Hours Required-The last 33 semester hours must be taken in residence at Mississippi College. Mississippi College limits academic residency to no more than twenty-five percent of the degree requirements for all undergraduate degrees for active-duty servicemembers. Academic residency can be completed at any time while active-duty servicemembers are enrolled. Reservists and National Guardsmen on active-duty are covered in the same manner.

Major and Minor-An approved major and minor are required, except for certain comprehensive majors.

GPA: Overall and Major-An average 2.00 GPA is required in all academic work attempted at Mississippi College and an average of C or higher is required in courses in the major (2.00 GPA) and any additional courses in the department. Some majors may require a GPA greater than 2.00. For exceptions to the required 2.00 GPA, see Calculation of Grade Averages for Special Purposes section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

Courses Included in Calculating GPA in the Major--All courses required in a major and all other courses taken in the department in which the major is housed are included in calculating a student's GPA in the major. In departments and schools in which there is a comprehensive major, all courses included in the comprehensive major are included in calculating the GPA in the major.

Note: Successful completion of a course, regardless of GPA considerations, is based on the grade of the last attempt. (For example, if a student took a course and earned a D and then repeated the course and earned an F, the student would not have successfully completed the course, even though a passing grade had been previously earned.)

Calculation of Grade Point Averages for Special Purposes When Courses are Repeated

The limited use of substituted grades for calculating the grade point average as described in the following paragraph is intended only to assist students in meeting the general requirements for the bachelor's degree at graduation and does not affect the manner by which any department or school calculates any student's eligibility for any course of study or program. This policy will only be enacted at the request of the advisor with the approval of the department chair, dean of the school and the Provost.

For a maximum of three repeated courses or maximum of nine semester hours, only the grade earned by the student when repeating the course will be used when calculating grade point average; the grade earned by the student on the first try will be ignored in such calculations. If a student repeats more than three courses, then for each such course in excess of three, the original grade and the subsequent grade(s) will be used when calculating grade point average. The courses for which grades may be substituted under this provision will be determined by the Registrar in order to provide the greatest assistance to the student meeting the general degree requirements. These calculations are for special GPA problems at the time of graduation and are not to be used at any other time, or for any other purpose. Therefore original grades from repeated courses will not be ignored when determining eligibility for academic honors such as the Dean's List, nor will any indication of academic probation or similar status be expunged from a student's transcript as a consequence of this policy.

Chapel Credit-Students will acquire the number of chapel credits as specified in the University Core Curriculum section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

Writing Proficiency-As a prerequisite to graduation, students must demonstrate proficiency in basic English grammar, usage, and writing skills. Students may demonstrate proficiency by earning a passing score on the Writing Proficiency Exam (WPE - ENG 099). Students who fail the WPE may demonstrate proficiency by earning a "C" or higher in ENG 299 - Professional Writing Skills.

The student maintains responsibility for completing the requirement and should be aware of the following policies:

Students planning to earn credit for ENG 102 at MC must register for the WPE when they register for ENG 102.

Students transferring credit for ENG 102 from another university should register for and complete the exam at their earliest convenience.

Students are billed for the WPE at the time of registration.

Students must attempt the WPE at least once before enrolling in ENG 299.

Students who fail the WPE twice may not take the exam again. Instead, they must demonstrate writing proficiency by earning a "C" or higher in ENG 299.

The Writing Proficiency Exam is offered twice in the fall, twice in the spring, and once in the summer. No student may attempt the exam more than one time per semester. Online students who demonstrate they are unable to come to campus for the WPE can seek approval to take the WPE off-campus at approved sites.

Students may not take the Writing Proficiency Examination twice in one day.

Because of the above policies, students who postpone taking the WPE may be ineligible for graduation on their anticipated date. For some students, completing this requirement may take up to three (or more) semesters.

Junior/Senior Level Courses-At least one-third of the academic work which a student takes in meeting requirements for graduation with a bachelor's degree must be in junior-senior level courses (courses numbered 300-400).

Degree Evaluation: DegreeWorks (students with a catalog year Fall 2016 and forward) is a real-time online system used in planning degree programs. This evaluation utilizes courses completed and those in which the student is currently enrolled to inform students and their advisors of degree completion status at any point in their university career. The results are unofficial until they have been reviewed by the Office of the Registrar. Students should be in consultation with their advisors in utilizing any degree evaluations. Once the student has applied for graduation, an official review will be completed by the Office of the Registrar.

Application for Degree-See calendar for application deadlines.

To submit an application for a degree, students should log into the MyMC portal on the MC website. Students should select the box labeled "Banner Web for Students". Students should then select "Apply to Graduate" from the menu under their Profile Picture. When the application is completed, the student can submit the application digitally. Applying by the PRIORITY deadline gives the Registrar's Office time to check degree requirements and to notify students who do not meet those requirements early in the graduation semester when changes can be made to address the deficiencies.

Students who apply after the PARTICIPATION deadline (approximately three weeks before graduation) may not be eligible to participate in the graduation ceremonies and their names will not appear in the commencement program.

Candidates for degrees are charged a graduation fee at the time their application is processed. These fees, together with all balances of any nature, must be paid in full prior to graduation.

Students with a balance on their account will not receive a diploma and cannot be issued a transcript until the full balance is paid.

Honors at Graduation-Baccalaureate degrees at Mississippi College may carry two types of academic honors. These honors are recognized in the commencement ceremony and on the academic transcript.

- Graduation with Latin honors: Students who have completed at least half (65 semester hours, excluding AP, IB, CLEP, or credit by correspondence) of their work at Mississippi College will receive their degrees with special recognition in accordance with the following grade averages:
 - 3.500-3.699 Graduation cum laude
 - 3.700-3.899 Graduation magna cum laude
 - 3.900-4.000 Graduation summa cum laude
- Graduation in the Honors Program: Juniors and seniors with high academic averages may complete a program of independent research leading to an honors thesis or project. Graduation with Honors requires a satisfactory paper (or project), a cumulative grade point average of 3.25, and a grade point average of 3.5 in the major field; Graduation with High Honors requires a superior paper (or project), a cumulative grade point average of 3.5, and a grade point average of 3.75 in the major field.
- Graduation in the Honors College: Students who have successfully completed all of the requirements of the Honors College will also be recognized in the commencement ceremony.

Marching Requirements-Students who meet graduation requirements are expected to march. If students have questions about marching, they should contact the Office of the Registrar at 601.925.3210.

Special Programs and Study Opportunities

Honors College

Dr. Christopher Weeks, Interim Director of the Honors College

Mission

The Honors College at Mississippi College develops student leaders committed to academic excellence, spiritual maturity, and civic engagement. It offers a vibrant learning community dedicated to meaningful reflection, faithful citizenship, and servant leadership. Students learn to translate knowledge into wisdom as they think deeply on enduring themes and important questions. They are encouraged to imitate Christ, cultivate virtue, and pursue human flourishing. Students are challenged to see love of neighbor as foundational to their calling and leadership in careers, communities, and churches.

Freshman Entry Into Honors College

The Honors College is a cohort-based program in which students will be challenged academically, grow spiritually, and become engaged in their community. Incoming students with a minimum ACT/SAT are invited to apply for acceptance into the Honors College. Students who successfully complete the requirements for graduation from the Honors College will have completed at least 24 hours of honors credit, as outlined below. During the freshman and sophomore years, students in the honors college will take one honors core class each semester. These courses emphasize interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary thinking and may satisfy certain university core requirements. During the junior and senior year, students have the option to complete their honors work with a thesis or non-thesis option. Students selecting the thesis and capstone option will complete an honors thesis and capstone project. Over the course of three semesters, students will work under the guidance of a faculty director to propose and develop an independent reading and research project within their academic discipline. Students completing the non-thesis option will take a combination of honors elective courses and honors contract courses. Honors elective courses are interdisciplinary seminar courses that often focus on a special topic. Honors contract courses allow students to develop a deeper understanding and appreciation for subject matter within their chosen major.

Seniors in the honors college will conclude their honors requirements with the honors senior seminar core class.

Honors Core - 15 Hours

HON 101 - Honors Thinking and Writing

Credits, 3 sem. hrs.

(This replaces ENG 101 in the University Core Curriculum)

Active study of discussion of issues of contemporary interest, determined by the faculty of the Mississippi College Honors College. Students will study and practice the elements of composition through writing and analysis of expository prose with emphasis on short essays. An interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary approach to the subject matter will be utilized.

HON 102 - Honors Writing and Research

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 101; Corequisite/Prerequisite ENG 099

(This replaces ENG 102 in the University Core Curriculum)

Active study of discussion of issues of contemporary interest, determined by the faculty of the Mississippi College Honors College. A multidisciplinary research methodology and academic writing course. Students will learn to critique complex multifactorial problems through the lenses of various academic disciplines.

HON 201 - Sophomore Honors I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Prerequisite(s): HON 102

Active study and discussion of issues of contemporary interest, determined each year by the Honors College committee. Students will study the intersection of science and communication. Students will analyze current and historical issues in science with a focus on how those issues were communicated with the general public as well as within scientific circles.

HON 202 - Sophomore Honors II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 201

Active study and discussion of issues of contemporary interest, determined each year by the Honors College committee. This course will promote digital literacy and technological discernment. It is designed for students to gain a deeper understanding of how technology shapes our day to day lives and relationships.

HON 470 - Honors Senior Seminar: Vocation and Human Flourishing

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 202, senior standing

The Honors College Senior Seminar is a capstone course designed around the concept of vocation, a term that encompasses more than career in the Christian tradition. Vocation refers not only to career but also our calling as neighbors, citizens, and participants in a variety of institutions that contribute to human flourishing.

Honors Electives & Contract Courses – 3 to 9 Hours

HON 401 - Honors Selected Topics, Credit, 3 sem. hr.

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 202 or instructor's consent

This course is offered in response to identified interests and needs. Topics of a contemporary nature and other topics of current interest will be chosen for in-depth study.

HON 402 - Honors Selected Topics, Credit, 3 sem. hr.

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 202 or instructor's consent

This course is offered in response to identified interests and needs. Topics of a contemporary nature and other topics of current interest will be chosen for in-depth study.

HON 403 - Honors Selected Topics, Credit, 3 sem. hr.

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 202 or instructor's consent

This course is offered in response to identified interests and needs. Topics of a contemporary nature and other topics of current interest will be chosen for in-depth study.

Honors Thesis and Capstone – 9 Hours

Students in the Honors College who wish to pursue independent reading and research under the guidance of a faculty director will complete the three-course sequence as outlined below.

HON 361 - Reading and Research for Honors I

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): by invitation of the Honors Council

General reading in a major field, with frequent conferences with the directing faculty member. A bibliography and a statement of purpose will be submitted at the end of the semester to both the directing faculty member and the Honors Council.

HON 462 - Reading and Research for Honors II

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 361

Reading within a more specific area within the major field, leading to a selection of an honors topic, and the preparation of a prospectus and bibliography (or its equivalent in particular cases) to be submitted to the directing faculty member and to the Honors Council.

HON 463 - Reading and Research for Honors III

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): HON 462

An honors essay (or approved equivalent) will be written and defended before an Honors Examination Committee. Students pursuing the Honors Thesis & Capstone option will also complete an additional 6 credit hours of honors electives, contract courses and/or senior honors seminar

Students pursuing the Honors Thesis & Capstone option will also complete an additional 3 credit hours of honors electives and/or contract courses.

Honors Non-Thesis Option - 9 Hours

Students pursuing the Honors Non-Thesis option will complete 9 credit hours of honors electives and/or contract courses.

Junior and Senior Honors Program

A student in the junior year, who has a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or higher, and has had at least 12 credit hours at Mississippi College, and who has the approval of the department in which one proposes to do honors work, may be invited to enter an honors program designed to run through three consecutive semesters. This is a program of independent reading and research under the guidance of a faculty director. Six semester hours may be earned in the field in which the student is working.

361 Reading and Research for Honors I Credit, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite: by invitation of the Honors Council

General reading in a major field, with frequent conferences with the directing faculty member. A bibliography and a statement of purpose will be submitted at the end of the semester to both the directing faculty member and the Honors Council.

462 Reading and Research for Honors II Credit, 2 sem. hrs.

Prerequisite: Honors I

Reading within a more specific area within the major field, leading to a selection of an honors topic, and the preparation of a prospectus and bibliography (or its equivalent in particular cases) to be submitted to the directing faculty member and to the Honors Council.

463 Reading and Research for Honors III Credit, 2 sem. hrs.

Prerequisite: Honors II

An honors essay (or approved equivalent) will be written and defended before an Honors Examination Committee. Grading on all three courses will be assigned by the directing faculty member. Whether the honors paper is judged unsatisfactory, satisfactory, or superior will be determined by the Honors Examination Committee.

The minimum requirements for graduation with honors are: a satisfactory paper, a cumulative grade point average of 3.25, and an average of 3.50 in the major field. For graduation with high honors the minimum requirements are: a superior paper, a cumulative average of 3.50 and an average of 3.75 in the major field. One who completes the paper but does not maintain the required grade point average may receive credit for the courses but will not be eligible to graduate with honors.

Senior Honors Seminar

An interdisciplinary program in the spring semester of the senior year designed to bring together outstanding academic achievers. It is under the direction of a Senior Honors Team, selected and guided by the Honors Council. Issues of contemporary interest, often involving the work done by the individual students, constitute the subject matter, with the class meeting at regularly scheduled times. It is open to seniors whose grade point average is 3.50 or higher, with a minimum of 30 semester hours from Mississippi College.

IDS 464 - Senior Honors

Additional Information

Additional information concerning the Honors College may be obtained from the chair of the Honors Council.

Summer Study

The summer term is divided into a two-week May session, a ten-week session, two five-week sessions and one eight-week session. Graduate and undergraduate courses are offered. Some night courses are offered as 10-week courses which run the entire summer session. Check with the Office of the Registrar for maximum hours that can be taken during the summer session.

Edward L. McMillan Center for Education Abroad

Mississippi College offers numerous opportunities for education abroad. The McMillan Center for Education Abroad (The MacCenter) is the base of operations for these programs. The MacCenter works with students and faculty to provide opportunities for Study Abroad, Internships Abroad, and Service Abroad. Students can participate in programs during the Fall, Spring, or Summer semesters. Students can choose to study in Argentina, Austria, Brazil, China, Costa Rica, France, Germany, Japan, South Korea, Spain, Taiwan, the United Kingdom (London semester), and other pre-approved programs. The University also sponsors a spring break program each March, a School of Nursing summer mission trip, and several short-term programs with many departments on campus.

For more details of any or all of these programs, please email the MacCenter (maccenter@mc.edu) to set up an appointment.

Internships and Field Study

A limited number of internships and field study courses are available. These courses are designed to combine formal education with practical experience. For more information see Internships Section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

Continuing Education

The Office of Continuing Education (OCED), established in 1976, primarily serves as a revenue source for the University while also coordinating public service functions through the development and coordination of the following programs and activities:

Approves and documents non-traditional (outside of regular semester/summer calendar) for credit courses offered through Mississippi College.

Supports and supervises non-academic activities related to summer programming (from May graduation through last week of July).

Administers the program of Continuing Education Units (CEU) conforming with the specifics outlined by the Mississippi Department of Education.

Schedules and maintains a regular program of test reviews for college and community individuals (currently: ACT, LSAT, GRE, and GMAT).

Coordinates programs that are of interest to the University and provides community support (currently: Academic Competition, Student Council Workshop, Senior Adult Education Program, and events associated with the Mississippi Baptist Convention).

Internships*

The internship program is one of the methods used by Mississippi College to integrate theory with practice. Students may earn a maximum of six (6) semester hours of credit through internships. The following internship courses carry credit in the student's academic major, but the rules of the program and the course descriptions are the same for all participating departments. Students should contact their advisor for information regarding internships in their major. More information is available at https://www.mc.edu/academics/internships. Please see the Internship Web site for deadlines and information.

*Students should not expect to earn more than a total of six semester hours through field studies, internships, and other experiential courses.

• 387, 388, 389, and 380 Internship Credit, 1, 2, 3 or 6 sem. hrs.

Through the internship program the student is on the job temporarily in specific public or private professional areas and is under direct supervision of a faculty advisor. A letter grade is assigned for this work experience. Internships may be arranged for 1, 2, or 3 (very rarely for 6) hours of credit in the student's academic major.

Field Studies*

Students should consult their academic advisors and their major academic departments for detailed information concerning field studies and other field experience. Departments will list their own departmental prefixes for these courses.

• 491, 492, 493 Field Studies Credit, 1, 2, or 3 sem. hrs.

These courses are taught in response to a specific need and request. They may involve non-traditional teaching techniques and will usually combine formal education with practical experience in a career field. (A similar program is available at the graduate level in courses 6591, 6592, and 6593.)

Courses 491, 492 and 493 may be repeated as necessary for up to six hours of credit.

*Students should not expect to earn more than a total of six semester hours through field studies, internships, and other experiential courses.

Foundations for University Success Courses

In order to assist first-year students who need to improve their study habits and skills, Mississippi College offers two special courses described below.

IDS 111 - Foundations for University Success Credit, 1 sem. hr. (non-academic)

IDS 112 - Foundations for University Success II Credit, 1 sem. hr. (non-academic)

Foundations for University Success Program

Dr. Stephanie Carmicle, Coordinator

This program is designed to help students improve their academic skills and increase their chances of academic success at the university-level. All freshman students who have been granted restricted admission to Mississippi College are required to enroll in the program. It consists of four special courses (8 semester hours) that must be taken and successfully completed during the student's first and second semesters at the University.

Courses

ENG 100 - Introduction to College Writing IDS 111 - Foundations for University Success MAT 100 - College Algebra Basics IDS 112 - Foundations for University Success II

Note(s):

Credit is awarded for the Foundation Program courses, but they count as electives and not toward core requirements, a major, or a minor. For additional information about restricted admission and the Foundation for University Success Program contact the Office of Enrollment Services, Telephone: 601.925.3354 or 601.925.3240 or Program Coordinator (601.925.3872).

College of Arts and Sciences

Mission and History

The College of Arts and Sciences consists of three schools: the School of Christian Studies and the Arts, the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the School of Science and Mathematics. They offer students a liberal arts education reflecting both academic excellence and Christian concern and commitment. Course offerings in the College of Arts and Sciences provide students with a broad general education as well as in-depth knowledge in particular majors. This combination is designed to equip students not only with career training, but also with an appreciation and understanding of cultural achievements and religious values and with the literacy skills necessary for lifelong learning. Each school provides students with a strong background for post-baccalaureate concentration in graduate school or professional studies.

The academic programs in the College of Arts and Sciences prepare students for such careers as those of pastor, director of religious education, minister of music, artist, journalist, chemist, biologist, physicist, mathematician, computer science specialist, social scientist, historian, social worker, teacher, writer, linguist, mass media specialist, interior designer, graphic designer, paralegal or law enforcement official. The Department of Christian Studies also gives excellent preparation to many students who will attend our Southern Baptist seminaries.

History

The College of Arts and Sciences has a unique history. It is both the oldest and the newest of the schools that make up Mississippi College. It includes those fields of learning which have traditionally constituted a university education and which were the whole curriculum of Mississippi College until relatively late in its history. By the early twentieth century, as human knowledge became more specialized and skilled professions became more complex, Mississippi College, along with most other colleges and universities, added courses of study directed toward preparation for specific professions, such as teaching or business; it also helped students to tailor their pre-professional studies in the broad areas of liberal learning and in preparation for professional studies in such fields as medicine and law.

In 1969, with the establishment of the School of Nursing, Mississippi College began the systematic development of a university structure. New or existing programs were formed into separate, though related, schools of business, education, law, and graduate studies. In 1982, the restructuring was completed by combining the academic areas of Fine Arts, Humanities, Christian Studies, Social Sciences, and Science and Mathematics into the College of Arts and Sciences.

Mission

The Mississippi College School of Christian Studies and the Arts offers undergraduate and graduate programs designed to prepare students to use their skills in the pursuit of meaningful careers in the fine arts, communications, and in service to God. These programs express the School's commitment to the intellectual and spiritual growth of its students. Through a variety of challenging academic programs offered in the Departments of Art, Christian Studies, Communication, and Music, students are encouraged to express their convictions and creativity in the pulpit, classroom, studio, or concert hall.

The School of Christian Studies and the Arts is committed to excellence and innovation in teaching. The School is further committed to offering students in each of its departments the opportunity to participate in activities outside the classroom which enhance and supplement their academic experiences and provide avenues for them to function in the workplace. The School of Christian Studies and the Arts further seeks to hire and retain teachers who are committed to the ideals of the college and who seek to continue their professional development. This excellence in teaching is complemented by numerous opportunities for community service, internships, and artistic performances made available to students.

The School of Christian Studies and the Arts is also committed to enriching the life of the college and community through its varied lectureships, art exhibits, theatrical productions, and musical events. These productions are designed to enhance the growth and development of all members of the campus community.

Program Goals

The Department supports the mission of Mississippi College by preparing students for lifelong learning in a Christian environment where Christian ethics and ideals find free exercise as motivating factors in the art experience. Furthermore, it is the hope of the Department to acclimate the student to the continuing disciplines and learning processes which are necessary factors in the professions of art and art education. The Department proposes to provide art experiences that are basic to the various applications and directions in the professions of art and art education and provide guidance, instruction, and resources in an effort to bring out the highest potential of each student in his or her chosen area of concentration.

The Department pursues excellence in teaching and learning through five goals:

To inspire a Christ centered Department,

To identify a strategic direction for the Department

To improve and maintain facilities and equipment

To implement a recruitment plan for the Department

To increase student involvement in department events and activities.

Majors

The student desiring to major in Art may pursue the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Fine Arts in Studio Art, Graphic Design, Interior Design or the Bachelor of Science in Education, depending upon vocational choice. The balance of art courses needed to complete art major requirements must consist of at least 21 semester hours of art on a junior-senior level. Transfer students must complete a minimum of 21 semester hours of art courses at Mississippi College. It is the policy of the Mississippi College Department of Art to require each student pursuing an interior design Bachelor of Fine Arts degree to acquire a laptop computer, hardware, and software for processing required course assignments in the classroom and outside of the classroom. The Department of Art will publish on its website annual guidelines for students' computer laptop needs.

Students pursuing the Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) in Studio Art may declare an emphasis in Painting & Drawing or Sculpture & Ceramics. They may also choose an emphasis in digital media or photography. In Graphic Design they may major in Graphic Design with a Marketing Emphasis. An emphasis is a concentration of 18 hours in a given area of study.

Kenneth M. Quinn Art Library

The Kenneth M. Quinn Art Library, located in the Gore Arts Complex, room 143, contains several hundred books related to artists, art processes, aesthetics, and art history. Students have access to use the library for reading and research. The books were given by numerous donors including Kenneth Quinn, art faculty, friends, and alumni.

Student Organizations

A.I.G.A: The student chapter of the American Institute of Graphic Design (AIGA) is a professional organization that seeks to advance graphic design as a respected craft, profession, and vital cultural force. Membership is open to Graphic Design majors.

A.S.I.D.: The student chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers (A.S.I.D.) is a pre-professional organization emphasizing the aims and standards of the profession while providing upon graduation the benefit of one year associate membership in the national organization. Membership is open to Interior Design majors.

Kappa Pi: The Kappa Pi International Honorary Art Fraternity, Delta Beta Chapter, is an honorary fraternity for art majors, faculty, and honorary members. Its purpose is to recognize and honor those who have excelled in the visual arts academically and creatively. Members also are involved with activities which further the goals of achievement in art and purposes of the Art Department and the University.

Student Chapter NAEA: The student chapter of the National Art Education Association (NAEA) was designed to provide an effective transition from art education preparation to professional practice. Students in this organization pledge to maintain a high standard of quality art education on campus and in the community. Membership is open to all art education majors. The Student Chapter of NAEA is affiliated with both NAEA and the Mississippi Art Education Association (MAEA).

Senior Art Exhibit

All seniors are required to participate in a portfolio art exhibit, ART 499 - Professional Presentation, Exhibition and Portfolio Skills, following the guidelines set forth by the Department of Art.

Graduate Degrees

The Art Department offers graduate courses leading to the Master of Education, the Master of Science in 2D or 3D Studio, the Masters of Science in Graphic Design, or the Masters of Fine Art in 2D or 3D Studio

Minors in Art:

Art minors include Studio Art, Photography, Art History, Residential Design in Interior Design, and Graphic Design. Students may also pursue a major in Graphic Design with a Marketing Emphasis. Students interested in any of these minors or emphasis must contact the Chair of the Department of Art prior to registering for classes.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (C)

ART 209 - Digital Animation

Credits, 3 sem. hrs.

This course is an introduction to the study of 2D animation in digital workspace. Giving students a working knowledge of animation techniques necessary to design sequences for professional use. It examines basic concepts in the production, design, and software needed to produce stop-motion and character animation. Assignments will have an emphasis on technical skills, animation principles, and presentation.

Fee: Lab fee required

ART 211 - Painting I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 203.

Application of design principles as they relate to various approaches to painting, with an emphasis on color theory. A synthesis of technique, skill development and creative expression.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 212 - Painting II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 203.

Advanced application of design principles as they relate to various approaches to painting, with an emphasis on color theory. A synthesis of technique, skill development and creative expression.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 215 - Graphic Design I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 101 and ART 102, ART 205 and/or department chair approval.

Explores software for both vector-based and raster-editing image editing with an emphasis on learning Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator. Projects in this studio class will emphasize application of graphic design principles. (Extra lab fee)

Fee: Lab fees required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 216 - Graphic Design II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 215.

An introduction to graphic design practices and technology, with emphasis on planning, design fundamentals, and execution. Projects in this studio class will focus on basic graphic design problem solving, printing, and presentation.

Fee: Lab fees required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 234 - Introduction to Handmade Paper

Credits, 3 sem. hrs

An introduction to the fine craft of handmade paper focusing on basic sheet forming techniques and the process of recycling material. Papermaking techniques applied to basic design concepts will also be explored.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 251 - Ceramics for Non Majors

Credits, 3 sem. hrs.

An introduction to basic ceramic construction techniques including slab, coil, and wheel-throwing methods. Includes study and experimentation with glazing and firing. This course is intended for students who are non-art majors, and who do not require a ceramics credit for an art major or minor.

Fee: Lab fees required

ART 271 - Interior Design I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs.

Application of interior design elements and principles. An introduction to the programming, schematic design, and conceptual design phases. Investigation of residential material components used by the designer that include selection of surface finishes and furnishings.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 272 - Interior Design II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 271 and ART 301

Continuation of ART 271, Interior Design I, with further exploration of residential material components while also focusing on accessibility, human factors, and space planning.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 273 - Research and Writing for Interior Design

Credits, 3 sem. hrs

This is a lecture course involving research and writing applicable to the field of Interior Design.

A digital camera with manual control is required.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 301 - ID Graphics I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs.

Course focuses on the use of drafting equipment and software as a means of visually communicating solutions to architectural design problems. Includes a study of drafting symbols, isometric and oblique drawings, sections, floor plans, and elevations.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 302 - ID Graphics II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 301

A studio course that focuses on digital presentation and drawing techniques as applied to interior design.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 303 - Drawing III

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 204.

Further study and experience in drawing with an emphasis on experimentation with drawing media and stylistic development.

ART 304 - Drawing IV

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 303.

Advanced exploration and experience in drawing with emphasis on form, content, and meaning.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 306 - Textiles, Materials and Resources for Interior Environments

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 271

A study of textiles, materials and resources for the interior environment which considers finish products and their application as well as manufacturing processes, installation methods, maintenance, and specifications.

Course Designation: (C)

ART 311 – Watercolor Painting

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 102.

Application of design principles as they relate to the processes and techniques of painting with watercolor. A synthesis of technique, skill development and creative expression in the watercolor medium.

ART 313 - History of Architecture and Interiors I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 315.

Focuses on technical proficiency of press production and file preparation, as well as the business components of production. Students produce projects from comprehensives to print-ready digital mechanicals. Projects in this studio class include file preparation, trouble-shooting, pricing, estimates, client relations and professional business conduct.

Fee: Lab fees required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 317 - Digital Illustration

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 203 and ART 205

This course examines the use of the computer as an artistic medium and tool for illustrators. Techniques using both vector- and raster-based editing software will be explored; as well as a review of the historical development and current directions of digital illustration. Assignments will have an emphasis on concept, creativity, technical achievement, and presentation.

Fee: Lab fee required

ART 318 - Printmaking I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 203.

Introduction to woodcuts, etching, engraving and screen process.

Fee: Lab fee required Course Designation: (S)

ART 319 - Printmaking II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 318.

A continuation of ART 318 with emphasis on advanced printmaking techniques.

ART 320 - Color & Lighting for Interior Environments

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 272

This course explores the use of color and lighting as design elements in the interior environment and how they apply to visual, psychological, technical, and functional aspects of lighting specifications.

Course Designation: (C)

ART 323 - Human Factors for Interior Design

Credits, 3 hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 271

A lecture course focusing on the relationship of the human body and space planning to the design process in order to properly plan and detail interiors.

ART 331 - Introduction to Sculpture I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Department Chair Approval.

Introductory course implementing basic sculptural methods in clay with exploration of the human form, representation of non-figurative form, and principles of design.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 332 - Sculpture II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 331.

Implementation of sculptural methods in pliable media dedicated to learning human anatomy and the expressive quality of the human form and underlying principles of design. Introduction to mold-making and casting, per student interest.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 351 - Ceramics I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Art Majors Only (Non-Art Majors must receive written permission from the Chair, Department of Art).

An introduction to basic ceramic construction techniques including slab, coil, and wheel-thrown methods. Includes study and experimentation with glazing and firing.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 352 - Ceramics II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 351.

A continuation of ART 351, extending the creative activity into the development of skill at the potter's wheel and further knowledge of firing, glazing, and hand-built methods.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 368 - Photographic Lighting Techniques

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 281

Introduction to creative professional lighting concepts and techniques for commercial and fine art photography. Includes lighting and studio equipment, light qualities, lighting for form, lighting for surface qualities, still- life photography, portrait photography, image composition, and critical analysis. A digital camera with manual control is required.

Fee: Lab fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 370 - Sustainable Design

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): ART 271

Course focuses on green building concepts including sustainable site selection, water efficiency, energy efficiency, sustainable materials and resources, and indoor environmental quality.

ART 371 - Interior Design III

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 272, ART 273

Commercial design focus that incorporates the research and application of federal, state, and local building codes

Fee: Field Studies fee required

Course Designation: (S)

ART 372 - Interior Design IV

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ART 371 and ART 469

Continuation of ART 371, Interior Design III, with emphasis on commercial design that reflects knowledge and application of federal, state, and local building codes.

Course Designation: (S)

ART 375 - Furniture Design

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): ART 301

This course incorporates the study of the history and design of residential and commercial furniture. The components of this course focus on advanced application of design theories and principles in the creation of furniture, as well as the specification of furniture in interior design projects.

Program Goals

The Department of Christian Studies seeks to stimulate the development of foundational knowledge, skills, and values of Judeo-Christian heritage. It further seeks to encourage examination of philosophical perspectives significant for personal living and Christian leadership. The department thus offers educational opportunities that pursue exploration of significant aspects of scriptural understanding, philosophical and theological reflection, spiritual formation, and practical ministry.

The department emphasizes learning and development of critical thinking and communication skills that foster a sense of well-being and personal competence that nurtures faith. This in turn directs students toward the establishment of meaningful careers in the context of Christian community in a global environment. In keeping with the stated mission of the University, the department thus seeks to serve all students at the University through its core and major offerings within the context of a liberal arts education.

In accomplishing its goals, the department proposes to:

Provide sound and appropriate instruction in biblical content and interpretation.

Provide insights and opportunities for practical exploration of Christian ministry and service.

Facilitate philosophical, theological, and ethical reflection and application of Christian principles.

Encourage development of analytical thinking and communication skills useful for the pursuit of graduate study and/or roles of Christian leadership.

Majors and Minors

Students preparing for church-related vocations are encouraged to major or minor in the Department of Christian Studies. The student majoring in Christian Studies must meet all University Core Curriculum requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree, including the foreign language requirement. Students are reminded that at least one-third of their academic work for the bachelor's degree must be in courses numbered 300-400.

Students who major within the Department of Christian Studies also have the opportunity to minor in a different field of study within the department.

Bible Majors can minor within Ministry Studies or Missions Minor for Christian Studies Majors. Ministry Studies Majors can minor within Bible or Missions Minor for Christian Studies Majors Missions Majors can minor within Bible or Ministry Studies Minor for Christian Studies Majors.

Also, students should be aware that most theological seminaries require a working knowledge of one or more modern languages in addition to Hebrew and Greek as part of the entrance requirements leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree. Students should consult the catalog of the seminary they plan to attend for specific requirements.

MSS 302 - Evangelism and Cross-Cultural Witness

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. The principles and methods of New Testament evangelism with a focus on gospel presentations in contemporary American society and in the context of cross-cultural religious worldviews.

MSS 303 - History of Missions

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. The course will focus on the redemptive mission of God from an historical perspective, beginning with the revelation of God's mission in the Old Testament, its fulfillment in the coming of Jesus in the New Testament and expansion of the New Testament church. It will review the epochs of global mission beginning in the Ante-Nicene period, through the Dark Ages, how the Reformation prepared the world for a renewed thrust of global outreach in the 19th and 20th centuries and unprecedented contemporary harvest among previously unreached peoples.

MSS 304 - Contemporary Mission Strategies

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. The course will focus on how mission strategies have evolved since the beginning of the modern mission era with William Carey in 1793 and how the momentum of missions efforts in the 19th and 20th centuries have led to unprecedented advance in fulfilling the Great Commission. The class will explore in depth current methods of Bible translation, cross-cultural communication of the gospel, utilization of electronic and social media, church planting movements and the tension between humanitarian ministries with evangelism as well as how unreached people groups are being engaged through creative access platforms.

MSS 305 - Spiritual Warfare and Missions

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Effective cross-cultural witness requires an understanding of non-Christian religious worldviews and how these represent a barrier to the kingdom of God being extended to the ends of the earth. It also requires an understanding of the one who is the adversary of God's glory among the nations. This course will enable students to recognize and expose Satan's strategies, appropriate foundational principles for victorious living, and to be equipped for the battle in the kingdoms of the world becoming the kingdoms of our Lord.

MSS 306 - The Missionary Family and Lifestyle

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. The lifestyle and incarnational witness of missionaries, whether single or married, is often the key to receptivity among people of other cultures. This course will focus on the spiritual characteristics and relational skills essential to effective ministry. Lessons will include the challenge of cultural adjustments and the stress on marriage and parenting.

About the Department of Communication

The Mississippi College Department of Communication prepares students to be excellent communicators with their words, skills, and lives. Students who pursue a degree in Communication are provided opportunities to develop a variety of academic, performance, and professional competencies. Areas of concentration are offered to help prepare students to excel in such fields as media, public relations, Christian ministry, business, law, government, education, industry and elsewhere.

Communication Majors

The Department of Communication offers the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) and Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree. (The B.A. degree requires 12 hours of modern languages whereas the B.S. does not require modern language coursework.) The curriculum consists of a set of core classes and the student's choice of several concentrations:

Digital Media Production

Interpersonal and Public Communication

Journalism

Public Relations

Sports Media

Digital Media Production

Media Analytics

Ministry Communication

Communication Minors

The field of Communication is an excellent complement to majors in other fields. An 18-hour Communication minor (consisting of six Communication courses of a student's choice) and a defined minor in Journalism are available.

Co-Curricular Program

The department offers a variety of ways students can be involved in campus and departmental activities, including:

Alpha Psi Omega (theater honor society)

Big River Agency (student-operated public relations agency)

Blue & Gold Media (student media group)

Lambda Pi Eta (national communication honor society)

MCTV (campus newscast)

PRAM (for public relations students)

Messengers (department ambassadors)

Sports Media Team

Theater Productions

The Tribesman (yearbook)

Washington Internship Program

Honors Courses

By invitation of the Honors Council; see Junior and Senior Departmental Honors Program section of Undergraduate Catalog.

Program Goals

The mission of the Department of Music is to provide the opportunity for students to gain the knowledge, understanding, skills and appreciation of music necessary to function at professional levels in their chosen areas. Individual degree programs are specifically designed to provide a foundation for development in those areas and to prepare students for meaningful careers in service to others. Faculty reflect Christian values, commitment to service, and personal concern for students in both classroom and studio, modeling for them the integration of faith and learning in scholarship and performance. The department offers cultural enrichment opportunities to the college community and the public in the form of applied lessons, concerts, recitals, and workshops.

Mississippi College is an institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). The requirements of the department are in accordance with the published standards of that organization.

Admissions, Curricula, and Degrees

An audition before members of the music faculty is required of all students who declare music as a major. The student majoring in music may choose the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), the Bachelor of Music (B.M.), or the Bachelor of Music Education (B.M.Ed.) degree. The Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in music, or Worship Leadership, is a broad program with approximately one-third of the curriculum in music. The Bachelor of Music degree is designed for the student who is interested in music as a profession. The Bachelor of Music Education degree, which is designed to meet the standard educator licensure requirements for teachers of music, is for the student who plans to teach in schools. (Educator licensure requirements will be found in this catalog under School of Education.) The Master of Music (M.M.) is also offered at Mississippi College.

Note Regarding Music Studio Classes

In Music studio classes, one semester hour of credit equals thirty minutes of private instruction per week for 14 weeks. In production classes, one semester hour may constitute up to 6 hours per week for 14 weeks. In ensembles, one semester hour equals 2-5 hours per week of rehearsal. Classes that do not carry credit include proficiencies, recital attendance, and ensembles

Ensembles

In accordance with standards of NASM, students majoring in music are required to register for a music ensemble EACH semester. The ensemble should correspond to the student's performance area; therefore, instrumental majors will choose Band as their ensemble, voice majors will choose Choctaw Chorus or audition for Singers as their ensemble, and keyboard majors may choose from these ensembles. Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Worship Leadership or a Music Minor may choose to audition for the Worship Ensemble to fulfill part of their ensemble requirement. Choctaw Chorus and MC Singers are other options for these students.

Professional Music Organizations

National Association for Music Education (NAfME)

The student chapter of NAfME was established on the campus of Mississippi College in September of 1959. Membership is open to all students planning to teach music in the public schools. The aim of the organization is to afford students an opportunity for professional orientation and development in the field of public school music while still in school.

American Choral Directors Association (ACDA)

The purposes of this organization shall be those as set forth in the National Constitution of the American Choral Directors Association and shall primarily consist of the fostering and promotion of choral singing that will provide artistic and spirited experiences for the participants.

The membership of this organization shall include students at Mississippi College who, because of their serious interest in the improvement of choral music and the profession of the choral director, have chosen to become members of the student chapter of the American Choral Directors Association.

Recitals

Realizing the importance of public performance for the applied music student, the Music Department sponsors Performance Laboratories, Degree Recitals, and Faculty/ Guest Recitals.

Degree Recitals for Majors

These recitals are designed to meet the requirements of the various music curricula and are presented in partial fulfillment of degree requirements.

All applicants for the degree of Bachelor of Music in performance (with the emphasis in organ, piano, or voice) will be required to give recitals as follows: junior recital duration, 30 minutes; senior recital duration, one hour. Composition majors will give a one-hour senior recital.

The applicant for the Bachelor of Music Education degree in music will be required to give a 30-minute recital in the senior year. This recital may be shared with another student.

Applicants for the Bachelor of Arts degree may present a 30-minute recital in the senior year, although it is not a requirement for degree completion.

Faculty/Guest Recital

Each semester several evening recitals will be presented by faculty performers or guest artists.

Music Handbook

The Department of Music publishes annually a Handbook which clarifies procedures and policies not contained in the Undergraduate Catalog. Handbooks are available on the music Web site (https://music.mc.edu/) and policies are discussed at the first MUS 055 class meeting of each fall semester. Students should understand that it is their obligation to abide by procedures as outlined in both the Undergraduate Catalog and the Music Department Handbook.

Advanced Standing

All students majoring in BM or BMEd degrees will be assessed through an Advanced Standing Jury, either at the end of the sophomore year or in the first year after transferring with two years of applied study at another institution. The jury will consist of appropriate faculty in the student's applied area. Successful completion of the jury will allow the student to progress into 300-level (BMEd) or 400-level (BM) applied lessons.

Failure to complete a successful advanced standing jury appropriate to the student's chosen major will necessitate a change of major. Students are permitted only one chance to retake the advanced standing jury after a failed first attempt.

Fees

All applied lessons - voice, piano, instrumental, composition - have a fee* attached. (See Financial Information for current fee schedule)

* (Whether the student earns one or more credit hours, the fee is the same. This fee is in addition to hourly tuition for the course.)

Bachelor of Music Education (B.M.Ed.)

The curricula in Music Education are planned to give thorough and practical training in the fields recommended by the Mississippi Department of Education. These plans meet the requirements for licensure of elementary and secondary teachers in the State of Mississippi.

Honors Courses

By invitation of the Honors Council; see Junior and Senior Departmental Honors Program section of Undergraduate Catalog.

Mission

The School of Humanities and Social Sciences encourages students to appreciate the richness of human experience. Its curriculum seeks to integrate academic excellence with Christian commitment, providing a general education as well as in-depth knowledge in particular majors. The goal of the School's courses is to foster an understanding of human behavior, values, and achievements that will serve students throughout their lives. The insights and skills that come from these courses also prepare students for meaningful careers and for graduate school or professional studies.

Objectives

In serving both the general and specific educational needs of Mississippi College students, the School of Humanities and Social Sciences is guided by four major objectives:

To provide a broad foundation of learning in the humanities and social sciences by promoting critical thinking, problem solving, written and oral communication, and research skills.

To provide in-depth knowledge of social and political behavior, historical events, linguistic forms, and literary achievement, so that students will better understand others, themselves, their place in a changing world, and the value of disciplined inquiry.

To prepare students to excel in professional and graduate schools and ultimately in their careers.

To provide a learning and research environment that will enable students and faculty to achieve their fullest potential.

English and Philosophy Department

John Meadors, Chair

Professor (1992) 601.925.3293 meadors@mc.edu

Support Staff

Administrative Assistant (2015)

Program Goals

The Department of English and Philosophy stimulates the intellectual development of our students through the production and analysis of diverse texts. Coursework is designed to facilitate philosophical and ethical reflection and to encourage the development of analytical reasoning skills. The three undergraduate tracks in the department -- Literature, Writing, and English Secondary Education -- promote close reading, information literacy, effective communication, and critical thinking. The department cultivates students who engage thoughtfully in analysis, interpretation, service, and life-long learning as they pursue their vocations.

English Majors and Concentrations

The student electing to major in English may choose from the following options, each of which leads to the Bachelor of Arts Degree: English major with Literature Concentration; English major with Writing Concentration; and English Education major. All degrees require 12 semester hours of a foreign language.

Minors in English and Philosophy

The Department of English and Philosophy offers three minors: the Applied Humanities minor, the English minor and the philosophy minor. Each option requires 18 semester hours of coursework. Course requirements for all minors are detailed below.

Philosophy Minor Requirements

The philosophy minor requires 18 semester hours consisting of any 6 philosophy courses.

Major and Minor Combinations

English majors concentrating in literature or writing may also complete the Applied Humanities minor in consultation with an advisor. English Education majors are not required to select an additional minor. Credits earned toward a major cannot be applied toward a minor and vice versa. Students majoring in other disciplines may complete the English minor or the Applied Humanities minor, but not both.

Honors Courses

Three-Three Law/English (Literature) Program, B.A.

After the approval of their academic advisors in consultation with the appropriate department chair, freshman pre-law students with an acceptable ACT or SAT score may elect to enter the Three-Three Program. Ordinarily a 26 ACT score or 1180 SAT score will qualify a student for the program. Such students are expected to maintain at least 3.25 GPA in their undergraduate work to remain competitive for early admission to the Mississippi College Law School. Students in this program should plan to take the LSAT as soon as possible after their sophomore year, but no later than the fall of their junior year, as an acceptable LSAT score is required for admission to the Mississippi College Law School. Acceptance into the Three-Three program, however, does not automatically guarantee admission to the Mississippi College Law School.

Program Goals

In preparing and equipping students to engage in the greater global community, the Department of Modern Languages is guided by three main goals:

To acquaint non-language majors with a culture, language and literature other than their own;

To provide language majors with the skills and knowledge necessary for effective communication in another language;

To provide adequate training for those who plan to continue their language study in graduate school and for those who plan to enter professional fields that require the mastery of another language.

Those who continue in the same language they studied in high school should consult with the instructor in that language before registration in order to determine their placement. In general, one year of high school work is considered equivalent to one semester of university work.

Students who have taken two years or more of a modern foreign language in high school may take the CLEP test for that language. Depending on the test score, up to 12 semester hours of university credit may be obtained. This proficiency examination must be taken before receiving upper level university credit in that language.

Most graduate schools require their students to have a working knowledge (12 semester hours or the equivalent) of one foreign language for the master's degree or two for the doctorate.

Most seminaries require that their candidates for the degree of Doctor of Theology have a working knowledge of two foreign languages in addition to Greek and Hebrew. The catalog of the graduate school or seminary that one expects to attend should be consulted for specific requirements.

Study Abroad Programs

Mississippi College offers numerous opportunities for education abroad. The McMillan Center for Education Abroad (The Mac Center) is the base of operations for these programs. The Mac Center works with students and faculty to provide opportunities for study abroad, internships abroad, and service abroad, during fall, spring or summer terms. Students can choose to study in Argentina, Austria, Brazil, China, Costa Rica, France, Germany, Japan, South Korea, Spain, Taiwan, and the United Kingdom (London semester), as well as other pre-approved programs. Specific study abroad programs include the Austrian Studies Program at Salzburg College in Austria, Colegio Delibes in Spain, USAC in Costa Rica and an exchange program with Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz, Germany. To facilitate abroad offerings, the MLG designation is used. Modifications are made based on the student needs, location of study abroad, and degree requirements.

The Classical Languages

The courses in the classical languages are designed to acquaint students with the languages utilized in the Hellenistic world of ancient Greece and Rome. The course offerings are designed to develop reading competence in either Koine Greek, Latin or Biblical Hebrew. Through the window of these languages, the student is exposed to the conceptualization of the ideas and culture of the Greco-Roman world and the influences of that world upon the languages, literature, and life of the modern world.

Classical Languages Minor Requirements

Students planning to minor in classical languages should check with the Chair of the Department of Modern Languages.

The Modern Languages

The courses in modern languages are designed to meet both cultural and practical needs. Students may expect to learn not only to read in the target language, but also to understand the spoken language and to express themselves in it with some facility.

Ordinarily, 39 semester hours are required for a major in the Department of Modern Languages. However, students whose background in a language enables them to begin their course of study beyond the intermediate level will be considered to have satisfied the requirements for a major when they have completed 27 semester hours. Students may elect majors in the Department of Modern Languages as follows:

Foreign Language and International Trade (B.A.)

French (B.A.)

International Studies (B.A.)

Language, Writing and Linguistics (B.A.)

Modern Languages (B.A.)

Spanish (B.A.)

Students who elect to major in Foreign Language and International Trade (F.L.I.T.) must complete 36 semester hours of a modern language or 30 semester hours beyond the elementary level. F.L.I.T. majors may elect to complete 36 semester hours in one language or to complete the 36 semester hours in two languages. In that case, students must complete a minimum of 21 semester hours in one language and a minimum of 15 semester hours in another. However, students whose background in a language enables them to begin their course of study at the intermediate level will have satisfied the requirements for a major when they have completed 30 semester hours in the two languages.

Students who elect to major in French must complete 24 semester hours of French courses numbered higher than 202.

Students who elect to complete a major in Modern Languages must complete 21 semester hours in one language and 15 semester hours in another.

Students who elect to major in Spanish must complete 24 semester hours of Spanish courses numbered higher than 202.

Students who elect to major in the Department of Modern Languages must complete a minor as specified in a related department with the approval of their advisor. Education courses required for an educator license will not satisfy the requirements for a minor in the Department of Modern Languages. A minor in English or TESOL is recommended for students planning to teach.

Certain majors and minors in the Department of Modern Languages have a mandatory study abroad requirement, but all students majoring in the Department of Modern Languages are strongly encouraged to spend at least one term studying overseas through an approved study-abroad program.

Modern Languages Minor Requirements

The Department of Modern Languages offers minors in French, German, Chinese, Japanese, Spanish, and TESOL. Students minoring in a modern language must have 18 semester hours of university credit in that language, with at least 6 of the 18 hours at the 300 level or higher. Minors in certain languages require study abroad.

Honors Courses

By invitation of the Honors Council; see Junior and Senior Departmental Honors Program section of Undergraduate Catalog.

Bachelor of Arts

Foreign Language and International Trade, B.A.

All F.L.I.T. students are strongly encouraged to spend at least one term studying overseas through an approved study-abroad program.

Freshman (0-23 semester hours) 4 semesters
Sophomore (24-53 semester hours) 3 semesters
Junior (54-83 semester hours) 2 semesters
Senior (84 or more semester hours) 1 semester

Students enrolled in online degree programs are exempt from chapel requirements.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS (66 HOURS)

Language Requirements (36 Hours)

Thirty-six semester hours of a language or 30 semester hours beyond the elementary level are required.

A student may complete 36 semester hours in one language or choose to take the 36 hours in two languages. In that case, a student must complete a minimum of 21 semester hours in one language and a minimum of 15 semester hours in another. However, students whose background in a language enables them to begin their course of study at the intermediate level will have satisfied the requirements for a major when they have completed 30 semester hours in the two languages.

If choosing one language (either French or Spanish), the following courses are required:

FRENCH

- FRE 101 Elementary French I
- FRE 102 Elementary French II

(Two units of high school French can be substituted for FRE 101 and FRE 102.)

MINOR REQUIREMENTS (18 HOURS)

A typical minor consists of 18 semester hours; however, some department minors may vary in terms of required semester hours. The minor should be selected in consultation with the student's advisor.

TOTAL: 130 SEM. HOURS

Note(s):

*Ordinarily, 36 semester hours are required for a major in the Department of Modern Languages. However, students whose background in a language enables them to begin their course of study beyond the intermediate level will be considered to have satisfied the requirements for a major when they have completed 24 semester hours. Students who elect to major in the Department of Modern Languages must complete a minor as specified in a related department with the approval of their advisor. Education courses required for an educator license will not satisfy the requirements for a minor in the Department of Modern Languages. A minor in English or TESOL is recommended for students planning to teach.

Certain majors and minors in the Department of Modern Languages have a mandatory study abroad requirement, but all students majoring in the Department of Modern Languages are strongly encouraged to spend at least one term studying overseas through an approved study-abroad program.

International Studies, B.A.

Students electing a major in International Studies must meet Mississippi College's core curriculum requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Modern Languages. Because this is a comprehensive major no additional minor is required.

GENERAL ELECTIVES

Sufficient elective hours must be taken to meet the minimum hour requirement for graduation in this program. Electives should be chosen in consultation with advisor.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS (18 HOURS)

A typical minor consists of 18 semester hours; however, some department minors may vary in terms of required semester hours. The minor should be selected in consultation with the student's advisor.

TOTAL: 130 SEM. HOURS

Note(s):

*Ordinarily, 36 semester hours are required for a major in the Department of Modern Languages. However, students whose background in a language enables them to begin their course of study beyond the intermediate level will be considered to have satisfied the requirements for a major when they have completed 24 semester hours. Students who elect to major in the Department of Modern Languages must complete a minor as specified in a related department with the approval of their advisor. Education courses required for an educator license will not satisfy the requirements for a minor in the Department of Modern Languages. A minor in English or TESOL is recommended for students planning to teach.

Certain majors and minors in the Department of Modern Languages have a mandatory study abroad requirement, but all students majoring in the Department of Modern Languages are strongly encouraged to spend at least one term studying overseas through an approved study-abroad program.

Program Goals

The Department of History & Political Science honors the mission of Mississippi College by teaching and mentoring students in the fields of History, Political Science, Paralegal Studies, Administration of Justice, and Social Studies Education. We equip students to take the transferable skills of critical thinking, writing, oral communication, and data analysis to the marketplace. We prepare students for the responsibilities of citizenship by helping them understand the ideas and institutions that have shaped societies. We cultivate students who seek to pursue human flourishing in their careers and communities.

Our goals for you, the student, include the following:

An understanding of the institutions of government, law, and law enforcement

A foundational awareness of American and world history

An emphasis on internships and experiential learning opportunities

Preparation for career and calling

Appreciation of how faith enriches intellectual inquiry, moral reflection, concern for justice, and respect for human dignity

Students in History and Political Science may elect majors as follows:

History - Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science with pre-legal emphasis.

Political Science - Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science with pre-legal emphasis.

Social Studies Education - Bachelor of Science in Education

Administration of Justice - Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science with pre-legal emphasis, Bachelor of Science in Homeland Security, and Bachelor of Science in Loss Prevention/Security Management Paralegal Studies with Bachelor of Science

Three-Three Pre-Law Program

A freshman pre-law student with an acceptable ACT or SAT score may elect to enter the Three-Three Program upon the approval of their advisor, in consultation with the appropriate department chair. Transfer students are not eligible for the Three-Three Program. Ordinarily, a 26 ACT score or 1180 SAT score will qualify a first-year student for the program. Such students are expected to maintain at least a 3.25 GPA in their undergraduate work to remain competitive for early admission to the Mississippi College School of Law. Students in this program should plan to take the LSAT as soon as possible after their sophomore year, but no later than the fall of their junior year, as an acceptable LSAT score is required for admission to the Mississippi College Law School. Acceptance into the Three-Three Program, however, does not automatically guarantee admission to the Mississippi College Law School. The Three-Three Pre-Law Program allows students to count their first year of law school coursework (30 hours) toward the 130 hour requirement for an undergraduate degree. Accordingly, students must satisfactorily complete both three years of undergraduate coursework, as specified herein, and their first year of law school coursework in order to obtain the B.S. degree. Students should refer to the history, political science or administration of justice sections for course requirements for the Three-Three Pre-Law Program.

History Major

Students electing to major in History may choose either the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science in History, or the comprehensive major in History with a pre-legal emphasis, depending on the student's vocational plan. History majors who plan to teach may choose the Bachelor of Arts but must take the prescribed education courses for a standard educator license. No more than 3 semester hours of internship or independent study may be used to satisfy degree requirements of any degree plan in History. A minimum of fifty percent of all coursework applied toward the major must be earned at Mississippi College.

Political Science Major

Students electing to major in Political Science may select the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Science degree or the comprehensive major in Political Science with Pre-Legal emphasis. Students planning to pursue graduate work in Political Science are advised to select the B.A. degree; those who plan to attend law school are advised to select the B.S. degree. A minimum of fifty percent of all coursework applied toward the major must be earned at Mississippi College.

Administration of Justice Major

TBA, Director

The Bachelor of Science degrees in Administration of Justice and Homeland Security prepare individuals for professional positions in law enforcement and related criminal justice areas. In addition to general curriculum requirements, courses are offered which develop the skills essential to criminal justice practitioners who are currently engaged in law enforcement work.

Mississippi College will consider transfer credits to students who have completed administration of justice/law enforcement curriculum at an accredited community/junior college. A maximum of 18 semester hours of community/junior or senior college equivalent courses with grades of C or better in each may count toward the major in Administration of Justice. Additional transfer courses may be counted as general electives.

Administration of Justice with Emphasis in Homeland Security/Certificate in Homeland Security

Students may receive undergraduate credit in Homeland Security by completing a Certificate in Homeland Security (21 hrs.), by completing a minor (18 hrs.), or by completing a major in Administration of Justice with an emphasis in Homeland Security.

Paralegal Studies Major

Melissa Jones, Director

This program is designed to train graduates to work under the supervision of attorneys. Since paralegals (also known as legal assistants) are not licensed to practice law, they are prohibited from the Unauthorized Practice of Law, which is a crime under state law.

The major objectives of the paralegal program are the following:

To increase access to legal services by reducing costs to clients.

To encourage the growth of the paralegal profession.

To teach students about legal ethics and to qualify them to work as paralegals in law-related occupations in law offices, government agencies and businesses.

A 27-hour certificate in Paralegal Studies is available to students who already have a baccalaureate degree. Students need above-average writing skills. All students must pass ENG 099 Writing Proficiency Examination during their first semester. Those who do not pass the Writing Proficiency Examination must take ENG 299 Composition Skills the following semester.

Additional computer classes are highly recommended, as are courses in Business Law, Accounting and Business Communications.

Levels of Specialization:

A student may major in Paralegal Studies and earn a Bachelor of Science degree.

A student may earn a paralegal certificate if he or she already has earned a baccalaureate degree.

A student may earn a minor in Paralegal Studies.

Social Studies Education Major

Zachary Osborn, Director

This program is designed specifically for students wishing to teach social studies in secondary schools. In lieu of a minor, students will complete all requirements for secondary education licensure as prescribed by the Department of Teacher Education and Leadership.

Honors I, II, III

A student who completes all Honors courses, totaling 6 hours, will receive 3 semester hours credit toward the appropriate major - History, Political Science, or Administration of Justice. The other 3 hours count as general elective credit.

Honors Courses

Bachelor of Arts

History, B.A.

Students must meet University Core Curriculum requirements and take the major area field examination approved by the department for this degree program during the final semester before graduation.

Three-Three Law/Administration of Justice, B.S.

A freshman pre-law student with an acceptable ACT or SAT score may elect to enter the Three-Three Program upon the approval of their advisor, in consultation with the appropriate department chair. Transfer students are not eligible for the Three-Three Program. Ordinarily, a 26 ACT score or 1180 SAT score will qualify a first-year student for the program. Such students are expected to maintain at least a 3.25 GPA in their undergraduate work to remain competitive for early admission to the Mississippi College School of Law. Students in this program should plan to take the LSAT as soon as possible after their sophomore year, but no later than the fall of their junior year, as an acceptable LSAT score is required for admission to the Mississippi College Law School. Acceptance into the Three-Three program, however, does not automatically guarantee admission to the Mississippi College Law School.

Department Goals

Recognizing the universality of truth, the department believes its programs are valuable vehicles for discovering truth. The faculty endeavors to aid students' exploration of self, the social environment, and the interaction between individual and community through examination of culture, social organization, and human personality. Realization of these goals is attained through a broad liberal arts curriculum, innovative classroom instruction, departmental research projects, and "real world" experiences obtained in internship placements. A global perspective is infused throughout the department's programs of study. The department assumes and nurtures the dignity of all individuals; is committed to the principles of equality, justice, and freedom; and seeks to stimulate a vital interaction among faith, learning, and lifestyle.

The departmental program of study is designed to refine the student's communication and analytic skills by providing learning experiences grounded in theoretical analysis, research, social work practice and human relations. A student is equipped with marketable skills for a variety of positions in social work.

Social Work is the major program offered to undergraduate students, and is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Student Organizations

The Department of Sociology and Social Work sponsors, in cooperation with the Department of History and Political Science, Pi Gamma Mu, a national honor society established for the purpose of promoting scholarship in the social sciences.

The Association of Student Social Workers is an organization which seeks to stimulate scholarship and professional identity. It is open to students pursuing social work as a major, as well as any student attending Mississippi College. Phi Alpha Honor Society fosters high standards of education for social workers and invites into membership social work students, faculty, and practitioners.

Three-Three Law/Sociology Program, B.S.

The department is not offering the Three-Three Law/Sociology, B.S. degree at this time

After the approval of their academic advisors in consultation with the appropriate department chair, freshman pre-law students with an acceptable ACT or SAT score may elect to enter the Three-Three Program. Ordinarily, a 26 ACT score or 1180 SAT score will qualify a student for the program. Such students are expected to maintain at least 3.25 GPA in their undergraduate work to remain competitive for early admission to the Mississippi College Law School. Students in this program should plan to take the LSAT as soon as possible after their sophomore year, but no later than the fall of their junior year, as an acceptable LSAT score is required for admission to the Mississippi College Law School. Acceptance into the Three-Three Program, however, does not automatically guarantee admission to the Mississippi College Law School.

Bachelor of Social Work

Social Work, B.S.W.

Social Work is the professional activity of helping individuals, families, groups, organizations or communities improve or recover their ability to function successfully in society. The mission of the Bachelor of Social Work Program is to prepare students for entry-level generalist social work practice with diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities in a changing global social environment. It also prepares students for the option of continued study at the graduate level. The Bachelor of Social Work Program provides an integrative foundation of social work knowledge, skills, and values and ethics, guiding and engaging students in critical analysis and exploring best practices, building on client strengths and resiliency in helping to improve client systems. The Program promotes advocacy for populations at-risk, social and economic justice, and respect for human diversity. Exploration of self-awareness among each student is part of the Program's strategies, further promoting effective, professional social work practice. The Program's professional curriculum incorporates the ten core competencies of the Council on Social Work Education Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards. In a context of Christian higher education, the Program encourages students to commit to enter a profession of service to others that inspires hope, strengthens lives and promotes positive change. The goals of the BSW Program are to prepare students:

for entry-level generalist social work practice with diverse populations of individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities in a changing global social environment; to advocate for human well-being recognizing the strengths and resiliency of client systems; to understand social problems, formulate, influence, and/or improve social policies and services in diverse political contexts; to utilize critical thinking in understanding and applying appropriate research methodologies, and best practices for implementing and evaluating program services;

for professional, empathetic social work practice, guided by the CSWE Educational Policy and Accreditation core competencies and the Social Work Code of Ethics; for graduate education.

The BSW Program incorporates the Educational Policy Accreditation Standards core competencies of social work practice adopted by the Council on Social Work Education. The nine competencies are:

Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior

Competency 2: Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice

Competency 3: Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice

Competency 4: Engage in Practice-Informed Research and Research-Informed Practice

Competency 5: Engage in Policy Practice

Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency 7: Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency 8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Competency 9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

The Social Work student is required to complete the following curriculum:

Core Curriculum requirements including SOC 205; PSY 201; MAT 105 or higher; BIO 103 and one 1 hour laboratory science;

Fourteen courses in Social Work including SWK 099, SWK 225,SWK 312, SWK 331, SWK 332, SWK 333, SWK 334, SWK 422, SWK 426, SWK 433, SWK 434, SWK 445, SWK 448 and SWK 450;

Three interdisciplinary courses MAT 207 or PSY 301, , PLS 201 or PLS 202, and PSY 423

Thirty-seven semester hours of electives selected in consultation with an advisor. Nine of the thirty-seven elective hours must be taken in Social Work.

Social work students transferring from another Council on Social Work Education accredited program are required to complete the following courses at Mississippi College: SWK 331, SWK 332, SWK 433, SWK 434, SWK 448, and SWK 450.

Introduction to Social Work may only be transferred from another institution if a Social Welfare Program component is included in the course.

These courses provide knowledge and experience in social welfare policy and services, human behavior and the social environment, social work practice, and social work research. The social work sequence culminates in the completion of a practicum in a local social service agency. The field experience, constituting a minimum 450 clock hours, offers hands-on practice for social work students in a social work setting. The practicum is the capstone of the social work major. There is an admission process into the Social Work program. Students may apply after successfully completing SWK 225 and SWK 331 (C or above). The program is open to all qualified applicants without discrimination. Because the Social Work program involves both cognitive and experiential growth through a practicum, the faculty will meet at least annually with each student to discuss their professional and personal progress in the program.

Minimum requirements for admission to the Social Work program:

Completion of at least 75% of core curriculum.

Cumulative GPA = 2.5 or higher.

Successful completion of SWK 225 and SWK 331 (C or above).

Completed application form.

Three letters of reference.

Admissions interview with Social Work Admissions committee.

The following course sequence is strongly recommended for a beginning freshman. Transfer students and individuals electing a major in Social Work after previously pursuing a different course of study at Mississippi College will be advised, upon review of their academic credentials, on an individual basis. Courses marked with a double asterisk () must be taken in the sequence indicated. A grade of C or better is required in all Social Work classes to continue in the program. Additionally, students are required to take the Social Work Licensure Exam during the final semester of the senior year.

Child Advocacy Studies Training Certificate

The Child Advocacy Studies Training (CAST) curriculum focuses on interdisciplinary, ethical, trauma informed, realistic, and culturally proficient content that provides professionals a foundation for responding to child maltreatment. Students learn about the various disciplinary responses to child maltreatment and will develop a multidisciplinary understanding of most efficient responses. Students completing the courses in the program will be better equipped to accomplish the work of related agencies (social work, criminal justice, education, psychology, nursing, paralegal, prelaw, pre-med or other areas where knowledge of child maltreatment and advocating for children will be necessary) as they advocate on behalf of child victims and survivors of child maltreatment. Experiential learning through coursework is emphasized. Students majoring in social work may use CAST courses to satisfy required social work electives. The certificate is approved and offered by Zero Abuse Project Protection Training Center, a 501(c)(3) organization committed to transforming institutions in order to effectively prevent, recognize, and respond to child maltreatment.

*More than 20 Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning offer either a certificate and/or minor in CAST.

Required Courses (9 sem. hrs.):

CAST 400 Perspectives on Child Maltreatment and Child Advocacy (3 hours)
CAST 401 Professional and System Responses to Child maltreatment (3 hours)

Social Work Courses

SWK 099 - Social Work Licensure Exam

Credits, Credit or No Credit, 0 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Social Work majors only, completion of all social work courses other than SWK 448 and SWK 450.

Corequisite(s): SWK 448 and SWK 450

Social Work majors are required to take the social work licensure exam prior to graduation. This exam is required for entry level social work practice and is administered by the Mississippi Board of Examiners (MBOE) for Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists. The MBOE requires applicants to take the licensure exam developed by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB). This exam is used in 49 states, the District of Columbia, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the Canadian provinces of Alberta and British Columbia.

Social Work majors must take the Social Work Licensing Examination as a requirement for graduation. This examination must be completed during the spring semester of the student's senior year, if they are within 15 hours of graduating.

Fee: Examination fees are established by the state licensing board.

SWK 209 - Contemporary Social Problems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. A study of theoretical approaches to social problems with specific emphasis on such specific problems as deviancy, crime, delinquency, prejudice, discrimination, sexual experiences, and mental illness.

[Crosslisted as: SOC 209.]

SWK 225 - Introduction to Social Work and Social Welfare

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. An introduction to the Social Work profession and to the philosophy, concepts, and values of social work practice policies and programs. Also included in course content is an overview of the historical development of the profession and current fields of practice. Students must complete a field component comprising a minimum of 40 hours of volunteer experience in a human service agency. This course is an analysis of the historical development of social welfare policies and programs. Current programs will be examined in terms of services, eligibility requirements, etc.

SWK 312 - Social Work Research Methods

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 207 or PSY 301

This course provides students with instruction in the concepts and methods used in the conduct of ethical social work research. The course is based on an understanding that the research process is critical to professional practice, and directly mirrors the problem solving process. The course will provide instruction in various types of problem formulation, research design, sampling, measurement, data collection, ethical issues and applications to social work practice settings. Students will also learn to evaluate one's own practice and will learn to be competent consumers of social work research studies. Includes oral presentation by student.

SWK 331 - Generalist Practice I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Corequisite/Prerequisite SWK 225 and SWK 333.

This course is the first in a four-course practice sequence Social Work majors must complete. As the introductory course in the sequence, Practice I provides an introduction to generalist social work practice, with an emphasis on the skills, knowledge, and values of the profession. Students will learn the stages of the generalist model of social work practice. Additionally, a focus on social work interviewing skills is included.

SWK 332 - Generalist Practice II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): SWK 225, SWK 331 and SWK 333. Social Work majors only. Must be accepted into the Social Work program.

This course is the second in a four-course practice sequence Social Work majors must complete. Practice II provides a specific focus on social work theory and knowledge related to working with individuals and families. An emphasis on general practice skills, analyses of processes and social work interactions with individuals and families will be presented.

SWK 333 - Human Behavior and Social Environment I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): SWK 225, PSY 423

This course will present social systems theory of understanding human behavior within families, groups, organizations and communities. Particular emphasis is placed on the social, cultural, psychological and biological factors influencing the dynamics of human growth and development within the social environment.

SWK 334 - Human Behavior and Social Environment II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): SWK 333.

This course will present the development of the individual through the life cycle, focusing on the biological, cultural, psychological, and social systems as they affect human behavior. Identity, spirituality and social justice issues that affect human behavior are addressed.

SWK 401 - Selected Topics

Credits, 1 sem. hr., respectively. An analysis of special interest topics not covered in usual course offerings. Course content will vary and topics will include but are not limited to family violence, social work with children, and social work in a health care setting.

SWK 402 - Selected Topics

Credits, 2 sem. hrs., respectively. An analysis of special interest topics not covered in usual course offerings. Course content will vary and topics will include but are not limited to family violence, social work with children, and social work in a health care setting.

SWK 403 - Selected Topics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs., respectively. An analysis of special interest topics not covered in usual course offerings. Course content will vary and topics will include but are not limited to family violence, social work with children, and social work in a health care setting.

SWK 404 – Guardian Ad Litem

Credits, 3 sem. hrs., respectively. This course will provide opportunities for social work students to interface with law students with cases assigned through the Mississippi College School of Law. The course allows students the opportunity to accompany their assigned "law partner" to court hearings and on home visits to the family members in the case. Participation in the project also requires attendance in periodic informational seminars, which is a stipulation to receive course credit of 3 hours as a social work elective. This is an experiential learning course and is for social work majors only.

SWK 405 – Community-Based Case Management

Credits, 3 sem. hrs., respectively. This course will provide opportunities for social work students to interface with nursing students in community-based case management. Students will accompany their assigned "nursing partner(s)" to a local congregate senior citizen center, and/or to home visits to senior adults assigned by the agency, for the purpose of conducting community-based case management. Participation in the course also requires attendance in periodic informational seminars, a requirement to receive course credit of 3 hours as a social work elective. This is an experiential learning course and available to social work majors only.

SWK 422 - Human Diversity and Social Justice

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): SWK 225, SWK 331, SWK 333.

This course examines aspects of human diversity and the need for social justice on all levels of social work practice. Generalist social workers work with people from a variety of backgrounds, and therefore need knowledge of a wide range of population groups in order to be effective in the practice of social work with diverse clients. Because social workers often work with people who are vulnerable to oppression and discrimination, they also need an understanding of the dynamics of oppression and discrimination as well as strategies that promote political, economic and social justice.

SWK 426 - Social Welfare Policy and Programs

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): SWK 225.

This course examines the current social policy system of the United States. Emphasis is placed on various models of social policy analysis, the political and economic processes affecting policy development and program implementation, and implications for social work practice.

SWK 433 - Generalist Practice III

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): SWK 331, SWK 332 Social Work majors only. Must be accepted into the Social Work Program.

Corequisite(s): SWK 434

This is the third in a four-course practice sequence required for Social Work majors. This course provides a specific focus on the application of social work practice skills to work with groups. An emphasis on theory and knowledge of group dynamics is foundational to this course. Additionally, the course will focus on the development of effective group work skills, including the analysis of social work processes and interactions.

SWK 434 - Generalist Practice IV

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): SWK 331, SWK 332 Social Work majors only. Must be accepted into the Social Work Program.

Corequisite(s): SWK 433

This is the final course in a four-course practice sequence required for Social Work majors. This course provides a specific focus on the application of social work practice skills to work communities and organizations. An emphasis on theory and knowledge of applying social work skills to work with communities and organizations is presented. Additionally, the course will focus on the development effective social work practice skills in the macro setting, including the development of leadership in organizational, policy, and advocacy issues. This course includes a service-learning component.

SWK 438 - Death and Dying

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course is an examination of the perceptions of death and dying, the treatment of the dying person, the grief process, and cross-cultural perspectives on death.

[Crosslisted as: SOC 438.]

SWK 440 - Social Work and Family Violence

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course includes an overview of the many forms of family violence that occur in society, with an emphasis on precursors, patterns, and effects of various forms of family violence. This includes examining intimate partner violence, child abuse and neglect, sexual abuse, dating violence, and elder abuse. Special emphasis will be placed on the intervention role for social workers in both prevention and treatment efforts.

SWK 445 - Social Work and Mental Health

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PSY 423 This course provides an overview of mental health and mental illness in children, youth and families. Students will learn approaches of assessment to evaluate human behavior and functioning throughout the life course. Particular attention will be directed to the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-5) as the major assessment tool utilized in human services and for insurance reimbursement

SWK 446 - Directed Readings

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

Independent reading and research on a specific topic of interest to the student. Topics are subject to approval of the supervising faculty member. Readings will culminate in the preparation of a paper/project as arranged by the student and faculty member.

SWK 448 - Senior Seminar

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Social Work majors only; completion of social work sequence. Corequisite(s): SWK 099 and SWK 450

A seminar to facilitate the integration of knowledge from previous courses with the practicum experience. Additionally, the course will address current social work issues such as ethical dilemmas, integrating personal faith with professional practice, current practice trends, and specialized case study reviews, and the use of appropriate research methods to evaluate practice in the practicum placement.

SWK 450 - Social Work Practicum

Credits, 9 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Social Work majors only; completion of social work sequence.

Corequisite(s): SWK 099 and SWK 448

Thirty-two hours per week throughout the semester of field instruction supervised by a professional social worker in a local social service agency. Focus is on implementing knowledge from previous courses with practice skills, as well as learning the structure, function and policies of social work agencies.

Mission

The School of Science and Mathematics offers students the opportunity to learn and apply the scientific approach to the acquisition of knowledge and to develop problem solving and critical thinking skills. These opportunities are provided through an extensive variety of courses and research experiences in the natural sciences and mathematics and involve both theoretical modeling and experimental investigation.

Objectives

The courses and programs offered within the School prepare all students, regardless of major, to understand the role of science and mathematics in today's complex society, to realize their integration with all disciplines, and to become life-long learners and positive contributors to their communities.

The School provides curricula at both the undergraduate and graduate levels with the necessary depth and breadth of knowledge for students majoring in a scientific or mathematical discipline to be successful in gaining employment or entrance into graduate or professional school.

The faculty of the School, a skilled, cohesive, and cooperative group of Christian men and women, provide expert guidance, time, and assistance in a caring and supportive way that is focused on student development and achievement. Through these and other efforts, they demonstrate to students the consistency of practicing the Christian faith while engaging in the study of science and mathematics.

Program Goals

It is the intent of the Department of Biological Sciences to effectively train students in such a manner that they have a realistic chance of achieving their goals of going to medical school, dental school, a physician's assistant program, graduate school, becoming a teacher, or entering an allied health science program for training to become a physical therapist, occupational therapist, medical technologist, etc. Additionally, it is the intent of the department that some biology majors participate in an undergraduate research project.

Program Objectives

Students graduating as biology majors will compare favorably in their knowledge of biology subject matter as compared with students graduating from other colleges and universities in the United States.

Students majoring in biology will be satisfied with their academic experience, which includes academic advising and quality of instruction received from faculty members in the department

Students completing the medical sciences and research tracks will be successful in gaining admission to medical school, dental school, or graduate school. Students completing the general biology track will be successful in gaining admission to appropriate postgraduate programs or find employment related to biology. Students preparing to teach biology will be successful in attaining state certification to teach.

Students will have adequate opportunity to engage in research opportunities.

RESEARCH TRACK (AT LEAST 31 HOURS)

For students planning to enter graduate school or to pursue a career in research

1. At least twelve semester hours of 300-400 level biology courses including:

BIO 402 - Ecology

2. Six semester hours from the following:

BIO 451 - Independent Studies and Research

BIO 452 - Independent Studies and Research

BIO 453 - Independent Studies and Research

BIO 454 - Independent Studies and Research

OR

BIO 361 Reading and Research for Honors I

BIO 462 Reading and Research for Honors II BIO 463 Reading and Research for Honors III

3. Five semester hours consisting of:

CHE 303 - Organic Chemistry I
CHE 313 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

4. Eight semester hours chosen from:

PHY 151 - General Physics I
PHY 152 - General Physics II
OR
PHY 251 - Fundamentals of Phy

PHY 251 - Fundamentals of Physics I PHY 252 - Fundamentals of Physics II

GENERAL ELECTIVES

Sufficient elective hours must be taken to meet the minimum hour requirement for graduation in this program. Electives should be chosen in consultation with advisor.

Biological Sciences Courses

BIO 101 - Biology for Today

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

A survey of life from cell to organism including a look at related topics of cell structure and function, cellular reproduction, and genetics as related to people living and interacting with a biological world. Students will research and prepare oral presentations as part of the requirements for the class. This course will not count toward a major or minor in biology although it will count as a non-laboratory core science course for non-science majors.

Biology majors may not enroll in this course.

BIO 103 - Human Biology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

A survey of the structure and normal functions of the human organism and an introduction to human ecology and genetics. Students will research and prepare oral presentations as part of the requirements for this class. This course will not count toward a major or minor in biology. It can, however, count either as a non-laboratory core science course for non-science majors or if taken with BIO 104, would count as a laboratory core science course.

Biology majors may not enroll in this course.

^{*} Students may not take both BIO 305 and BIO 332

BIO 104 - Human Biology Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite/Prerequisite Corequisite or prerequisite: BIO 103.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory three hours a week.

A laboratory study of the structure and normal functions of the human body. This course will not count toward a major or minor in biology. This course taken con-currently with BIO 103 will meet the core curriculum four hour laboratory science course requirement.

Biology majors may not enroll in this course.

BIO 105 - Plants and People

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

A survey of the uses of plants in human societies throughout the world. This course will not count toward a major or minor in biology although it will count as a non-laboratory core science course for non-science majors. This course taken con-currently with BIO 106 will meet the core curriculum four hour laboratory science course requirement. Biology majors may not enroll in this course.

BIO 106 - Plants and People Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite/Prerequisite Corequisite or prerequisite: BIO 105.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory three hours a week.

A laboratory investigation of the plants used in human societies throughout the world. This course will not count toward a major or minor in biology. This course taken concurrently with BIO 105 will meet the core curriculum four hour laboratory science course requirement.

Biology majors may not enroll in this course.

BIO 110 - Biology I Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite/Prerequisite Corequisite or Prerequisite BIO 111

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory three hours a week

Lab component for Biology 1 lecture.

An introduction to the living organism emphasizing the structure and function of the cell and genetics. This course is designed for Biology majors and minors.

BIO 111 - Biology I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite/Prerequisite BIO 110

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

An introduction to the living organism emphasizing the structure and function of the cell and genetics. This course is designed for Biology majors and minors.

BIO 112 - Biology II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite/Prerequisite BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

An overview of the biodiversity, biology and ecological relationships of the major phyla of organisms inhabiting our planet.

BIO 113 - Biology II Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite/Prerequisite Corequisite or Prerequisite BIO 112

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory three hours a week

Lab component for Biology II lecture. An overview of the biodiversity, biology and ecological relationships of the major phyla of organisms inhabiting our planet.

BIO 145 - Introduction to Earth Science

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

An introduction to the principles of geology. This course will not count as a biology course for students majoring or minoring in biology. This course will count as a non-laboratory core science course for non-science majors.

BIO 203 - Human Anatomy and Physiology I

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111 and BIO 110 or CHE 141 or CHE 124 - Integrated Chemical Principles or equivalent or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

An integrated study of the gross and microscopic structures and normal functions of the human organism, emphasizing basic biological principles with a holistic human perspective. Topics to be covered include the cell, integumentary system, skeletal system, muscular system, and nervous system.

BIO 204 - Human Anatomy and Physiology II

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111 and BIO 110 or CHE 141 or CHE 124 - Integrated Chemical Principles or equivalent or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

An integrated study of the gross and microscopic structure and normal functions of the human organism, emphasizing basic biological principles with a holistic human perspective. Topics to be covered include the endocrine system, cardiovascular system, digestive system, respiratory system, urinary system, reproductive system, and human genetics.

BIO 251 - Microbiology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Restricted to nursing majors.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

A survey of the bacteria, fungi, viruses, and some parasites with an emphasis on their structure, physiology, and pathogenesis in man. This course may not be used to satisfy requirements for a major or a minor in biology.

BIO 305 - Cell Biology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111 and BIO 110, CHE 141, CHE 142 and sophomore standing or higher or instructor's consent

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

An analysis of the organization and physiology of eukaryotic cells.

BIO 306 - Genetics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110 and CHE 141 and sophomore standing or higher or instructor's consent.
Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

An analysis of the three main themes in genetics: classical genetics, population genetics, and molecular genetics.

BIO 307 - Cell and Genetics Laboratory

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110 and CHE 141.

Corequisite(s): BIO 305 OR BIO 306.

A laboratory course designed to illustrate the techniques of cell biology and genetics. This course will include the building of information literacy skills and an oral presentation. This course cannot be changed from credit to audit.

BIO 311 - Comparative and Developmental Anatomy

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110, BIO 112 and BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

A comparative study of the anatomy and early development of vertebrates. Students will research and prepare oral presentations on a topic in embryology as part of the requirements for the class.

BIO 332 – Cell and Molecular Biology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, CHE 141, CHE 142 and sophomore standing or higher

This course is designed to provide students with detailed instruction in the regulation of gene expression at the molecular level and an overview of cellular processes required for cell viability, maintenance of homeostasis and general cellular function.

BIO 333 – Cell and Molecular Biology Laboratory

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, CHE 141. CHE 142 and sophomore standing or higher Pre-requisite/Corequisite(s): BIO 332

This laboratory-based course is designed to provide students with hands on experience in the design, execution and interpretation of experiments that use modern cell and molecular biology techniques as their primary experimental method.

BIO 335 - Plant Morphology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110, BIO 112 and BIO 113.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

A phylogenetic survey of plants.

BIO 401 - Entomology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111 and BIO 110 or BIO 112 and BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Study of the morphology, physiology, ecology, and systematics of insects.

BIO 402 - Ecology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 110, BIO 111. BIO 112 and BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

A study of the interactions of organisms and their environments.

BIO 403 - Vertebrate Histology

Credits, 5 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 305.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture four hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

An introduction to normal histology, featuring the study of cells, tissues, and organs. The functional significance of structure is considered.

BIO 404 - Pharmacology I

Credits, 5 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 304, CHE 314, CHE 418 or CHE 419, BIO 305 or BIO 332, BIO 412, BIO 413 or instructor's consent.

This course is part one of a study of basic and clinical pharmacology with an emphasis on major drug groups and their mechanisms of action. This course will also include the recommended drugs for all major diseases of the autonomic nervous system, cardiovascular and renal systems, smooth muscle, and the CNS; it will integrate some basic human pathology to enhance further understanding of drugs on certain diseases. The study of each drug will cover bioavailability, route of delivery, its mechanism of action, its medical use, its contraindications, and its adverse effects.

BIO 405 - Pharmacology II

Credits, 5 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 404 - Pharmacology I.

This course is part two of a study of basic and clinical pharmacology with an emphasis on major drug groups and their mechanisms of action. This course will also include the recommended drugs for all major diseases of the CNS not covered in Pharmacology I, blood and the endocrine system, and will also include chemotherapeutics; it will integrate some basic human pathology to enhance further understanding of drugs on certain diseases. The study of each drug will cover bioavailability, route of delivery, its mechanism of action, its medical use, its contraindications, and its adverse effects.

BIO 406 - Introduction to Toxicology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): BIO 412

This course is designed to provide an introduction to fundamental toxicological principles including but not limited to toxicokinetics, xenobiotic metabolism, mechanisms of toxicity (genotoxic and nongenotoxic), organ systems toxicity, environmental toxicity, occupational exposures, heavy metal toxicity, pesticides, and venomous bites/stings.

BIO 407 - Biology of Cancer

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 304, CHE 314, BIO 305 or BIO 332, BIO 306.

Building on the student's knowledge of cell physiology and genetics, the discussion in this course will begin with the process of cell transformation, followed by the mechanics of cell growth and division gone awry, and lead up to the interactions between tumors and their host. Signal transduction, the cellular energetics of tumor cells, inflammation, and angiogenesis will be discussed in the context of tumor growth and metastasis.

BIO 408 - Systematic Zoology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 112 and BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory and field work three hours a week.

A study of taxonomic principles of invertebrates and vertebrates.

BIO 409 - Human Embryology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110 AND BIO 305 OR BIO 332 OR BIO 306 AND junior standing or higher.

A study of human embryology with emphasis on the fundamental developmental process. Topics include gametogenesis, fertilization, and development of the embryo from zygote through the differentiation of the neural tube. Additionally, topics involving development of selected human organ systems will be covered. Clinical analysis of birth defects will also be discussed.

BIO 410 - Human Gross Anatomy

Credits, 8 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 305 or BIO 306 and a grade of B or better in one of the following courses: BIO 403, BIO 412, BIO 413 or BIO 425.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture four hours a week (combination of in-class meetings and virtual meetings). Laboratory twelve hours a week.

This is a human dissection course. The major objective of the course is to have students become proficient in dissection techniques of the human body. In addition, students will demonstrate a mastery of all structures of the human body and apply that knowledge to clinical situations. Technical Standards: Students need to have sufficient motor and sensory function to be able to dissect cadavers for the full duration of the assigned laboratory meeting times. This course cannot be taken as an audit.

BIO 412 - Medical Physiology I

Credits, 8 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 305 and CHE 142, PHY 151 or PHY 251. Corequisite/Prerequisite PHY 152 or PHY 252.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture 7 hours a week. Laboratory 3 hours a week.

This course is designed to provide students with detailed instruction in the physiology of osmolarity, lung, kidney, nervous system, muscle and cardiovascular systems.

BIO 413 - Medical Physiology II

Credits, 5 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110, BIO 112, BIO 113, BIO 305 or BIO 332, CHE 141, CHE 142. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture five hours a week.

The course is designed to provide students with detailed instruction in the physiology of the endocrine, gastrointestinal, and hematological systems.

BIO 414 - General Microbiology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110, CHE 141, CHE 142, and BIO 305 or BIO 332 or BIO 306 Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

An integrated course on prokaryotic cell structure, protein secretion, nutrition, growth, metabolism, antimicrobial drugs, normal microbial flora, dental infections, pathogenicity, selected Gram-negative and Gram-positive bacteria, and a survey of viruses, viral diseases, and prions. Laboratory exercises illustrating the preceding lecture topics and a class research project are included in this course. Students receiving credit for BIO 414 cannot receive credit for BIO 251 (Microbiology).

BIO 415 - Immunology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 305 or BIO 332 and CHE 142.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

A study of multiple aspects of the immune response.

BIO 416 - Immunology and Virology Lab

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite/Prerequisite BIO 415

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory three hours a week.

Laboratory component of BIO 415 or BIO 442. This course cannot be changed from credit to audit.

BIO 417 - Medical Microbiology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 414 or equivalent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

A study of medically important bacteria, fungi, viruses, and parasites with an emphasis on clinical laboratory applications.

BIO 418 - Infectious Diseases

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): BIO 251 or BIO 414 or BIO 417 or equivalent

A survey of infectious diseases with a focus on human pathogens. Clinical based correlations and geographic epidemiology as it relates to the spread and pathophysiology of disease in human societies will be a primary topic. A review of emerging and re-emerging pathogens as they relate to human health and societal impacts will be covered.

BIO 419 - DNA Forensics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141, CHE 142, BIO 305 or BIO 332 or BIO 306.

Specific examples of protocols and methodology will be presented from the scientific and the law literature. Students will be expected to develop an understanding of the nature of DNA evidence and the manner in which it is presented in court. Students will be expected to understand how the collection and analysis of samples interacts with presentations of materials to support legal arguments in courts of law.

BIO 422 - Virology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110, BIO 112, BIO 113, BIO 305 or BIO 332 and CHE 141 and CHE 142. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

A survey of bacterial, plant and animal viruses with an additional emphasis on pertinent aspects of molecular biology. A review of emerging and re-emerging viruses will be included as they currently relate to their ecological and human health impact.

BIO 423 - Plant Ecology

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 111, BIO 110, BIO 112 and BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Students will study plant community ecology. Students will analyze local hardwood forests for plant diversity and make an oral presentation of their findings.

BIO 424 - Animal Ecology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 110, BIO 111. BIO 112 and BIO 113

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

An analysis of the factors that regulate animal populations.

BIO 425 - Human Neuroanatomy

Credits, 5 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): BIO 305 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture four hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

A detailed examination of neurocircuitry and function of the human brain and spinal cord, and the etiology of common neurological disorders. Human cadaver brains are utilized.

BIO 426 - Mitochondrial Genomics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): CHE 304, CHE 314, BIO 306 and BIO 305 or BIO 332

This course centers on mitochondrial biology, including general structure and function, energy production and oxidative phosphorylation, and protein import. There is special focus on mitochondrial genome structure including genetic abnormalities, corresponding mitochondrial disorders, and use of the genome in mitochondrial haplotyping to determine maternal inheritance.

BIO 428 - Epidemiology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 208

This course provides an introduction to the basic principles of epidemiology with an emphasis on data analysis and the application of data to populations at risk for disease. Major topics include exposure and outcome measurements, infectious disease modeling, test diagnostics with measures of normality/abnormality, and applying clinical data to a sick population.

BIO 431 - Biology Seminar

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Senior standing. Corequisite(s): BIO 433. Restricted to Biology majors.

A weekly departmental seminar on current biological topics. Students will do an oral presentation on a selected topic.

BIO 433 - Biology Capstone

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Senior standing. BIO 305 and BIO 306

Corequisite(s): BIO 431. Restricted to Biology majors. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: One meeting a week.

A synthesis of biology subject matter culminating in a senior biology examination.

BIO 435 - Methods of Teaching Secondary School Science

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

Designed to familiarize teachers with current trends, methods, and techniques of teaching science to secondary school students. Students will research and prepare oral presentations along with inquiry-based activities in order to show competency in their teaching ability. This course may not be used to satisfy requirements for a major or minor in biology. Students certifying to teach biology will take this course.

BIO 440 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in Biology.

BIO 441 - Selected Topics

BIO 442 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in biology.

BIO 443 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in biology.

BIO 445 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in biology.

BIO 446 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in biology.

BIO 448 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in biology.

BIO 449 - Special Topics

Credits, 0-5 sem. hrs. A study of selected topics in biology.

BIO 451 - Independent Studies and Research

Credits, 1-3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor consent.

Individual reading and research involving experimental or theoretical investigations; for students not enrolled in Honors Program.

BIO 452 - Independent Studies and Research

Credits, 1-3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor consent.

Individual reading and research involving experimental or theoretical investigations; for students not enrolled in Honors Program.

BIO 453 - Independent Studies and Research

Credits, 1-3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor permission.

Individual reading and research involving experimental or theoretical investigations; for students not enrolled in Honors Program.

BIO 454 - Independent Studies and Research

Credits, 1-3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor consent.

Individual reading and research involving experimental or theoretical investigations; for students not enrolled in the Honors Program.

Chemistry and Biochemistry Department

Jack Clinton Bailey, II, Chair Associate Professor (1999) 601.925.3338 bailey@mc.edu

Support Staff

Tina Reeves

Administrative Assistant (2004) 601.925.3223 treeves@mc.edu

Program Goals

The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry offers courses to meet the needs of three types of students: those who are non-science majors, but who desire the subject for its cultural and educational values, and for meeting the science requirement for graduation (CHE 141 - General Chemistry I and CHE 142 - General Chemistry II or CHE 111 - Chemistry in American Life I and CHE 112 - Chemistry in American Life II will meet this requirement); those who plan to enter the professional schools of medicine, medical technology, nursing, dentistry, pharmacy, or allied health; and those who plan to enter graduate school for further study, or to enter the field of industrial chemistry.

Mission

The Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry is committed to offering the best chemistry education possible by maintaining an active and integrated research program, by using modern laboratory experiences with current instrumentation, and by providing an inclusive, supportive, and professional environment which allows and encourages students to develop to their full potential.

Laboratory Breakage

Students are responsible for equipment broken in the laboratory. Cost of the material broken must be paid for before examinations can be taken.

Honors Courses

By invitation of the Honors Council; see Junior and Senior Departmental Honors Program section of Undergraduate Catalog.

Biochemistry Minor

Twenty three semester hours consisting of:

CHE 141 - General Chemistry I

CHE 142 - General Chemistry II

CHE 303 - Organic Chemistry I

CHE 304 - Organic Chemistry II

CHE 313 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

CHE 314 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

A minimum of five hours of Biochemistry chosen from the following:

CHE 418 - Biochemistry: Macromolecules

CHE 419 - Biochemistry: Metabolism

CHE 420 - Bioanalytical Chemistry Laboratory

CHE 421 - Biophysical Chemistry Laboratory

Chemistry Minor

Twenty semester hours consisting of:

CHE 142 - General Chemistry II

CHE 310 - Quantitative Chemical Analysis

and eight additional semester hours in upper-level Chemistry courses.

Chemistry and Biochemistry Courses

CHE 111 - Chemistry in American Life I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

Special emphasis is given to applications which will affect the nonscientist throughout life, such as chemistry of health, home, and environment. Designed to satisfy core curriculum science requirements. May not be used as a prerequisite for other chemistry courses (other than CHE 112) or toward a major or minor. May not be combined with CHE 141 or CHE 124 for the University Core Curriculum.

CHE 112 - Chemistry in American Life II

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 111 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

A continuation of CHE 111, with laboratory.

CHE 124 - Integrated Chemical Principles

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week and laboratory three hours per week.

A one semester survey of the principles of chemistry illustrated by selected topics from inorganic, organic, and biochemistry. Topics discussed are those relevant to allied health related fields, especially nursing. This course may not substitute for any other chemistry course.

CHE 141 - General Chemistry I

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

The fundamental laws and theories of chemistry and chemical calculations are stressed, primarily while studying inorganic compounds. CHE 141 may not be combined with CHE 111 for the core curriculum.

CHE 142 - General Chemistry II

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

A continuation of CHE 141.

CHE 143 - Introduction to Organic and Biochemistry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141.

An overview of basic concepts of Organic and Biochemistry including nomenclature, classification and selected reaction mechanisms.

CHE 211 - Investigations in Inorganic Chemistry

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CHE 142.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory three hours per week.

A laboratory study of the classification, synthesis and reactions of typical inorganic substances. The physical and chemical properties of elements and compounds will be examined.

CHE 231 - Topics of Current Interest

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141, CHE 142.

Students attend seminars, participate in field trips, and discuss topics of current interest in chemistry.

CHE 303 - Organic Chemistry I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141, CHE 142.

Corequisite(s): CHE 313 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

An introductory course, including a study of the fundamental types of organic compounds, their nomenclature, classification, synthesis, and typical reactions.

CHE 304 - Organic Chemistry II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 303 and CHE 313.

Corequisite(s): CHE 314 or instructor's consent.

A continuation of CHE 303.

CHE 310 - Quantitative Chemical Analysis

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141, CHE 142 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture two hours per week. Laboratory six hours per week.

This laboratory intensive course presents the fundamental methods of exact chemical analysis and includes an introduction to the use of chemical instrumentation.

CHE 313 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): CHE 303 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture one hour per week and laboratory four hours per week.

A study of laboratory techniques in synthesis, purification, and chemical and instrumental analysis.

CHE 314 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 313.

Corequisite(s): CHE 304 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture one hour per week and laboratory four hours per week.

A continuation of CHE 313.

CHE 317 - Chemical Dynamics

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 142, MAT 122, PHY 152 or PHY 252, or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

A study of the thermodynamics and kinetics of chemical and biochemical processes.

CHE 318 - Chemical Energetics

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 317.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

An introduction to the theoretical and fundamental aspects of molecular bonding and structure, and atomic and molecular spectroscopy.

CHE 402 - Advanced Organic Chemistry

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 303, CHE 304, CHE 317, or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week. Laboratory three hours per week.

Reactions and mechanisms, separation science, serial synthesis and instrumental methods of compound identification.

CHE 410 - Instrumental Analysis

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 310 and CHE 317 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture two hours per week. Laboratory six hours per week.

The course deals with the principles and application of some of the modern instruments used in analytical chemistry.

CHE 411 - Advanced Inorganic Chemistry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 211, CHE 317.

Corequisite(s): CHE 318 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

A study of modern inorganic chemistry with emphasis on the principles and trends in the chemistry of the elements and the essentials of structure, bonding, and reactivity of inorganic systems.

CHE 415 - Synthetic Inorganic Chemistry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 141, CHE 142, CHE 211.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Laboratory six hours per week. Lecture one hour per week.

A laboratory course illustrating the techniques of crystallization, distillation, furnace methods, electrolytic processes and gas handling involved in the preparation and characterization of novel inorganic compounds.

CHE 417 - Theoretical Chemistry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 318.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

A study of theoretical chemistry, chemical physics, theoretical molecular spectroscopy and solid-state chemistry.

CHE 418 - Biochemistry: Macromolecules

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 304 and BIO 111 and BIO 110 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

This lecture course explores the structures and functions of biological molecules. Additional topics include the biological synthesis of proteins and nucleic acids.

CHE 419 - Biochemistry: Metabolism

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CHE 304 and BIO 111 and BIO 110 or instructor's consent.

This lecture course covers the fundamentals of metabolism and bioenergetics. Clinical correlations with metabolic diseases and diabetes are presented.

CHE 420 - Bioanalytical Chemistry Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CHE 304 and BIO 111 and BIO 110 or instructor's consent.

This laboratory course covers basic methods utilized in the purification and chemical analysis of biological molecules with applications to medicinal and forensic chemistry.

CHE 421 - Biophysical Chemistry Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CHE 304 and BIO 111 and BIO 110 or instructor's consent.

This laboratory course covers basic methods for the determination of protein and nucleic acid structure, stability, and function.

CHE 431 - Chemistry Seminar

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CHE 303, CHE 304 and senior standing.

In order to gain experience in oral communication and exploration of the scientific literature students learn to present scientific information by giving short seminars on selected topics in chemistry, as well as a departmental seminar. A standardized chemistry test covering areas of undergraduate chemistry will be administered.

CHE 435 - Methods of Teaching Secondary School Science

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300.

Designed to familiarize teachers with current trends, methods and techniques of teaching science to secondary school students. May not be used for minor, nor for Career Chemist and Medical Science majors.

CHE 441 - Special Topics in Chemistry

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Eighteen hours of chemistry and departmental permission.

Provides students a means to begin undergraduate research or to explore a subject in more depth than is offered in a regular class. A final written report is required.

CHE 442 - Special Topics in Chemistry

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Eighteen hours of chemistry and departmental permission.

Provides students a means to begin undergraduate research or to explore a subject in more depth than is offered in a regular class. A final written report is required.

CHE 451 - Independent Studies and Research

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Eighteen hours of chemistry and departmental consent. Individual reading and research involving experimental or theoretical investigation.

CHE 452 - Independent Studies and Research

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Eighteen hours of chemistry and departmental consent. Individual reading and research involving experimental or theoretical investigation.

CHE 470 - Historical Foundations of Chemistry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Eight hours of chemistry.
Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours per week.

A selected history of chemistry with a study of the pioneers who developed the theories and techniques that have brought the science to its present position. May not be taken for credit toward the undergraduate major or minor in chemistry.

Mission Statement

This department builds upon the synergy of two dynamic scientific disciplines, one very young and the other very old. On the one hand, the computer is of relatively recent vintage and has revolutionized technology globally. Our Computer Science program equips students with fundamental knowledge about the discipline of computer science and how it is changing the way we live. The learning approach combines both the theoretical and the practical, with the emphasis upon problem solving. On the other hand, Physics has been called the mother of all the sciences whose origin dates back into ancient times; certainly Physics is the most basic of the sciences for it seeks to observe, analyze, and categorize the interactions which occur in our whole physical world. Our Physics program grounds students in the fundamental principles of the discipline and the scientific approach to knowledge.

Objectives

As a major component of the School of Science and Mathematics, the Department of Computer Science and Physics strives to meet the needs of the students at Mississippi College by:

Offering courses, to both majors and non-majors, which stimulate their intellectual development while providing them with essential knowledge in the fields of computer science and physics along with acquainting them with the scientific approach to knowledge.

Providing students with opportunities to receive a strong background to enable them to compete successfully in their chosen careers whether in industry or post-baccalaureate study in graduate and professional schools.

Effectively advising students regarding choices of courses and programs while at Mississippi College so that they are acquainted with the opportunities and challenges available to them.

Employing and retaining competent faculty who are dedicated to teaching students while continuing their own professional development and who support and engage in scholarship, creative activity, and community and collegial service.

Programs of the Department

The Department consists of separate programs in Electrical Engineering, Computer Science and Physics. Majors offered include Computer Science (B.A. or B.S.), Computing and Information Systems (B.A. or B.S.), Physics (B.S.), and Electrical Engineering (B.S.E.E.). Minors include Computer Science and Physics. The Department also offers the graduate degree of Master of Science in the areas of Computer Science and Cybersecurity & Information Assurance.

Sufficient elective hours must be taken to meet the minimum hour requirement for graduation in this program. Electives should be chosen in consultation with advisor.

TOTAL: 130 SEM. HOURS

Bachelor of Science Electrical Engineering

Electrical Engineering (B.S.E.E.)

Accreditation

The Electrical Engineering (B.S.E.E.) program is accredited by the Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC) of ABET. More information about ABET can be found at https://www.abet.org/.

Program Educational Objectives

Graduates of the Electrical Engineering Program at Mississippi College will attain a reputation for integrity and expertise in the technical workforce by:

Demonstrating problem solving skills, professionalism, and ethical conduct through their endeavors in engineering practice or other related pursuits.

Demonstrating the ability to communicate effectively and make meaningful contributions as members of engineering or other problem-solving teams.

Demonstrating an awareness, appreciation, and ability to engage in life-long learning and service to society.

Student Outcomes

In support of the Program Educational Objectives, the following student outcomes describe what students are expected to know and be able to do by the time of graduation. These relate to the skills, knowledge, and behaviors that students acquire as they progress through the program.

- an ability to identify, formulate, and solve complex engineering problems by applying principles of engineering, science, and mathematics
- an ability to apply engineering design to produce solutions that meet specified needs with consideration of public health, safety, and welfare, as well as global, cultural, social, environmental, and economic factors
- an ability to communicate effectively with a range of audiences
- an ability to recognize ethical and professional responsibilities in engineering situations and make informed judgments, which must consider the impact of engineering solutions in global, economic, environmental, and societal contexts
- an ability to function effectively on a team whose members together provide leadership, create a collaborative and inclusive environment, establish goals, plan tasks, and meet objectives
- an ability to develop and conduct appropriate experimentation, analyze and interpret data, and use engineering judgment to draw conclusions
- an ability to acquire and apply new knowledge as needed, using appropriate learning strategies

Admission Requirements

In order for an applicant to be admitted into the Electrical Engineering program, the applicant must meet all the requirements for admission to Mississippi College and an open slot must be available in the Electrical Engineering program. Additionally, the following requirements must be satisfied:

Applicants applying for admission to the program must either satisfy the following two criteria:

- 1. The applicant must have at least 4 units of high school mathematics which must include 2 units of algebra, 1 unit of geometry, and at least one-half unit coverage of trigonometry, pre-calculus, or calculus.

 AND
- 2. The applicant must have a Math ACT score of 25 or higher (or equivalent SAT score). Special exceptions can be made in some instances for applicants with a Math ACT score of 24 (or equivalent SAT score) based on the applicant's level of performance in their high school trigonometry, pre-calculus, or calculus courses. OR satisfy the following:

The applicant must have a cumulative collegiate GPA of 2.00 or higher and must have passed MAT 113 Trigonometry or MAT 119 Precalculus or MAT 121 Calculus I (or their equivalent) with a grade of C or higher

Applicants with justifiable circumstances may petition the Department Chair for special admission.

Students with coursework deficiencies will be required to enroll in the necessary prerequisite courses. These courses will be in addition to those contained in the Electrical Engineering curriculum and may extend the time for graduation.

Certificate

Computer Science Certificate, Track 1

This track leads to a 20-hour certificate in Computer Science and is open to individuals who have graduated from high school, passed the GED equivalency exam, or already have a baccalaureate degree.

A minimum of 12 semester hours in the certificate program must be completed at Mississippi College.

Transfer credit (up to 8 hours) with a minimum grade of C will be accepted at the discretion of the department.

Students should have some general experience with Calculus before enrolling. MAT 121 or MAT 206 may be required as a prerequisite course if needed.

This certificate program may be completed in a minimum of four semesters. Cohorts begin each fall semester.

These courses also provide those without a background in computer science with required prerequisites to pursue a master's degree in the field.

A 3.0 GPA in the below listed courses is required with no less than a C in any course.

Required Courses:

CSC 115 - Foundations of Computer Science

CSC 116 - Intro. to Programming and Problem Solving

CSC 216 - Data Structures

CSC 220 - C/C++ Language Programming CSC 309 - Discrete Structures CSC 314 - Computer Organization

Computer Science Certificate, Track 2 (Applied Programming)

This track leads to a 20-hour certificate in Applied Programming and is open to individuals who have graduated from high school, passed the GED equivalency exam, or already have a baccalaureate degree.

A minimum of 12 semester hours in the certificate program must be completed at Mississippi College.

Transfer credit (up to 8 hours) with a minimum grade of C will be accepted at the discretion of the department.

This certificate program may be completed in a minimum of three semesters. Cohorts begin each fall semester.

This track provides a heavier programming emphasis than the Certificate in Computer Science, Track 1.

A 2.75 GPA in the below listed courses is required with no less than a C in any course.

Required Courses

CSC 115 - Foundations of Computer Science

CSC 116 - Intro. to Programming and Problem Solving

CSC 216 - Data Structures

CSC 220 - C/C++ Language Programming

CSC 302 - Internet and WWW Basics

CSC 415 - Database Management Systems

Cybersecurity Certificate

This certificate is only available to students completing a Computer Science, B.S./Computer Science, B.A. or Computing and Information Systems, B.S./Computing and Information Systems, B.A. degree program.

Students will be required to maintain a B average in the courses in order to receive the certificate.

Requirements (18 sem. hrs.)

CSC 422 - Operating Systems

CSC 423 - Computer Networking

CSC 435 - Computer Security

CSC 436 - Cryptography & Network Security

CSC 438 - Computer & Network Forensics

Computer Science Courses

CSC 105 - C Programming for Scientists and Engineers

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. A study of syntax and features of C programming language. Special attention will be given to scientific, engineering and mathematical oriented applications of C. Substantial programming exercises utilizing concepts from scientific programming environments will be required.

CSC 114 - Introduction to Computer Science

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course is an introduction to computer science. Topics to be covered include computer history, computer hardware, application and system software, networks, www concepts, ethics, and problem solving.

CSC 115 - Foundations of Computer Science

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Three hours of lecture per week. The class will meet some of these times in the computer laboratory.

This course is designed to introduce the student with no prior programming experience to the fundamentals necessary to study the science of computing. Topics include history of computing, computing as a tool and a discipline, machine level data representation, algorithms and problem solving, fundamental programming constructs and software design methodology, fundamental data structures, operating systems, net-centric computing, human-computer interaction, artificial intelligence, simulation, and social issues in computing.

CSC 116 - Intro. to Programming and Problem Solving

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 115.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

This course is designed as an introduction to programming and problem solving. Topics to be included are the abstractions necessary for the program development process, design methodology, control structures, looping, procedures, interface design, functions, simple data types, aggregate data structures and objects.

CSC 204 - Practical Fortran Programming

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 116 and MAT 121 or MAT 206 or approval by instructor.

A study of the syntax and features of Fortran programming language. Special attention will be given to scientific, engineering and mathematical oriented applications of Fortran. Substantial programming exercises utilizing concepts from scientific programming environments will be required.

CSC 205 - Data Structures and Algorithms for Engineers

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 105 or Instructor's Consent.

Introduces fundamental data structures, algorithms, and abstract data types. Main topics include data structures such as arrays, linked lists, stacks, queues, graphs, and trees, and algorithms such as those that are used for list manipulation, graph searches, sorting, searching and tree traversals. Implementation of data structures and algorithms in C++.

CSC 216 - Data Structures

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 116.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week.

An introduction to the basic concepts of data structures from a practical standpoint with an emphasis on the use of some of the abstractions necessary for structured program development. Topics include software development tools, top-down design, algorithm analysis, encapsulation, and methods of implementation as well as the common data structures stacks, queues, lists, and trees. Sorting and searching techniques employing these data structures will also be examined.

CSC 220 - C/C++ Language Programming

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 116 or instructor's consent.

A study of the syntax and features of the C and C++ programming languages.

CSC 231 - Selected Language Programming

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CSC 220 or instructor's consent.

A study of the syntax and features of a selected special purpose language such as LISP, Prolog, Ada, Pascal, Fortran, Assembly, BASIC or COBOL. Other languages may be included as needed. May be repeated for credit if a different language is offered.

CSC 232 - Selected Language Programming

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 220 or instructor's consent.

A study of the syntax and features of a selected special purpose language such as LISP, Prolog, Ada, Pascal, Fortran, Assembly, BASIC or COBOL. Other languages may be included as needed. May be repeated for credit if a different language is offered.

CSC 233 - Selected Language Programming

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 220 or instructor's consent.

A study of the syntax and features of a selected special purpose language such as LISP, Prolog, Ada, Pascal, Fortran, Assembly, BASIC or COBOL. Other languages may be included as needed. May be repeated for credit if a different language is offered.

CSC 300 - Fundamentals of Computer Science for Educators

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

A study of the methodology and concepts involved in computer education in the secondary schools. Topics included will be computer curriculum and computer laboratory techniques, course authoring, language survey, multimedia, and classroom networking.

CSC 302 - Internet and WWW Basics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 114 or CSC 115 or instructor's consent.

This course is intended for the general university audience and will cover basic Internet concepts as well as World Wide Web design concepts such as XHTML, CSS, XML, Javascript and XSL.

CSC 309 - Discrete Structures

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

Concepts of algorithms, induction, recursion, proofs, topics from logic, set theory, combinatorics, graph theory, and automata theory fundamental to the study of computer science.

CSC 310 - File and Systems Software

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

A study of file and data storage techniques and the operating systems software necessary to support such file systems. Topics include operating systems, I/O, memory management, indexing, hashing, buffering, and specialized file management techniques for database systems.

CSC 314 - Computer Organization

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216 and CSC 220.

Computer system organization; internal organization and operation of digital computers; some systems software. A working knowledge of the C programming language is assumed.

CSC 319 - Computer-Human Interaction

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

This course is the study of the interfaces between the human and the computer and the design principles necessary to make such interfaces more effective. It provides a broad overview of CHI as a sub-area of the computer sciences and offers specific background relating to user-centered design approaches in information systems applications. Areas to be addressed include user interface and software design strategies, user experience levels, interaction styles, usability engineering and collaborative systems technology.

CSC 320 - Systems Analysis and Design

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

Physical and logical design of an operational computer system. The processes of planning for control, implementation, change, analysis, and review of existing systems from a technological as well as managerial standpoint will be covered. This course requires students to make both written and oral presentations of analysis and design projects.

CSC 330 - Social & Ethical Issues in Computing

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Junior standing.

A study of the major social and ethical issues in computer science, a brief history of computer science, the impact of computers on society, and professional computer ethics.

CSC 380 - Internship

Credits, 1, 2, 3, or 6 sem. hrs. See Internships section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

CSC 381 - Introduction to Numerical Methods

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 122 and CSC 116.

This course looks into the modeling of mathematical concepts on a computer. Algorithms will be discussed and implemented which find roots of equations, give polynomial approximations to discrete data, approximate integrals and derivatives, solve ordinary differential equations and solve linear systems of equations.

[Crosslisted as: MAT 381.]

CSC 387 - Internship

Credits, 1, 2, 3, or 6 sem. hrs. See Internships section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

CSC 388 - Internship

Credits, 1, 2, 3, or 6 sem. hrs. See Internships section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

CSC 389 - Internship

Credits, 1, 2, 3, or 6 sem. hrs. See Internships section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

CSC 402 - Advanced Data Structures and Algorithm Analysis

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

A study of complexity of algorithms and algorithm design and data structures used for their implementation along with the analysis of algorithmic performance of these designs. Advanced searching and sorting techniques, trees and tree structures, hashing, network flows, recurrence, divide-and-conquer techniques, transform-and-conquer techniques, dynamic programming, and greedy algorithms are among the topics examined.

CSC 404 - Programming Language Structures

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216

Introduction to the principles of programming language design and implementation, syntax, data types, scope, data abstractions, concurrency and Object-Oriented Programming.

CSC 405 - Introduction to Operations Research

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. [Crosslisted as: MAT 405.]

CSC 415 - Database Management Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

Design and implementation of a database system. This course focuses on relational database systems concepts such as relational algebra, normalization, transaction management, concurrency control, authentication, XQuery, Xpath, SQL, and design implementation concepts. A major database design and implementation project will be required.

CSC 416 - Software Engineering

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

A study of the analysis, design and implementation of major software systems. Topics include software development life-cycles and software development product management. A collaborative exercise in developing a large software product is central to the course. This course requires oral presentation of final software engineering project.

CSC 422 - Operating Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 220, CSC 314.

An introduction to the various data and control structures necessary for the design and implementation of the modern computer operating systems. Process creation and control, inter-process communications, synchronization and concurrency, I/O memory management, and file systems concepts are explored in the context of the Unix operating system. A working knowledge of the C programming language is assumed.

CSC 423 - Computer Networking

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 220.

This course is a study of the physical and logical components used in modern computer networks. Topics include: fundamentals of signaling and data transmission using electromagnetic media, data encoding, multiplexing, circuit switching, packet switching, LAN and WAN technologies, internet working concepts, transport protocols, network security, and distributed applications. May include programming or laboratory assignments to demonstrate key concepts.

CSC 425 - Advanced Database Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 415 or instructor's consent.

This course will focus on database systems theory. Topics include Query optimization, object-oriented databases, data mining, hybrid databases, data warehousing, physical database structures, indexing and recovery.

CSC 431 - Selected Topics

Credits, 1 sem. hr., respectively. These courses are offered in response to identified needs and interests.

CSC 432 - Selected Topics

Credits, 2 sem. hrs., respectively. These courses are offered in response to identified needs and interests.

CSC 433 - Selected Topics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs., respectively. These courses are offered in response to identified needs and interests.

CSC 435 - Computer Security

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216 and CSC 314.

A study of the fundamental concepts and practical applications of computing systems security from a critical and analytical standpoint. Topics include: security concepts and services, physical, operational, and organizational security, cryptography, hardening, secure code, secure applications development, threats, vulnerabilities, and countermeasures, legal, ethical and privacy considerations.

CSC 436 - Cryptography & Network Security

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 423

A study of the fundamental concepts and practical applications of cryptography and network security. Topics include: symmetric and asymmetric cryptography, cryptographic hash functions, authentication and digital signatures, management and distribution of keys, cloud, wireless, and wire network security introduction, IPSec, authentication and security at various network levels.

CSC 438 - Computer & Network Forensics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 422

A study of computer and network forensics. Topics include: computer crimes, standard techniques of digital evidence acquisition and handling, techniques and methods of computer, network, mobile, and cloud forensics, network device and server forensics, network tunneling, malware forensics, and preparation of the computer scientist to testify in court. The students will conduct an investigation of computer crime and prepare the necessary reports.

CSC 440 - Introduction to Artificial Intelligence

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216 and CSC 309.

A study of fundamental concepts in AI. The focus is upon knowledge representation and searching, with emphasis on expert systems. Other topics include machine learning, natural language understanding, perception, specialized data structures such as semantic and neural networks, and open problems in the field of AI. Exercises using the LISP and/or Prolog languages may be assigned.

CSC 445 - Web-Centric Programming Methodologies

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 216.

This course gives hands-on experimentation and analysis of concepts and applications relating to real-world web-based application development. Topics include Client-Server Architectures, web protocols and software, client-side and server-side programming, database connectivity, design patterns for web apps, security, performance, reliability, internationalization, cloud, wireless and mobile computing, SaaS, SOA, and various other web services and advanced web-based architectural styles.

CSC 450 - Computer Graphics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 220.

An introduction to raster graphics technology. A study of the theory and practice necessary for comprehending the techniques for scientific visualization, interface design, and two- and three-dimensional data representation and manipulation.

CSC 455 - Graph Theory

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 222 and CSC 216 or instructor's consent.

Graph theory with a wide variety of applications, both to other branches of mathematics and to the real world. Some subjects to be treated are graphs, subgraphs, cycles, trees, matchings, and planar graphs.

[Crosslisted as: MAT 455.]

CSC 460 - Automata Theory and Formal Languages

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): CSC 309.

A study of languages, grammars, and machines at a theoretical level. Regular, context free, and context sensitive languages are covered, as well as finite state, push down and Turing machines. The concept of decidability is also discussed.

CSC 481 - Numerical Analysis

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 381/CSC 381.

This course is a mathematical analysis of scientific computing. Topics covered include the stability and convergence of algorithms, interval arithmetic, fixed point iteration, matrix factorizations, norms and eigenvalues; iterative solutions to systems. Additional discussions will focus on the design of efficient algorithms for use on parallel computers.

[Crosslisted as: MAT 381.]

CSC 485 - Senior Seminar

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): CSC 416 and CSC 422, or instructor's consent.

Students will review material from their Computer Science coursework and apply this knowledge in the study, discussion and presentation of current literature in the field. Grades will be based, in part, on student presentations and on the results of a nationally standardized Computer Science exam to be given during the course.

Electrical Engineering Courses

ECE 099 – Professional Development

Credits, 0 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s) Senior standing in Electrical Engineering:

Students will register to take the Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) exam. The FE is a national exam that is administered year-round at test centers approved by the National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying (NCEES) and is typically required to begin the process of becoming a professional licensed engineer.

ECE 101 – Introduction to Electrical Engineering

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Only electrical engineering majors are allowed to register for this course. An introduction to the field of electrical engineering. Typical questions that students have about the field and program are addressed through the course content. Topics include an overview of the program, differences between EE subfields, career opportunities and development, keys to student success, ethics, and technical reporting skills.

ECE 201 - Logic Design

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite(s): ECE 202.

Corequisite/Prerequisite MAT 121 and ECE 101.

Analysis and design of combinational and sequential logic circuits. Topics include number systems and conversions, Boolean algebra, basic logic gates, minterm and maxterm expansions, Karnaugh maps, multi-level gate circuits, multiplexers, decoders, PLDs, flip-flops, registers, counters, and state tables.

ECE 202 - Logic Design Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite(s): ECE 201.

Laboratory investigations and applications of topics introduced in ECE 201.

ECE 301 - Electric Circuit Theory

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 252 and ECE 101.

Corequisite(s): ECE 302.

Principles of DC and AC circuits. Topics include basic laws, analysis techniques, circuit theorems, energy storage elements, first and second order circuits, operational amplifiers, phasors, AC power and transformers.

ECE 302 - Electric Circuit Theory Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite(s): ECE 301.

Laboratory investigations and applications of topics introduced in ECE 301.

ECE 305 - Electronics I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 301.

Corequisite(s): ECE 306.

First part of a course on electronic circuit analysis and design. Topics include semiconductors, diodes, rectifiers, clippers and clampers, bipolar junction transistors, BJT amplifiers, field effect transistors, and FET amplifiers.

ECE 306 - Electronics I Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): ECE 302

Corequisite(s): ECE 305

Laboratory investigations and applications of topics introduced in ECE 305.

ECE 315 - Electronics II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 305.

Corequisite(s): ECE 316.

Second part of a course on electronic circuit analysis and design. Topics include frequency response, power amplifiers, output stages, differential amplifiers, feedback and stability, active filters, oscillators, and MOSFET digital circuits.

ECE 316 - Electronics II Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): ECE 306

Corequisite(s): ECE 315

Laboratory investigations and applications of topics introduced in ECE 315.

ECE 320 - Microprocessors and Microcontrollers

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 201 and either CSC 105 or CSC 220.

Corequisite(s): ECE 321.

A study of microprocessor and microcontroller architecture, programming, and interfacing.

ECE 321 - Microprocessors and Microcontrollers Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite(s): ECE 320.

Laboratory investigations and applications of topics introduced in ECE 320.

ECE 325 - Electromagnetic Theory I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 301 and MAT 222

Corequisite/Prerequisite MAT 352.

Fundamental principles of static electric and magnetic fields. Topics include discrete and continuous charge distributions, Coulomb's law, Gauss's law, electric potential, electrostatic energy, conductors and insulators, boundary conditions, boundary value problems, steady currents, the Biot-Savart law, Ampere's law, and magnetization.

ECE 326 - Electromagnetic Theory II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 325.

Fundamental principles of electrodynamics. Topics include Faraday's law, Maxwell's Equations, plane electromagnetic waves, transmission lines, waveguides, and antennas.

ECE 330 - Signals and Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 301 and MAT 352.

A study of continuous and discrete-time signals and systems. Topics include system analysis in the time-domain, Fourier series, Fourier transforms and applications, Laplace transforms and applications, state-variables, and z-transforms.

ECE 401 - Electric Machines

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 326.

Electric devices used for energy conversions. Topics include magnetic circuits, three-phase circuits, transformers, synchronous machines, induction machines, and DC machines.

ECE 405 - Feedback Control Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 315 and ECE 330.

Classical analysis and design of feedback control systems. Topics include time and frequency response of feedback systems, transfer functions, block diagrams and signal-flow graphs, stability testing, root-locus, Bode plots, and compensation.

ECE 421 - Communications Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 330

Corequisite/Prerequisite MAT 353

Introduction to communication theory through basic principles in the analysis and design of analog and digital communication systems. Topics include signal analysis in the time and frequency domain, modulation and demodulation of analog signals, analog-to-digital conversion, digital signal transmission, and the effects of noise on analog and digital communication systems.

ECE 423 - Electrical Properties of Materials

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 305 and ECE 326.

Introduction to quantum mechanics, the free electron theory of metals, band theory, semiconductors, dielectrics, and magnetic materials.

ECE 425 - Digital Signal Processing

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 330.

Sampling, quantization, D/A and A/D converters, discrete-time systems, convolution, z-transforms, transfer functions, digital filter realizations and design, DFT and FFT algorithms.

ECE 431 - Advanced Logic Design

Credits, 3 hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 320 and ECE 321 and Senior Standing in Electrical Engineering

Syntax and features of the VHDL hardware description language. Special attention on synthesis capability of VHDL and its use in targeting FPGA-based digital hardware design platforms. Substantial programming exercises to develop modest sized fully functional digital logic hardware.

ECE 433 - VLSI Design

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 201 and ECE 315

The study of integrating millions of transistors on a single chip and creating optimized digital designs. Topics include CMOS digital logic design with related power and delay issues. Full custom layouts are studied and implemented. Students will use CAD tools to implement and simulate VLSI designs.

ECE 435 - Introduction to Robotics

Prerequisite(s): ECE 315 and ECE 320

Course Description: Principles of robotics are studied. Topics include: mechanical systems; electrical systems; navigation and path planning; sensors and actuators; robot communication.

ECE 447 - Selected Topics in Electrical Engineering

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

A course offering formal study of selected topics in electrical engineering.

ECE 451 - Senior Design I

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ECE 315, ECE 320, ECE 326 and senior standing.

First part of a capstone course in electrical engineering design. Lectures on the design process, application of design tools, professional skills, and ethics. Students work in groups to define a design project and its requirements, develop a design plan, and present the plan to the faculty at the end of the semester.

ECE 452 - Senior Design II

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Grade of C or better in ECE 451.

Second part of a capstone course in electrical engineering design. Lectures on the design process, application of design tools, professional skills, and ethics. Design plans formulated in ECE 451 are implemented and a formal report is prepared, presented, and evaluated.

ECE 490 – Service Learning

Credits, 0 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Senior Standing in Electrical Engineering

Students will form outreach groups and assist science and engineering teachers in local area high schools in the development of new projects or laboratory procedures to enhance their lesson plans and the educational experiences of their students.

ECE 5453 - Senior Design With Business Proposal I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Senior Standing and ECE 315, ECE 320 and ECE 326 First part of a capstone course in electrical engineering design. Lectures on the design process, application of design tools, professional skills, and ethics. Students work in groups to define a design project and its requirements, develop a design plan, and present the plan to the faculty at the end of the semester. Students also work with faculty in the School of Business to develop a business proposal based on their design project.

ECE 5454 - Senior Design With Business Proposal II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Grade of C or better in ECE 5453

Second part of a capstone course in electrical engineering design. Lectures on the design process, application of design tools, professional skills, and ethics. Design plans formulated in ECE 5453 are implemented and a formal report is prepared, presented, and evaluated. Students also work with faculty in the School of Business to finalize and present a business proposal based on their design project.

Engineering Science Courses

ESC 105 - Spreadsheet Applications for Scientists and Engineers

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 113 or MAT 121. Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture two hours a week.

The use of spreadsheet packages such as Excel to store data from laboratory experiments, to perform calculations on those data, and to generate charts from the results.

ESC 205 - Computational Tools for Scientists and Engineers

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite/Prerequisite MAT 121

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

An introduction to the use of a commercially available array processing software package such as MATLAB to analyze mathematical problems common to the field of physics and engineering.

ESC 305 - Electrical Circuits

Credits, 5 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 152 or PHY 252 and MAT 122.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture four hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Principles of DC circuits, Ohm's Law, Kirchhoff's laws, analysis theorems, AC circuit components, transient behavior, steady-state behavior, phasors, transformers, two-port networks.

ESC 306 - Digital Circuits

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 152 or PHY 252 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Binary, hexadecimal, octal number systems, Boolean algebra, binary logic, Karnaugh maps, digital circuit principles, flip-flops, switches, counters, basic computer circuits, LED's, introduction to microprocessors.

ESC 310 - Electronics

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ESC 305.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Semiconductors, solid state electronics, principles of active devices, JFET's, amplifier circuits, operational amplifiers, analog measurements, oscillator circuits, linear integrated circuits.

ESC 311 - Statics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 151 or PHY 251 and MAT 122.

Forces in equilibrium, free body diagrams, beams, trusses, engineering principles, bodies in tension and compression, stress and strain.

ESC 312 - Dynamics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ESC 311.

Vector treatment of the kinematics and kinetics of particles and rigid bodies, Newton's laws, work and energy, impulse and momentum, impact, mass moments of inertia, rotating axes.

ESC 315 - Thermodynamics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 152 or PHY 252 and MAT 222 or instructor's consent.

A study of the science of the conversion of energy from one form to another. This course will emphasize the first and second laws of thermodynamics and their applications to power cycle and refrigeration cycle analyses.

ESC 321 - Strength of Materials

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 151 or PHY 251 and MAT 122.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week.

Relationship between internal stresses and deformations produced by external forces acting on deformable bodies, and design principles based on mechanics of solids: normal stresses, shear stresses, and deformations produced by tensile, compressive, torsional, and dimensional stress states; and buckling of columns.

ESC 340 - Heat Transfer

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 151 or PHY 251 and MAT 122.

Corequisite(s): MAT 352.

A one-semester study of the principles of steady state conduction, transient conduction, radiative heat transfer, and forced natural convection.

ESC 350 - Fluid Mechanics

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 151 or PHY 251 and MAT 122.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Comprehensive first course in basic and applied fluid mechanics. Topics covered will include: fluid properties under static and dynamic conditions, Euler's and Bernoulli's equations, hydrodynamics, dimensional analysis and similitude, laminar and turbulent flows, boundary layer model and approximate analysis, compressible flow and propulsion devices, flow measurement, and an introduction to turbomachinery with applications.

ESC 450 - Senior Design Project

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): senior standing, Engineering Physics major.

Independent research, design, and presentation of results for a student selected and advisor approved project.

Physics Courses

PHY 104 - Physics for Today

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This is a survey course designed for non-science majors. The math required for this course is minimal and does not go beyond high school algebra.

PHY 151 - General Physics I

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 113 or or MAT 119 or MAT 121 or MAT 206.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Mechanics, thermodynamics, waves, and sound.

PHY 152 - General Physics II

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 151.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Light, electricity, magnetism, and modern physics.

PHY 216 - Astronomy

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. History, methods, solar system, stars, and cosmology; presented at an introductory level.

PHY 250 - Selected Topics in Physics Laboratory

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's Consent.

Laboratory investigations of selected topics in physics. May be taken more than once with different topics.

PHY 251 - Fundamentals of Physics I

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s):

Corequisite(s):

Corequisite/Prerequisite Prerequisite or Corequisite: MAT 122.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Mechanics, thermodynamics, waves, and sound presented with the aid of calculus.

PHY 252 - Fundamentals of Physics II

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 251.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Light, electricity, and magnetism presented with the aid of calculus.

PHY 301 - Modern Physics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 152 or PHY 252 and MAT 122.

Introduction to the subjects of special relativity, quantum theory, atomic, nuclear and particle physics. An oral presentation on a relevant topic, selected in consultation with the instructor, will be made by each student.

PHY 308 - Classical Mechanics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 151 or PHY 251 and MAT 122 or instructor's consent.

Two and three dimensional kinematics and dynamics, curvilinear coordinates, vector analysis, projectile motion, conservative and non-conservative forces, potential theory, rigid bodies.

PHY 313 - Optics

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 152 or PHY 252 and MAT 122.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Fundamental concepts of simple optical systems, including lenses and mirrors. Physical optics including interference, diffraction, polarization, optical spectra, and lasers.

PHY 401 - Quantum Mechanics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 301 or instructor's consent.

Schroedinger wave mechanics including application to atomic structure. An oral presentation on a relevant topic, selected in consultation with the instructor, will be made by each student.

PHY 402 - Special Projects

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

After consulting with the instructor in charge the student may be assigned to special study in theoretical physics or may be assigned a research problem.

PHY 406 - Electricity and Magnetism I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 152 or PHY 252 and MAT 222 or instructor's consent.

The fundamental principles of electrostatic fields, electric potential, electrostatic boundary conditions, work and energy in electrostatics, conductors and insulators, and special techniques in solving electrostatics problems.

PHY 407 - Electricity and Magnetism II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 406.

The fundamental principles of magnetostatic fields, electromagnetic induction, magnetic fields in matter, Maxwell's equations, electromagnetic waves and radiation.

PHY 413 - Nuclear Physics

Credits, 4 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PHY 301 or instructor's consent.

Lecture/Lab/Field/Meeting: Lecture three hours a week. Laboratory three hours a week.

Isotopes and nuclear structure, natural radioactivity, induced nuclear transformations, nuclear energy sources, high energy processes and cosmic rays.

PHY 417 - Selected Topics in Physics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. A course offering formal study of selected topics in physics or applications of physics. May be taken more than once with different specific topics.

PHY 433 - Physics Capstone

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Senior standing in Physics or Engineering Physics.

A synthesis of physics subject matter culminating in a senior physics examination.

Mission Statement

The Department of Mathematics serves to promote and develop quantitative reasoning skills among its majors as well as among students from all disciplines. Toward that end, the department seeks to maintain an engaged, inclusive and supportive faculty that focuses on personal interaction with students.

Program Objectives

Students graduating as mathematics majors will compare favorably in their knowledge of mathematics subject matter as compared with students graduating from other colleges and universities in the United States.

Students majoring in mathematics will be satisfied with their academic experience, which includes academic advising and quality of instruction received from faculty members in the department

Students planning to enter the workforce in scientific, government, business, research or other areas will be prepared mathematically to do well. Students preparing to teach mathematics will be successful in getting state certification/license to teach and in gaining an appropriate teaching position. Students preparing for graduate work in mathematics or in one of the medical fields will be successful in gaining admission to graduate school.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS (18 hours)

Students not seeking secondary education licensure must choose a minor or a second major and are encouraged to consider one in a related field. Students seeking secondary education licensure should follow the appropriate status sheet (available from the Department of Education).

GENERAL ELECTIVES

Sufficient elective hours must be taken to meet the minimum hour requirement for graduation in this program. Electives should be chosen in consultation with an advisor.

TOTAL: 130 SEM. HOURS

Mathematics Minors

Students may select from two possible minors in mathematics:

Mathematics minor

MAT 121 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

MAT 122 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

MAT 301 - Foundations of Mathematics and 9 additional semester hours of work in mathematics at the 200 level or above

Applied Mathematics minor

MAT 121 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

MAT 122 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

MAT 221 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

MAT 222 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry IV

And any three of the following:

MAT 213 - Applied Linear Algebra

MAT 352 - Introduction to Differential Equations

MAT 353 - Introduction to Mathematical Probability and Statistics

MAT 381 - Introduction to Numerical Methods

Note(s):

MAT 100 - College Algebra Basics does not count toward a major, minor, or University core curriculum.

Mathematics Courses

MAT 100 - College Algebra Basics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): ACT Math subscore of less than 20 or instructor's consent.

A review of basic topics from arithmetic, geometry, and algebra. The course is required of students judged to be unprepared for MAT 111. It carries elective credit but does not count toward a major, minor, or university core curriculum.

MAT 105 - Contemporary Mathematics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. A survey of mathematical topics for non-majors, designed to develop an appreciation of the uses of mathematics. Selected topics will include: problem solving, math modeling, statistics and the mathematics of finance.

MAT 111 - College Algebra with Applications

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 100 or ACT MAT subscore of 19 or better.

This course covers algebra topics with a focus on practical applications involving linear, quadratic, and rational equations and inequalities, linear and quadratic functions, systems of equations, and exponential and logarithmic functions.

MAT 113 - College Trigonometry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 111 or ACT MAT subscore of 21 or better

A study of the trigonometric functions including their properties and graphs with applications to practical problems in mathematics, physics and other areas. An emphasis is also placed on proving trigonometric identities, solving equations involving trigonometric functions, and understanding and applying theorems such as the Law of Sines and the Law of Cosines.

MAT 119 - Precalculus

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 111 or ACT MAT subscore of 21 or better

A study of elementary functions, including polynomials, algebraic functions, logarithmic, exponential and trigonometric functions.

MAT 121 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 113 or MAT 119 or the equivalent or ACT MAT subscore of 25 or better.

A brief review of functions including transcendental functions and a study of single-variable differential calculus. Major topics covered include limits, continuity, the derivative and its applications.

MAT 122 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 121.

A study of single-variable integral calculus with applications to area, arc length, surfaces of revolution and work. Techniques discussed include integration by parts, partial fractions, trigonometric substitutions and improper integrals.

MAT 205 - Finite Mathematics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 111, ACT MAT subscore greater than 20, or the equivalent

A study of mathematics for business, management and economics. Topics include applications of functions to include exponential and logarithmic, mathematics of finance, systems of equations and matrices, and linear optimization. Since this course presumes a strong background in algebra, students should have successfully completed the prerequisite within the previous five years.

MAT 206 - Applied Calculus

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 111, ACT MAT subscore greater than 21 or the equivalent.

A study of the applications of calculus for disciplines outside of mathematics such as business, economics, management, computing and information systems and the life and social sciences. Topics include differentiation, integration and multivariate calculus and applications.

MAT 207 - Elementary Statistics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. A study of elementary statistics for non-majors with an introduction to probability. Emphasis is placed on student understanding and interpretation of statistical data and computation. Mathematics majors should take MAT 353

MAT 208 - Elementary Biostatistics

Credits, 3 sem. Hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 211, 210 or the equivalent.

A study of elementary statistics for students in health-related majors with an introduction to probability. Emphasis is placed on student understanding and interpretation of statistical data and computation using calculators and computers. Topics include prevalence and incidence of disease, sensitivity and specificity of tests, interval estimation, hypothesis testing, and Analysis of Variance (ANOVA).

MAT 210 - Mathematics for Teachers: Number Systems

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Education major or instructor's consent.

A development of the real number system for prospective elementary teachers. Emphasis is placed on developing number sense through problem solving, estimation, properties of real numbers and modeling algorithms.

MAT 211 - Mathematics for Teachers: Geometry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 210 or instructor's consent.

A development of ideas related to informal geometry for prospective elementary teachers. Material includes topics from Euclidean geometry, solid geometry, analytic geometry and measurement.

MAT 213 - Applied Linear Algebra

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 111 or higher or the equivalent.

This course develops practical uses for vector and matrix arithmetic and makes extensive use of computational resources. Topics covered include various methods for solving linear systems, matrix factorization, linear transformations, eigenvalues and eigenvectors. Applications include problems in mathematics, engineering, computer science and the natural sciences as well as in finance and business.

MAT 221 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 122.

A study of the calculus of infinite series and single-variable vector calculus. Topics covered include tests for series convergence, Taylor's Theorem, power series, polar coordinates, cylindrical and spherical coordinates, and vectors and vector-valued function in the plane and in space.

MAT 222 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry IV

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 221.

A study of the calculus of multivariate functions. Topics covered include partial differentiation, double and triple integration, vector fields, line and surface integrals and numerous applications.

MAT 301 - Foundations of Mathematics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 122.

An introduction to the ideas needed for advanced mathematics courses. Topics include set theory, logic, axiom systems, proof techniques, relations, functions, and cardinality. Emphasis will be given to applying proof techniques to material on number systems and other areas of higher mathematics. Also, this course serves as a formal introduction into the literature of mathematics and mathematical research.

MAT 304 - Modern Plane Geometry

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 301 or instructor's consent.

A study of Euclidean geometry from the modern axiomatic viewpoint. Some alternatives to Euclidean geometry will be considered.

MAT 309 - Discrete Mathematics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 122 or instructor's consent.

An introduction to discrete mathematics including induction and recursion, algorithms, relations, partial ordering, graphs, directed graphs and trees. Applications will include Euler and Hamilton paths and minimal spanning trees.

MAT 320 - Introduction to Number Theory

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 301.

An introduction to properties of integers, prime numbers, divisibility, number theoretic functions and congruences.

MAT 352 - Introduction to Differential Equations

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 222 or MAT 221 and instructor's consent.

This course covers the development of ordinary differential equations and concentrates on the derivation of methods. First order equations, linear equations and systems of equations and Laplace Transforms are discussed as well as further applications.

MAT 353 - Introduction to Mathematical Probability and Statistics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Corequisite/Prerequisite MAT 221.

This course is a calculus-based introduction to probability and statistics. Major emphasis is placed on developing a precise framework for solving problems under uncertainty. Topics covered include expected value, probability functions and their distributions, interpretation of the Central Limit Theorem and its application to confidence intervals.

MAT 381 - Introduction to Numerical Methods

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 122 and CSC 116.

This course looks into the modeling of mathematical concepts on a computer. Algorithms will be discussed and implemented which find roots of equations, give polynomial approximations to discrete data, approximate integrals and derivatives, solve ordinary differential equations and solve linear systems of equations.

[Crosslisted as: CSC 381.]

MAT 401 - Mathematics Seminar

Credits, 2 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): COM 202, COM 203 or COM 304; senior standing.

This seminar course serves as a research-oriented capstone course for senior students in mathematics. Methods for discovering and developing area-appropriate research topics will be investigated and skills will be cultivated in the effective use of discipline-specific information systems. Major goals include the oral presentation of a written paper on a selected topic in mathematics and successfully completing a nationally normed examination in Mathematics.

MAT 405 - Introduction to Operations Research

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

Application of quantitative methods to problem solving. Topics include both deterministic and probabilistic models.

MAT 406 - History of Mathematics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 301 or instructor's consent.

A study of the development of areas of mathematics including number theory, algebras, geometries, probability and statistics, graph theory and analysis. Included in the course are studies of the lives and contributions of outstanding mathematicians of each era.

MAT 407 - Statistical Data Analysis

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 207 or MAT 353 or the equivalent.

Development and application of statistical techniques. Topics include both descriptive and inferential techniques including simple and multiple linear regression.

MAT 413 - Linear Algebra

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 301.

Subjects treated include vectors, vector spaces, matrices and determinants, systems of linear equations, linear transformations in a vector space, and systems of linear differential equations.

MAT 421 - Modern Algebra

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 301.

A study of groups, rings, integral domains and fields.

MAT 426 - Advanced Calculus

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 222 and MAT 301.

Set theory, the real number system, metric spaces, continuous functions, differentiation and integration.

MAT 431 - Selected Topics

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

A study of selected topics in mathematics.

MAT 432 - Selected Topics

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

A study of selected topics in mathematics.

MAT 433 - Selected Topics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Instructor's consent.

A study of selected topics in mathematics.

MAT 435 - Introduction to Partial Differential Equations

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 352 or the equivalent

This course covers the development of partial differential equations from special applications and concentrates on the derivation of methods. Parabolic, elliptic, hyperbolic linear equations, and separation of variables are discussed as well as further applications.

[Crosslisted as: MAT 5435

MAT 441 - Methods and Materials for the Teaching of Secondary Mathematics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Math major with at least junior standing in the Teacher Education Program.

This course will acquaint preservice secondary teachers with Common Core State Standards for Mathematics (CCSSM) as well as NCTM Standards and current issues related to teaching secondary mathematics. Emphasis will be placed on using manipulative materials and current available technology to teach mathematics.

MAT 452 - Applied Mathematical Problem Solving

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 222 and instructor's consent.

Various problem solving techniques will be employed. Applications of linear algebra, the calculus sequence, and other undergraduate mathematics courses provide a comprehensive review of these courses. This would be an excellent course for students considering a career in actuarial science.

MAT 453 - Mathematical Statistics

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 353.

This course is a follow-up to MAT 353. Topics include properties of estimators, hypothesis testing, linear regression and analysis of variance.

MAT 455 - Graph Theory

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 222 or instructor's consent.

Graph theory with a wide variety of applications, both to other branches of mathematics and to the real world. Some subjects to be treated are graphs, sub graphs, cycles, trees, matching's, and planar graphs.

MAT 460 - Introduction to Topology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 301.

An introduction to metric spaces and topological spaces. Additional topics include continuous functions, separation axioms, connectedness and compactness.

MAT 471 - Independent Study and Research

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Junior standing and permission of the faculty.

Individual reading and research in pure or applied mathematics.

MAT 481 - Numerical Analysis

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): MAT 381.

This course is a mathematical analysis of scientific computing. Topics covered include the stability and convergence of algorithms, interval arithmetic, fixed point iteration, matrix factorizations, norms, and eigenvalues; iterative solutions to systems. Additional discussions will focus on the design of efficient algorithms for use on parallel computers.

Marcelo Eduardo, Dean

Professor (1997) 601.925.3420 eduardo@mc.edu

Michele Ricker, Assistant Dean

Advisor and Coordinator (2009) 601.925.3925 mricker@mc.edu

History

What is now the School of Business began in 1946 when an instructor was given permission to teach non-credit typing and shorthand courses in the basement of Chrestman Hall. The success in the non-credit courses inspired the institution to appoint a full-time business professor and add several business courses. By 1955, the business department had four full-time faculty members and a major. In the fall of 1959, the institution combined the Department of Business and the Department of Economics into the Division of Business and Economics. After consolidation, the division had 200 majors and five full-time faculty members.

In the early 1960s, the division added accounting courses to its curriculum. Also the division began offering evening courses. Students responded favorably to the additional courses and the evening offerings, and the division began experiencing double-digit growth. In 1964, the institution constructed Self Hall. Most of the building was dedicated to the Division of Business. In 1967, the Division of Business added the Master of Business Administration targeted at metropolitan-area professionals seeking an evening graduate program. The program was an immediate success. The Division of Business continued growing, and in 1975, the Division became the School of Business. All of this was due to the tremendous dedication of Dr. D. Gray Miley.

Mission and Goals

The Mississippi College School of Business mission is to provide a quality business education in a Christian environment.

We serve undergraduate and graduate students from the region providing a setting where Christian values are emphasized through ethical awareness, biblical principles and a supportive faculty.

In this environment, the school seeks to prepare students with a sound understanding of essential business principles, effective communication skills, and an appreciation for social responsibility and ethical values.

The school is committed to academic quality through effective teaching, relevant programs, and faculty scholarship through contributions to practice, learning and pedagogy, and discipline-based research.

Accreditation

Mississippi College, through its School of Business, is nationally accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs to offer the following business degrees:

The Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (B.S.B.A.).

The Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.).

Facilities

The School of Business Administration is housed in Self Hall on the Mississippi College campus. This building was made possible by a grant of funds from the Self Foundation of Marks, Mississippi. The building has the office space, classrooms, seminar rooms, laboratories and equipment necessary to provide the implementation of quality educational programs.

Undergraduate Programs

The School of Business Administration offers programs of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science (B.S.B.A.) in Business Administration. Within this degree, majors are available in Accounting, Business Administration, Entrepreneurship, Finance, and Marketing.

Transfer Student Requirement

At least 50 percent of transfer student's 300-400-level business courses required for their business degree must be taken at Mississippi College.

Double Majors in Business

A student may earn a second major by completing all requirements specified in that field provided both majors are offered within the same degree; ex. both majors must be offered in the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Minors

The School of Business offers minors in Accounting, Business Administration, Entrepreneurship, Finance, International Business, and Marketing, as well as concentrations in MIS and Data Management. Business majors may choose a minor in any of these areas in which they do not major.

European Study

The School of Business at Mississippi College recommends that students utilize their elective courses to study in Europe during the summer through its membership in a consortium. The center in Vienna, Austria, offers a three-week course (3 hours credit) in international business followed by the five-week courses offered in London, England, with an international emphasis in accounting, economics, finance, insurance, management, and marketing (3 to 6 hours credit). The schedule is structured to encourage study in both Vienna and London although students may choose either. Information and applications can be obtained in the Business School Administration Office in Self Hall, Telephone: 601.925.3214.

Certificate Program

The purpose of a certificate program is to provide an area of concentration in the School of Business for individuals with a bachelor's degree. Persons wishing to change their career or acquire additional skills may be interested in this type of program. Upon completion, a certificate will be awarded and recorded on the transcript. A certificate program is offered in accounting.

Graduate Programs

Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.)

The M.B.A. program consists of thirty semester hours of graduate work and is offered online and at night. The program was designed for persons who are working and wish to continue their education.

In addition to the traditional M.B.A. described above, an M.B.A. with an Accounting Concentration is offered for students with an interest in advanced work in the field of accounting. Those planning to take the C.P.A. exam may complete the required courses and hours with this program. An MBA with a Finance concentration is also offered for students with an interest in advanced work in the field of Finance. Also, an MBA with a MIS concentration is offered for students who want to gain a deep understanding of the information systems and computer technologies for organizations to be competitive.

A joint J.D./M.B.A. is offered as an option for Mississippi College School of Law students. It has been designed especially for a person who wishes to complete both degrees while attending law school.

Master of Accountancy (MAcc)

The MAcc consists of thirty semester hours of graduate work and is offered online. The program is designed for persons who seek to further enhance their accounting and analytical skills. The MAcc is also designed to enhance the preparation for taking the CPA examination and earn the additional credit hours required for obtaining a CPA license.

GENERAL ELECTIVES

Sufficient elective hours must be taken to meet the minimum hour requirement for graduation in this program. Electives should be chosen in consultation with advisor.

TOTAL: 130 SEM. HOURS

Note(s):

(A 2.5 GPA in ACC 201 and ACC 202 is a prerequisite for this major.)

Note: Effective February 1, 1995, a minimum of 150 semester hours of university credit is required to take the CPA Examination.

Five-Year BSBA Accounting Degree/MBA/MACC Path

This program is designed for those students who are planning to complete their undergraduate degree in accounting and immediately pursue a Master's degree on their way to meet the 150 semester-hours requirement to take the CPA examination. The Five-Year BSBA/MBA/MACC Path facilitates this pursuit by allowing accounting majors in their senior year to enroll in three (3) hours (1 class) of required upper-level accounting classes and jointly it as a graduate elective. Students using the Five-Year Path may receive up to three (3) hours of graduate school credit by choosing from the following classes during their senior year: ACC 5401 Advanced Accounting I, ACC 5405 Auditing, ACC 5406 Accounting Information Systems, ACC 5407 Governmental Accounting, or ACC 5403 Federal Income Tax. The requirements for the MBAMACC degree, as stated in the graduate catalog, will be followed except that the three (3) hours of graduate electives needed may be satisfied by one of the upper-level accounting courses listed above. Students following this path will only have 27 hours of required graduate courses left to obtain their graduate degree and may complete these requirements in one calendar year.

Students pursuing the Five-Year Path must have at least a 3.0 GPA to be allowed to enroll in the graduate classes their senior year.

Mission

The mission of the Mississippi College School of Education is to provide a caring Christian environment which facilitates the acquisition of knowledge in the behavioral sciences, teaching and learning, and health and human sciences. The School of Education provides the general education, professional studies, field and clinical experience, research skill development, and technological foundation required for each graduate and undergraduate program. These components generate the knowledge, dispositions, and skills necessary to render appropriate services to God and others in a professional environment while meeting all local, state, and national performance standards.

History

The roots of today's School of Education date from the establishment of the Bachelor of Science in Education degree in 1950. This degree was followed by the Master of Education in 1954, the Educational Specialist in 1974, the Doctor of Education in 2008 and the Doctor of Professional Counseling in 2012. The School of Education was formed in 1977 from the Divisions of Education, Psychology, and Physical Education.

The School of Education is housed in Lowrey Hall which was renovated in 2005 and in Cockroft Hall which was completed in 1976. The School of Education has been nationally accredited since 1961. The most recent approval for licensure programs was in 2021 through the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP.) The Counseling Programs at the Master's and Educational Specialist's levels are currently accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling in Related Educational Programs (CACREP) through 2024. The Dyslexia Therapy Program was most recently accredited by the International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council (IMSLEC) in 2017.

The School of Education currently houses the Departments of Counseling, Kinesiology, Psychology, and Teacher Education and Leadership.

Mission

The mission of the Department of Teacher Education and Leadership at Mississippi College is to provide collaborative, integrated professional educator preparation which is field connected and focused on teaching and learning; based on best practice which is driven and assessed by high national, state, and local standards which will develop reflective practitioners with the appropriate knowledge, dispositions and skills to lead the 21st Century enterprise in America.

Program Goals

The underlying purpose of the Department of Teacher Education and Leadership is to further the aim of the University in offering the opportunity for well-rounded higher education in a Christian environment. The general objective is the professional preparation of classroom teachers and the offering of specialized work in educational leadership. The Department of Teacher Education and Leadership is responsible for the preparation of teachers, supervisors, and principals. The University is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education (AACTE) and is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).

Degrees Offered

Five degrees are granted by the University with specialization in education: Bachelor of Science in Education, Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Care and Development, Master of Education, Education Specialist, and Doctor of Education. For the B.S. in Education degree, the student must select an area of specialization approved for teacher licensure by the state of Mississippi. The B.S. in Early Childhood Care and Development is a non-licensure program; therefore, students in this program do not have to be formally admitted to the Teacher Education Program (TEP). This degree is intended to prepare individuals for service as teachers, leaders, and administrators in early childcare settings. Details concerning graduate programs are listed in the Graduate Catalog.

Admission Process to Teacher Education Program

Admission procedures in the Department of Teacher Education and Leadership involve three distinct phases: General Admission to the University; Admission to the Teacher Education Program (TEP); and Admission to Student Teaching.

Stage 1. General Admission:

Students who enroll in the University as an education major will be assigned a faculty advisor. The faculty advisor will review all records and counsel the student in preparation for entrance into the Teacher Education Program.

Stage 2. Admission to the Teacher Education Program (TEP):

Students will apply for admission into the Teacher Education Program (TEP) as part of the course requirements for EDU 300 - Introduction to Education. Transfer students, who have had the course equivalent of EDU 300 at another four year institution, must make application to the TEP in the Office of Field Experiences during their first semester at Mississippi College. No upper level (300 and 400) courses including EDU 300 are accepted in transfer from two year colleges as part of Teacher Education Program requirements. All students applying for entrance into the TEP must:

have successfully completed 44 semester hours of coursework.

have an overall (cumulative) GPA of at least 2.75.

have a minimum GPA of 2.75 in the area(s) of expected licensure.

pass Mississippi College's Writing Proficiency Exam (WPE).

Teacher Education Program Maintenance Requirements

After admission to the TEP, a student must maintain at least a 2.75 cumulative grade point average for progression. A grade of C or better is required in all teacher education courses and teacher education courses may be repeated only one time. Only courses with a grade of D or F may be repeated. A failing grade in any two teacher education courses will result in dismissal from the TEP.

As stated in University Policy, the final 33 hours of all programs should be taken at Mississippi College.

Since standards for progress in the TEP are different from the minimum to avoid academic suspension from Mississippi College, a student who is ineligible to enter or remain in the TEP may still be eligible to remain a student at Mississippi College in another major.

Stage 3. Admission to Student Teaching Semester:

Student teaching assignments are generally restricted to Copiah, Hinds, Lincoln, Madison, Rankin, Warren and Yazoo counties. Requests to student teach outside these areas must be made to the Department's Appeals Committee. Final authority rests with the Department of Teacher Education and Leadership as to the placement of student teachers. Student teaching is to be completed during the senior year after the following requirements have been met. In order to be admitted to Student Teaching Semester the candidate must:

be admitted to the Teacher Education Program for at least one full semester prior to the semester of student teaching.

have completed EDU 299 - Pre-Teaching Field Experience.

have removed any grade(s) of \underline{I} (incomplete).

have at least a 2.75 GPA in the area(s) of expected licensure as well as a cumulative GPA of 2.75.

have completed at least three-fourths of the required courses in his/her area of specialization, (secondary education and students only).

have completed (with a minimum grade of C) all Professional Education courses except EDU 431, EDU 432, EDU 433, and EDU 434 Directed Teaching in 7-12- Reading Pedagogy, (secondary education students only).

have completed (with a minimum grade of C) all Professional Education courses and subject matter courses except EDU 421, EDU 422, EDU 423, and EDU 424 Directed Teaching in K-8 (elementary education students only).

have completed (with a minimum grade of C) all Professional Education and subject matter courses except EDU 471, EDU 472, EDU 473, and EDU 474 Directed Teaching in K-12-Reading Pedagogy (K-12 students only).

Each student is responsible for returning the assigned forms properly completed to the Office of Field Experiences by the assigned date. Applications for student teaching are reviewed by the Director of Field Experiences.

*Students pass Praxis I Core (CASE) which includes Reading, Writing & Mathematics as part of the entrance requirements into the TEP. Students also pass Praxis II which includes the Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) and a specialty area test required for licensure by the Mississippi Department of Education. Elementary Education students must also pass The Foundations of Reading Test for Licensure by MDE • Praxis I Core Case Required Scores as of January 1, 2014: Reading (5713) 156; Writing (5723) 162; Mathematics (5733), 130. Required scores on the Praxis II (PLT and Specialty Area Tests) vary with grade level and content areas.

Students must request that Educational Testing Services (ETS) send a copy of their scores to Mississippi College (Code 1477). It is important that students have their scores sent to the Mississippi Department of Education (Code 7599). Students should keep their original copy in a safe place for future use.

Nature of Student Teaching Program and Extent of Teaching

Every student seeking licensure for teaching in any area will be expected to arrange his/her work so as to devote one semester of the senior year to certain required professional courses which shall include Directed Teaching. A student must have been admitted to the Teacher Education Program before being eligible to enroll in the professional semester. This professional semester for student teachers covers a period of approximately eighteen weeks, including holidays and registration. No coursework other than the 12 hours in the Professional Semester should be taken during the student teaching semester.

Responsibilities of student teachers during the Professional Semester are outlined in the Teacher Education Handbook which students receive when they enroll in EDU 300 - Introduction to Education, as well as the Student Teacher handbook which is available on the Department website

(https://www.mc.edu/academics/departments/education/application/files/4915/9725/7760/Student Teaching Handb ook.8.12.20.pdf) Student teachers receive guidance and instruction from the faculty advisor, university supervisor, and the cooperating teacher.

Background Checks for School Personnel

Although the Mississippi Code does not require student teachers to be fingerprinted and subjected to a criminal records background check, school districts in our service area require this as a part of local schools district policy. Background checks will be required prior to field experiences and student teaching.

Teacher Licensure

Licensure requirements are reviewed periodically by the Mississippi Department of Education; please consult the School of Education for the latest information. Licenses which entitle the holders to teach in the elementary and secondary schools in Mississippi are issued by the Mississippi Department of Education, Office of Educator Licensure, to applicants who complete the requirements for these licenses. Students who complete any of the teacher education programs offered at Mississippi College and pass all required tests are eligible for a standard Mississippi teaching license.

All persons applying for a license for the first time must have necessary test scores on file with the Mississippi Department of Education.

How to Apply for and Obtain the Initial Teaching License

All graduates of Mississippi College who plan to teach in Mississippi must file an application for licensure. Application forms and instructions are available online at the MDE website (https://www.mdek12.org/) or from the Teacher Education and Leadership Office in Lowrey 208.

The graduate who plans to teach in a state other than Mississippi will, after receiving this Mississippi license, secure a license application from the Department of Education of the state in which he or she wishes to teach and will file the completed application form with the Division of Licensure, Department of Education, of that state. If your out-of-state application asks for a section "to be completed by the certification/licensure officer where you completed an approved teacher education program," mail this to the Office of Teacher Education and Leadership at Mississippi College, Box 4009, Clinton, MS 39058.

Elementary Education Licensure

Completion of the basic elementary program at Mississippi College and passing the appropriate MDE prescribed tests qualifies the graduate to receive a standard elementary (K-6) license. Check with the Teacher Education and Leadership Office and/or your advisor to receive the most current licensure requirements. Licensure designations and requirements are subject to change by rulings of the Mississippi Department of Education.

Supplemental Licensure

Certain teacher licensure endorsements may be added to a Class A teaching license. Several supplemental endorsements are available through Mississippi College. These endorsements are sometimes included as part of another licensure program. Supplemental endorsements are more typically pursued by using electives to take the appropriate courses and/or taking additional courses beyond those required for the program major. Supplemental endorsements are also available to those who already hold an undergraduate degree and a valid Class A license. Supplemental licensure is only available to those who are pursuing a degree in elementary or secondary education or who already hold a Mississippi Class A license. Mississippi College offers supplemental endorsement programs in the following areas: comprehensive school health, computer applications, driver education, English as a Second Language (ESL), physical science, remedial reading, vocational preparation for the handicapped (must hold vocational licensure), special education K-6, special education 7-12, and gifted. Consult the appropriate secondary area department or the Department of Teacher Education and Leadership.

ART 481 - Photography I

COM 334 - Digital Storytelling

COM 360 – Social Media Communication

JOU 101 - Journalism Laboratory I

JOU 333 - Journalism I

JOU 334 - Multimedia Journalism

Successful completion (grade "C" or better) of 21 hours of coursework listed above will lead to the additional endorsement in Media Arts added to a standard, Mississippi "A" teaching license. The student will also earn the Media Arts Certificate from Mississippi College

Admission to the Program and other details:

- Students admitted into this certificate program must have completed an undergraduate education program and hold a current "A" teaching license or be enrolled in a teacher education program pursuing the "A" teaching license with MDE.
- Those admitted can return to MC, take any seven courses (21 hours) from the list of ART, COM, and JOU courses and be eligible for a K-12 Media Arts endorsement.
- Courses will be taught by Art, Com, Jou.
- Students will be advised by the Art dept (Dr. Busbea), and recommended for licensing by Teacher Ed

Endorsement

Endorsement in Early Childhood Education (12 hours)

The endorsement in Early Childhood Education consists of 12 hours of undergraduate courses for a candidate seeking a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Mississippi teacher licensure in Grades K-6. This endorsement (153) would add Pre-Kindergarten as an additional area of licensure.

The following courses are required:

PSY 305 - Child Psychology

EDU 320 - Principles and Methods in Early Childhood Education

EDU 425 - Advanced Child Development

EDU 426 - Literacy Instruction for Early Childhood Education

Education Courses

EDU 190 - Foundations of Servant Leadership

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This class will cultivate a strong foundation of servant leadership while fostering a passion for local and global impact. Through engaging lectures, personal research, reading, and group projects, students in this course will develop the groundwork for a servant leadership lifestyle. This course will equip students with the knowledge and skills to begin practicing servant leadership within their chosen fields. Students will be provided opportunities throughout the semester allowing for immediate practical implementation of theories and skills learned.

EDU 250 - Ethical Leadership and Christian Values

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course will study the foundations of Christian ethics particularly as it pertains to contemporary situations for leaders within small groups, organizations, and communities. This course will be application base; students will learn how to identify and remedy ethical issues in their roles as leaders as well as in their future vocations within a Christian lens.

EDU 260 - Leadership Communication

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. The skill of being able to communicate effectively and strategically is crucial to collaborative synergy, no matter what your position is in an organization. This course will explore the kinds of strategic communication used by leaders to influence their teams and their organization. Selected topics will be covered in strategic communication such as vision- and mission-based communication, audience analysis, 360-degree input and feedback, and the comparison of classic communication theories with contemporary literature on strategic communication.

EDU 290 - Leaders and Followers

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course will help students understand the nature in which groups form and develop. Students will learn about intragroup and intergroup dynamics, psychology of leadership and followership, team development, individual strength development, and theoretical concepts of leadership.

EDU 299 - Pre-Teaching Field Experience

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite(s): EDU 300 or consent of Director of Field Experiences.

This course consists of 30 clock hours of laboratory experience in one or more approved schools where the teacher candidate will be involved in guided, active observation of students, teachers, administrators, schools, and communities. In addition, a variety of additional activities will be provided. All experiences are designed to provide students with a realistic view of the teaching profession.

EDU 300 - Introduction to Education

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Sophomore standing.

Corequisite(s): EDU 299.

This course is designed to give students a foundation in the history and philosophy of education, as well as current issues in education. Students apply to the Teacher Education Program (TEP) during this course.

EDU 301 - Methods of Elementary School Teaching

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course is designed to develop an understanding of the ways in which an effective teacher uses various methods to enhance teaching and learning in an elementary classroom.

EDU 304 - Educational Psychology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300 or PSY 201

Emphasis is placed upon psychological principles underlying the process of learning.

[Crosslisted as: PSY 304.]

EDU 309 - Early Literacy I

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300, EDU 301 and junior standing; must be taken concurrently with EDU 334.

This course is designed as a study of concepts, materials and teaching strategies for oral language development and systematic early reading and writing instruction specific to concepts about print, phonemic awareness and phonics. This course will also allow students to study the basic principles and theories of reading instruction at the elementary level. Students will learn about current research findings in reading curricula.

EDU 311 - Social Science for Children

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300, GEO 210, and Social Studies core; admission to TEP.

This course is designed specifically for preservice elementary school teachers, K-8. The emphasis is placed on the teacher's role as decision maker in planning the content of the social studies program, arranging the environment, guiding the learning process, and organizing and managing instruction. Includes Field Experience.

EDU 312 - Science for Children

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300, BIO 145, and science core; admission to TEP.

This course is designed to provide the prospective teacher with the process and product of modern elementary service. The discovery process and hands-on learning are emphasized. Includes Field Experience.

EDU 317 - Introduction to Instructional Technology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. This course is designed as an introduction to instructional technology. Teacher candidates will evaluate, select, integrate and prepare technology for classroom settings.

EDU 320 - Principles and Methods in Early Childhood Education

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): PSY 305.

This course is designed to emphasize the history, theory, trends, principles and curriculum pertinent to the management of a developmental preschool program. It includes the cultural and psychological forces that affect the curriculum and provides students with an opportunity to plan, develop, and execute learning experiences with young children. A two-hour laboratory is required.

EDU 321 - Mathematics for Children

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300, MAT 207, and mathematics core; admission to TEP.

This course involves the teaching of mathematics at all elementary grade levels. Emphasis will be placed on the use of manipulatives to develop conceptual understandings of all mathematics as well as the recommendations of the National Council for Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM). Includes Field Experience.

EDU 334 - Early Literacy II

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): EDU 300 and junior standing; must be taken concurrently with EDU 309.

This course is designed to teach concepts, materials, and teaching strategies for oral language development and early systematic reading and writing instruction specific to vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension. Students will explore materials and techniques for teaching developmental skills and abilities in reading at the elementary level. Emphases will also be placed on diagnosis, prescription, and recent research findings in the area of reading methodology.

EDU 362 - Special Education Practicum I

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite(s): Must be taken concurrently with EDU 455.

This course will be divided into two placements of fifteen hours each. Considering the diversity of special education services, placement will be made based on the skills needed by the students and with teachers who have those skills. During the course of the three field experiences, the student will observe and work with the following populations: developmentally delayed, mild learning problems of elementary students, mild learning problems of middle school or junior high level students, mild learning problems of secondary level students, and learning patterns of moderately disabled students such as those who are trainable mentally retarded and autistic.

EDU 363 - Special Education Practicum II

Credits, 1 sem. hr. Corequisite(s): Must be taken concurrently with EDU 456.

This course will be divided into two placements of fifteen hours each. Considering the diversity of special education services, placement will be made based on the skills needed by the student and with teachers who have those skills. During the course of the three field experiences, the student will observe and work with the following populations: Developmentally delayed mild learning problems of elementary students, mild learning problems of middle school or junior high level students, mild learning problems of secondary level students, and learning patterns of moderately disabled students such as those who are trainable mentally retarded and autistic.

Mission

The Kinesiology Department is dedicated to excellence in academic preparation and continued professional development throughout the lifespan. The department is committed to providing students with the knowledge and skills necessary to pursue their chosen fields. The curriculum is designed to offer students a broad based interdisciplinary education while allowing for in-depth study in a specific area. The kinesiology major focuses on the total development of the individual through the physical, intellectual, social, emotional, and spiritual dimensions of health. The department promotes healthy lifestyle alternatives and provides the skills and services that lead to more productive and satisfying lives.

Program Goals

The curriculum in kinesiology is designed to:

provide quality courses, laboratory experiences, and other educational opportunities that will prepare students for careers and advanced study in the field of kinesiology.

offer courses for the University Core Curriculum that improve and effectively maintain healthy lifestyles.

Majors

The Department of Kinesiology offers seven tracks leading to the Bachelor of Science degree:

Kinesiology-General: Program designed to have broad applications in the fitness, wellness, and sports industries.

Sports Management: Designed to combine liberal arts, kinesiology, and business in a curriculum focused on preparing individuals for careers in the sports industry.

Exercise Science: Provides the theoretical, research, and clinical experiences for careers in preventive and rehabilitative health settings. It also provides students with the basic requirements for most graduate programs in Exercise Science.

Physical Education K-12: Prepares students for a teaching license in physical education. Additionally, students may select a supplemental endorsement or a minor in a subject matter field.

Sports Ministry: Designed for students interested in careers with Christian athletic organizations, or church based sports programs.

Pre Physical Therapy: Program designed to provide students with pre-requisite courses for application to a professional school of physical therapy. Completion of this degree does not guarantee admission to a PT program.

Pre-Occupational Therapy: Program designed to provide students with pre-requisite courses for application to a professional school of occupational therapy. Completion of this degree does not guarantee admission to an OT program.

Minors

The department also offers minors in kinesiology, coaching, and health; a driver education endorsement; and an educator license add-on endorsement in health.

Michael Mann, Department Chair Professor (2005) 601-925-3820 mmann@mc.edu

Support Staff

Danielle Martin Administrative Assistant (2023) 601.925.7800 vmartin@mc.edu

Mission

The mission of the Department of Psychology undergraduate program is to help students learn and apply the vast domain of psychological principles that exist in our world today. The goal is for the student to become an effective scientist-practitioner who can model and apply these psychological principles from a Christian perspective. The department seeks to prepare students for further training and/or entry-level employment into one of the many professional paths available within the discipline.

Admission

Requirements for the undergraduate psychology major:

The undergraduate psychology major is designed primarily as preparation for graduate study, and most graduate schools require at least a 3.00 GPA for admission. Thus, it is not advisable to enter this major without a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher, and one should not continue in the program without maintaining a GPA above 2.5 in the major field. Additional Requirements: Students majoring in psychology should meet with their psychology advisors in selecting appropriate minors and other elective coursework.

Honors Courses

By invitation of the Honors Council; see Junior and Senior Departmental Honors Program section of Undergraduate Catalog.

History

The establishment of the Mississippi College School of Nursing was the realization of a dream of a former president of the University, Dr. Richard A. McLemore. In 1966, the Gilfoy School of Nursing, Baptist Hospital, Jackson, Mississippi, the only Baptist school of nursing in the state, decided to phase out its diploma program in nursing. The program graduated its last class of nursing students in June 1971. Dr. McLemore believed that Mississippi College had the academic competence and Christian environment in which to educate nurses with excellent professional and Christian qualities. Additional impetus for the establishment of the School came when the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention raised its minimum requirement for becoming a missionary nurse to a bachelor of science in nursing degree. In 1968, the Board of Trustees of the University approved the establishment of the Mississippi College School of Nursing, and in 1969, the first class of nursing students was accepted by the University.

MCSON Mission

The mission of the MCSON is to prepare healthcare professionals to care for diverse populations by demonstrating Christian Caring, utilizing informed clinical judgments, and practicing safe client-centered care.

MCSON Program Goals

- 1. Demonstrate core nursing practice values that include Christian caring, compassion, empathy, human dignity, advocacy, professionalism, and life-long learning.
- 2. Utilize essential content from the applied sciences/nursing science to inform clinical judgment(s) in professional nursing practice.

- 3. Demonstrate information technology management skills to provide safe patient care in professional nursing practice.
- 4. Apply servant leadership principles through culturally competent, patient-centered holistic care with individuals, families, and communities across the lifespan.
- 5. Utilize professional and interdisciplinary communication and skills to advocate for safe, evidence-based patient-centered care

Accreditation

The baccalaureate degree program in nursing and the master's degree program in nursing at Mississippi College of Nursing is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, (655 K Street NW, Suite 750, Washington, DC 20001, 202-887-6791).

MCSON programs comply with the Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning (IHL) rules and regulations and uniform standards for accreditation of Schools of Nursing in the State of Mississippi.

Facilities

The School of Nursing is located in Cockroft Hall which provides a central location for nursing faculty offices and classrooms. The Harvey Garrison Jr. Learning Center houses some of the SON teaching and clinical supplies. Simulated patient care stations are in all Cockroft Hall nursing classrooms, the Nursing Annex and in the larger Nursing Skills Center. The audio-visual capacity is augmented by the University's Learning Resources Center located in the Leland Speed Library, and many networked resources can be accessed and streamed online.

Nursing classes are conducted on the Mississippi College campus in Cockroft Hall, the Nursing Annex and Skills Center, and other MC campus locations. The clinical portions of the nursing courses utilize a variety of hospitals and agencies in the Jackson area. Students may also elect learning experiences in other localities within the United States or abroad.

Policies

The school of nursing has policies that are specific to the School of Nursing. Nursing students should review these policies, which involve both academic and non-academic matters. The policies are included in the Student Handbook that is provided to all students meeting criteria to continue into upper division clinical level coursework in the School of Nursing. Students are expected to abide by School of Nursing policies, and failure to do so may result in dismissal from the program.

Criminal Background Checks

MCSON works in accordance with the Mississippi legislative statutes and regulations for health care institutions regarding criminal background checks. Every student must have fingerprints taken, a criminal background check completed within two years, and must affirm each semester that there has been no change in their criminal background clearance. The cost of these requirements will be the student's responsibility. The student must be in compliance with the legislative statutes and hospital policies to participate in clinical experiences.

Substance Abuse and Screenings

Mississippi College School of Nursing is committed to protecting the safety, health, and welfare of its faculty, staff, students, and complying with community of interest requirements that include the needs of patients and staff in clinical agencies. To this end, the School of Nursing prohibits the illicit use, possession, sale, conveyance, distribution and manufacture of illegal drugs, intoxicants, and/or controlled substances in all instances. The School of Nursing requires all students to submit to drug testing under any or all of the following circumstances: upon confirmation of successful completion of criteria for continuation into clinical level coursework in the School of Nursing; random testing; as required by clinical agencies; and for cause. Failure of a drug screen will be dealt with consistently with the policy of the School of Nursing, and may include failure and/or dismissal from the program.

Licensure

Successful completion of all required elements for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree permits the student to make an application to the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX) for RN licensure examination. However, any disciplinary action, arrest, charge, addiction, or impairment may result in denial of licensure as a registered nurse. A criminal background check may be required by state licensure authorities.

Degree Programs

The School of Nursing offers a program of study leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN). The BSN is the basic professional degree for nurses and the foundation for graduate nursing education. The nursing curriculum provides general knowledge in the arts and sciences with specialized content in professional nursing and is required for MC MSN degree applicants. The BSN degree is available through three program tracks: traditional (4-year) or transfer, second-degree accelerated, and RN-BSN completion students.

Curriculum

The nursing curriculum is designed to enable the student to secure a broad foundation in general education with content in professional nursing education. The general education courses aid in broadening understanding of self and others, in enhancing the ability to communicate effectively, and in providing a perspective of the society within which one lives and practices the profession.

An innovative curriculum supports student focus on the integration of faith, simulation, and caring and content themes are reflective of current trends in health care and nursing. Standardized testing benchmarks at each level ensure that students meet national benchmarks in preparation for immediate graduate professional nursing practice and for future health care opportunities. For further information regarding curricula revision, please contact the School of Nursing.

High School Preparation

The recommended high school preparation for a major in Nursing should include 3 units of science, one of which should be chemistry, and 2 units of math, including algebra.

Admission

BSN (Traditional) Students

To enter the School of Nursing, one must first be admitted to Mississippi College and declare a nursing major. Students who complete all the academic and pre-professional requirements are reviewed for continuation in the clinical level of the nursing major. Admission to the University does not guarantee graduation as a nursing major.

The School of Nursing reviews students for academic progression into clinical level courses twice each year; at the beginning of the fall and spring semesters. Nursing students seeking entry into the clinical nursing level of the program need to submit their completed academic and professional documentation to the School of Nursing office by February 1st preceding the fall semester or September 1st preceding the spring semester they wish to enter. Students seeking to move ahead after these dates will be considered on a "space available basis." Students should have completed most core courses prior to seeking permission to move into the clinical level of the nursing major.

Students who have taken all their work at Mississippi College have clinical level places in the nursing program when they meet the minimum academic and professional requirements. Transfer students are encouraged and admitted based upon available class spaces. The total number of hours taken at MC and the grade point average are considered along with the minimum academic and professional requirements in the admission of students.

Candidates with repeats in more than two pre-requisite courses will not be considered for continuation into upper division clinical level nursing. Applicants with no repeats of lower level courses will be given preference over students who have repeated courses. Courses in social and natural science will be reviewed for five (5) year currency unless part of a first undergraduate degree.

Students preparing for entry into the clinical nursing program are enrolled into the "Interdisciplinary Studies - Pre-Nursing" program. Students who successfully meet academic and professional requirements for clinical nursing are moved into the nursing major route

Requirements for Admission for Traditional BSN

The requirements for continuation in the clinical portion of Mississippi College School of Nursing at junior and senior level are:

- 1. Completion of all prerequisite courses with grade C or higher (ENG 101 and ENG 102, nutrition, psychology, developmental psychology, sociology or cross cultural understanding, anatomy & physiology, microbiology, chemistry, statistics, algebra, NUR 100 Professionalism I and NUR 200 Professionalism in Nursing II.
- 2. Students with repeats in more than two prerequisite courses will not be considered for progression into upper division clinical level nursing.
- 3. Successful completion of college core courses or a faculty approved plan for completing these in a timely fashion;
- 4. A cumulative GPA of 2.50 or higher;
- 5. ACT of 21 or an acceptable score on the admission exam (3 attempts permitted).

Consistent with State law for health care providers, and for compliance with clinical agency requirements, criminal background checks and/or drug screenings may be required. Failure to successfully meet requirements for the background check or drug screening may result in denial of admission to or progression within the School of Nursing.

*Note: Admission into clinical level courses in the nursing major for transfer students is competitively based. The requirements listed above are the minimum for admission to the program. Prospective nursing students are strongly encouraged to exceed minimum levels of work, especially in relation to grade point average, grades in the nursing prerequisite courses, and scores on the pre-admissions examination. When there are more qualified applicants than can be accommodated by the faculty and available clinical facilities, the Admissions and Progression Committee will select those most qualified for the positions available. The Committee may take into account any and all aspects of the student's prior educational record in assessing preparation for success in upper division clinical level courses in the nursing program. Careful consideration is given to achievement in prerequisite courses.

Accelerated BSN (ABSN) Second-Degree Students

The accelerated BSN program is for students with a first baccalaureate degree from an accredited university. A direct entry route allows these students to have their first degree accepted and it is cross-walked for core and general education requirements. Specific pre-requisite competencies and the MC Transition to Nursing Practice (ALH 250) course must be met in order to fulfill nursing expectations. ABSN students who do not have a bible course are required to take either the Old Testament or New Testament.

Requirements for admission to the Mississippi College School of Nursing:

- 1. Completion of all prerequisite courses with grade of C or higher (30 credits): nutrition (3), developmental psychology (3), anatomy & physiology (8), microbiology (4), chemistry (3), statistics (3), Bible (3), and ALH 250 Transition to Health Care Professions (3)
- 2. Students with repeats in more than two pre-requisite courses (listed above) will not be considered for progression into upper division clinical level nursing.
- 3. A cumulative GPA of 2.8 or higher.
- 4. Successful completion of college core courses based on degree from an accredited liberal arts college or university (must have a first undergraduate degree)
- 5. ACT of 21 or an acceptable score on the admission exam.

Please note that ABSN programming is delivered over four (4) consecutive semesters of full-time campus-based study and requires clinical placements with approved agency partners. Students who qualify for ABSN enrollment must apply for a specific fall or spring intake that follows the completion of prerequisite courses. Students who, following program start, prefer to complete the program in a "traditional" format (not compressed) must submit a letter of request to the SON main office for a change in the plan of study. The designation of ABSN is confirmed through pre-admission entry requirements, and this designation is not altered by a modification to the plan of study.

RN-BSN Completion Students

Advanced placement in the nursing major is available to the registered nurse who is a graduate of a state-approved diploma or associate degree program. Mississippi College School of Nursing is committed to providing opportunities for educational advancement for working registered nurses through online delivery of courses and flexible clinical experiences that allow nurses to complete their BSN in as little as 12 months.

Mississippi College's 100% online RN to BSN program is designed to develop compassionate and knowledgeable nurse leaders who will help transform health care. Designed specifically for working RNs, our CCNE-accredited program is flexible, affordable, and convenient. Students may also request to complete RN-BSN coursework in a mixed campus/hybrid format.

The registered nurse student must meet the minimum admission requirements for Mississippi College, and must have access to a personal computer and internet services.

MC RN to BSN online Requirements (See SON website for a complete list of requirements and helpful links to application resources):

- 1. Complete an M.C. application and pay $25 application fee
- 2. Have a 2.0 GPA
- 3. Submit official transcripts from all previous institutions attended
- 4. Possess a current unrestricted registered nurse license in state of residence
- 5. Have fingerprinted criminal background clearance for clinical practice in state of residence

TOEFL Admission Criteria Specifications for the School of Nursing

A certain level of English proficiency is necessary for academic success in nursing as well as for patient safety. In addition to Mississippi College's English proficiency requirements, all applicants to the School of Nursing whose first language is not English (including international and/or U.S. residents) must meet additional requirements. Students who have a first degree from a program with English as the primary language may provide documentation to request exemption from the TOEFL requirement.

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is required of all applicants to clinical level courses in the School of Nursing whose first language is not English, with the exception of licensed practical nurses and registered nurses who hold current United States LPN or RN licensure. (LPN and RN students may be required to take the TOEFL / IELTS or other testing before or during the course of the program, if so recommended by the Dean and/or School of Nursing faculty instructors).

Minimum TOEFL Scores for Consideration of Admission:

To be considered for continuation into clinical level courses in the School of Nursing, applicants must achieve minimum scores on the TOEFL Internet-based test (TOEFL iBT) of:

Minimum Cumulative Score of:

83 combined (6.5 IELTS banding)

AND Minimum Individual Scores of 18, with target scores of:

26 in Speaking

20 in Writing

20 in Reading

20 in Listening

In comparison, the paper-based TOEFL of 550 is required, 213 or better on the computer-based TOEFL, or 83 overall.

Test Preparation and Registration

TOEFL iBT Registration:

Complete information on the TOEFL iBT, including free test preparation materials, testing sites, and registration, is available online at https://www.ets.org/toefl/. Applicants may register for the TOEFL iBT by Internet, telephone (1-800-468-6335) or mail.

To request official TOEFL iBT scores to be sent to Mississippi College, School of Nursing, enter Institution Code 79577. Students who have taken previous versions of the TOEFL (computer-based or paper-based tests) should contact the School of Nursing at 601-925-3380.

Only official score reports will be accepted. TOEFL scores are valid for two years from the test date (see score information online).

Policy for Continuing Nursing Students

Nursing students in the clinical portion of the nursing program whose first language is not English should be aware that they may not be able to complete the program of study within the described time frame. Individual advising is available and is directed toward student success.

Current students who have difficulty in the program may be encouraged to take extra steps (e.g., enroll half-time in nursing courses, participate in ESL courses or activities) in an effort to increase the probability of their success in the program and on the certifying examinations.

Financial Information

Detailed financial information is located in the Financial Information section of the Undergraduate Catalog. Further information regarding Nursing Scholarships may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid.

For nursing majors taking clinical courses, the costs of uniforms, annual physical examinations, assessment supplies, malpractice insurance, standardized tests, NCLEX Review, professional association fees and a charge per semester hour of clinical work are in addition to the standard university tuition, fees, lab/simulation fees, and books. Some courses may require that students use their personal cars or share rides with fellow students. A personal laptop computer is strongly recommended as electronic resources are integrated in classroom, personal study assignments and testing

Advising

The Dean of the School of Nursing or a designated faculty member acts as general advisor to all nursing majors and to students who have not yet been formally admitted to the nursing program. Faculty advisors counsel students regarding academic concerns, adjustment to university life, and professional goals.

Class Attendance

Students in the nursing major are subject to Mississippi College and the School of Nursing rules regulating class attendance and absences as outlined in the Undergraduate Catalog under Attendance Regulations and the School of Nursing Handbook. Attendance in class and clinical laboratory is required and students are expected to attend regularly and to be on time to all learning experiences.

Off-Campus Credit

The Dean of the School of Nursing reserves the right to determine whether any course from another institution will be accepted toward a degree in nursing at Mississippi College.

Academic Standards Specific to the Nursing Major

Clinical level upper division students must maintain at least a 2.0 cumulative grade point average for progression. A grade of C or better is required in all nursing courses and nursing courses may be repeated only one time. The failure of any two theory or clinical courses will result in dismissal from the nursing program. Specific progression policies may be found in the School of Nursing student handbook. There is a five-year time limit that applies to all courses in the nursing major. Any student, for whatever reason, who does not graduate within a five-year time period may be required to repeat any nursing course taken more than five years previously. Students are required to complete all nursing courses within their course sequence and must repeat any clinical course when the HESI benchmark is not met. The HESI benchmark levels are 800 for NUR 386, and 850 for NUR 390, NUR 406 and NUR 433.

Since minimum standards for progression in the nursing major are different from the minimum to avoid suspension from Mississippi College, a student who becomes ineligible to enter or remain in the nursing major may still be eligible to remain a student at Mississippi College in another major.

Graduation Requirements for Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.)

The general requirements for the bachelor's degree in Nursing are:

An 850 score on the HESI comprehensive RN Exit Exam® is required to fulfill the course requirements for NUR 433. Students receiving an incomplete in the course will be permitted to retake the HESI comprehensive RN Exit Exam® at their expense until they have achieved the 850 benchmark. Students may participate in pinning and graduation with this course incomplete but will not receive their diploma until the incomplete has been removed.

A total of 130 semester hours of university work. No more than 6 semester hours earned by correspondence or extension courses, and no more than a total of 30 hours of non-residence work (including correspondence or extension courses, credit by examination, credit for specialized training in the armed forces) can be applied toward meeting requirements for graduation. The last 33 semester hours must be taken in residence at Mississippi College. A maximum of 65 sem. hours learned at a junior/ community college can be applied toward a degree at Mississippi College.

Compliance with the general graduation requirements of Mississippi College.

A grade of C or higher in each nursing course.

The School of Nursing reserves the right to withhold a degree of any student deemed unsuitable for the practice of nursing.

Further information pertaining to graduation may be found in the Academic Information section of the Undergraduate Catalog.

Honors Courses

By invitation of the Honors Council; see Junior and Senior Departmental Honors Program section of Undergraduate Catalog.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Accelerated Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.)

The accelerated BSN program is for students with a first baccalaureate degree from an accredited university. The accelerated nursing (second degree) program at Mississippi College is 4 semesters in length and leads to a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. The curriculum consists of a first degree from an accredited liberal arts university, 30 hours of nursing pre-requisite courses, and 60 hours of upper division nursing courses. All nursing pre-requisite courses must be completed before admission to the nursing major. The ALH 250 Transition to Nursing Practice class must be completed within 12 months of commencing clinical courses.

Students must plan for full time study and the compressed timeframe for this rigorous program. Accelerated does not mean abbreviated and the full curricular plan is addressed to meet the required BSN competencies. All Accelerated Bachelor of Science in Nursing students are required to complete 30 hours of general education that includes at least 3 hours from each of the following areas: humanities/fine arts, social/behavioral sciences, and natural science/mathematics. Students who do not meet the general education requirements stated above with their first degree coursework, may be required to complete coursework that is in addition to the designated nursing program prerequisites. Students seeking Latin Honors must complete a minimum of 65 hours at M.C.

NUR 461 - School Nursing Certification Preparation

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Requires BSN degree and current unencumbered RN license in MS and are currently employed by a MS public school district.

This course focuses on the specialty practice of school nursing and the needs/legal requirements for school-based health are explored. Special emphasis will be given to acute/chronic student health needs and on professional leadership development in school nursing practice that meets NCSN certification benchmarks.

NUR 462 - Reading and Research for Honors II

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Completion of NUR 361. GPA of a least a 3.25 and approval by honors council and faculty to continue the honors track

This course will enable the student to carry out the investigative work associated with their Honors research project. This course will build on the research proposal constructed in NUR 361. The student will use the methodology that was put forward to gather the data required to complete the research project. The results of the research project will be written up along with the discussion and implications of the project for professional nursing practice. This is considered to be the "Directed" phase of the research project proposal.

NUR 463 - Reading and Research for Honors III

Credits, 2 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Completion of NUR 462. GPA of a least a 3.25 and approval by honors council and faculty to continue the honors track.

This course will enable the student to carry out the defense of the research project they completed in NUR 462. This is considered to be the "Defense" phase of the research project.

NUR 473 - Nursing Care of the Older Adult

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Senior standing in the nursing major and Permission of the Instructor to take this course..

This course focuses on utilization of the nursing process in providing nursing care to older adults.

NUR 475 - Topics in Nursing History

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): Senior standing in the nursing major and Permission of the Instructor to take this course..

This course focuses on the analysis and evaluation of nursing history from ancient to modern times.

[Crosslisted as: ALH 475

NUR 477 - Spiritual Aspects of Nursing

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): NUR 324 or NUR 382 or NUR 386

In this course the relationship between spirituality, religion, and the health care system are analyzed. Students explore the spiritual dimensions of nursing.

NUR 482 - Synthesis-RN

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): NUR 324 This course will be taken in the last semester of the nursing program and requires transcript clearance for registration.

Corequisite/Prerequisite NUR 324 and Admission to nursing program

Allows the student to integrate research, leadership, community, policy, finance, ethics, and Christian caring into a final project that will demonstrate role acquisition of the baccalaureate prepared nurse.

NUR 483 - Health Care Terminology

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite(s): None.

This course is designed for the student who is interested in a health care career or a career or a career that requires clear understanding and communication with a health care professional. This course will offer instruction in development and practical application of the terminology and vocabulary associated with health care.

[Crosslisted as: ALH 483

NUR 484 - Behavioral/Mental Health Nursing

Credits, 5 sem. hrs Prerequisite(s): NUR 390 and NUR 379

Corequisite(s): NUR 428

This didactic and clinical course focuses on concepts and skills necessary to apply the clinical reasoning process to provide safe, quality, client centered care to clients/families experiencing behavioral mental health issues. (3 hours theory, 2 hours clinical)

Fee: (Courses including clinical or lab components will have extra fees.)

NUR 491 - Field Studies

Credits, 1 sem. hr.

NUR 492 – Field Studies

Credits, 2 sem. hrs.

NUR 493 – Field Studies

Credits, 3 sem. hrs.

Interdisciplinary Studies

Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) is a program that includes specific classes, certain majors, and a degree program. IDS allows students to declare a major as soon as they commence study at Mississippi College, even though they may be uncertain of their final area of concentration. Students who declare an Interdisciplinary Studies major are assigned an IDS advisor and continue on a directed pathway to fulfill the requirements for graduation from the institution.

Courses

Certain courses are listed as IDS because of their interdisciplinary nature. An example is IDS 111 Studies Skills.

Interdisciplinary Studies Courses

IDS 111 - Foundations for University Success

Credits, 1 sem. hr. This course is designed to encourage productive attitudes and effective study skills in students. The course includes individual and group counseling, the assessment of study skills and learning styles, and the presentation and practice of such skills as time management, listening, note-taking, test-taking, and textbook reading.

IDS 112 - Foundations for University Success II

Credits, 1 sem. hr. This course is a continuation of Study Skills I with more emphasis on reading skills.

IDS 161 - Freshman Honors

Credits, 3 sem. hr. Active study and discussion of issues of contemporary interest, determined each year by the Honors College Committee.

IDS 261 - Sophomore Honors

Credits, 2 sem. hr. Active study and discussion of issues of contemporary interest, determined each year by the Sophomore Honors Team. Grading will be on a credit-no credit basis as determined by the Honors Team.

IDS 464 - Senior Honors

Credits, 3 sem. hr. Active study and discussion of issues and topics of contemporary interest, determined each year by the Senior Honors Team. Grading will be on a credit-no credit basis as determined by the Honors Team. The grade of credit or no credit carries no grade points and thus does not affect the grade point average.

IDS 491 - Field Studies: Servant Leadership

Credits, 3 sem. hrs. Supervised study through independent field experience in a leadership role.

Majors

Some majors, such as IDS Undecided and IDS pre-nursing exist under the IDS umbrella while students are taking college core.

Degree

At the advice of a major department and with agreement from the Assistant Provost of Student Success, a student may choose the IDS degree program. The details are given below, following the University Core.

University Core - Chapel

Students at Mississippi College are required to complete chapel requirements based on the student classification at the time of enrollment as detailed below:

Freshman (0-23 semester hours) 4 semesters
Sophomore (24-53 semester hours) 3 semesters
Junior (54-83 semester hours) 2 semesters
Senior (84 or more semester hours) 1 semester

Students enrolled in online degree programs are exempt from chapel requirements.

IDS Degree Program Major Requirements (54-63 Hours)

Students complete the program coursework in the Interdisciplinary Studies Degree by selecting, in consultation with their advisor, three defined minors from the Mississippi College undergraduate catalog. Interdisciplinary Studies Degree students will identify one of the three minors as a "preferred" or "concentration" area. Because different minors at the University require varying numbers of hours (usually between 18 and 21 hours), different combinations of programs may result in varying numbers of program hours. Coordination by, and communication with, the Interdisciplinary Studies advisor is thus crucial in successfully completing this degree program. To meet graduation requirements, students must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.0 in each of the minor areas, as well as an overall cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.

CONCENTRATION AREA (18-21 HOURS)

Students choose one of the minors at the University as a preferred area of study. See the various academic departmental information for available minors.

SUPPLEMENTAL AREA (18-21 HOURS)

Students must choose a second minor program from the available minors at the University. See the various academic departmental information for available minors.

SUPPLEMENTAL AREA (18-21 HOURS)

Students must choose a third minor program from the available minors at the University. See the various academic departmental information for available minors.

General Electives

Sufficient elective hours must be taken to meet the minimum hour requirement for graduation in this program. Electives should be chosen in consultation with the advisor. Special attention should be paid to the requirement that "at least one-third of the academic work which a student takes in meeting requirements for graduation with a bachelor's degree must be in junior-senior level courses (courses numbered 300-400)." Thus, in a 130-hour program, at least 39 hours must be taken at the 300- or 400-level. See Academic Information, General Degree Requirements for Graduation section of the undergraduate catalog.

History and Purpose

Mississippi College was authorized to offer work leading to a graduate degree in 1950, and courses were offered on a systematized basis for the first time in the summer of 1950. Enrollment growth in this area, as well as increased enrollments in the undergraduate areas, led to a reorganization of the academic structure in which departments were assigned to divisions with a chairman for each division. At that time (1961) the Division of Graduate Studies came into being. In 1975 the Division was elevated to the Graduate School. The School is administered by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Graduate School is to promote and support quality graduate education within academic departments. The Graduate School in cooperation with the Graduate Faculty establishes policies and procedures which support quality research, scholarly activities, and advanced learning techniques among departments which offer graduate degrees. The Graduate School shares mutual responsibilities with departments to prepare students to conduct research, to produce creative work, to develop analytical skills and to perform successfully in their chosen professions.

Accreditation

Accreditation is an important assurance to the university student. Mississippi College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award bachelors, masters, education specialist degrees, and doctoral degrees. Degree-granting institutions also may offer credentials such as certificates and diplomas at approved degree levels. Questions about the accreditation of Mississippi College may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, by calling 404-679-4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website (https://www.sacscoc.org/). Accreditation by The American Chemical Society, The American Council on Teacher Education, The Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs, The National Association of Schools of Music, The National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, and The National League for Nursing testifies not only to the quality, but also to the variety of the University's instructional program. The Mississippi College School of Law is accredited by the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools.

The Graduate Faculty

The burden of achieving quality education rests largely upon the teaching staff. Mississippi College's faculty is dedicated to teaching. A high percentage of faculty hold earned doctorates. Mississippi College professors are competent, serious about their work and interested in their students. Although many are engaged in research and other types of professional work outside the classroom, they consider teaching to be their highest priority.

The School of Law

Mississippi College School of Law began as a dream of the late Dr. D. M. Nelson, who served as president of the university from the depression years until 1957. During his tenure, Mississippi College moved from a struggling all-male, liberal arts institution to a strong, co-educational university that would serve as the foundation for a university system. By the early 1950s, Dr. Nelson was already predicting that the university would one day boast of a law school located near the state capitol.

It was not until 1969, however, that Dr. Nelson's prophecy moved closer to reality when Mississippi College and others independent of the university undertook a study as to the feasibility of establishing a quality law school in the central part of the state. Those studies led to the conclusion that an accredited law school was needed in the state capital of Mississippi, and Mississippi College was the logical institution to undertake the task of establishing one. In the fall of 1975, the law school officially opened its doors, with the convening of its first classes on the main campus in Clinton. A number of outstanding practitioners and leaders of the state bar were recruited to serve as faculty, and the school immediately began the task of obtaining ABA approval. Within five years, the goal of obtaining accreditation had been reached and the school moved into its permanent facility located in the center of downtown Jackson. The development of the law school since 1980 has been remarkable. Achievement of accreditation and membership in the Association of American Law Schools made possible the expansion of both faculty and student recruitment on a national scale, thus moving the school toward its goal of building a strong, regional law school. As a result, the school now has a well-recognized faculty with a rich diversity in both professional and educational backgrounds and many members who have national reputations in their specialties. The student body is equally diverse and is drawn primarily from the southeastern United States.

The law school's success has been reflected in state and regional recognition it has received through its law review, outstanding performances by its appellate and trial teams, student participation in inter-law school organizations, graduate placement in prestigious positions, and selections of its graduates for judicial and political positions.

Admission to the School of Law

The faculty of the law school annually sets the admissions standards for the Doctor of Jurisprudence program. These standards are based primarily on the undergraduate grade point average, the LSAT or GRE score, and personal or academic achievements and honors. As a general rule, a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited four-year college or university is a prerequisite for admission. However, a limited number of Mississippi College students who have demonstrated exceptional academic ability may combine undergraduate work with law school work to receive in six years a bachelor's degree and a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree. These students are permitted to spend the senior undergraduate year as full-time law students accumulating credit toward their undergraduate and law degrees simultaneously. At the end of the first year of successful law study, the undergraduate degree may be awarded. A student desiring such an arrangement should consult with the Provost. A law student may also participate in Mississippi College's joint JD/MBA program and earn both degrees.

In order for an applicant's candidacy to be considered by the Admissions Committee, the individual's admissions file must be complete. A completed file consists of the following:

- 1. A completed application The application is completed online through the Law School Admission Service (LSAC). For more information, applicants should visit_https://www.lsac.org/
- 2. An LSAT/CAS report Every applicant must take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) or GRE (Graduate Record Examination) and register with the Credential Assembly Service (CAS), a transcript evaluation service, prior to being considered for admission.

An LSAT score obtained more than five years before an application is made to law school will not be considered.

Applicants who apply with a GRE score only must still register with CAS; however, CAS does not transmit GRE scores to the law school. Applicants must mail their GRE scores directly to the law school's Admissions Office.

3. Letters of recommendation are optional but are encouraged. It is preferred that letters of recommendation be submitted by individuals who are familiar with a candidate's academic ability. They should be mailed directly to the law school's Admissions Office or received through CAS Letter of Recommendation Service. If you choose to use the Letter of Recommendation Service included in your CAS registration, follow the directions for submitting letters outlined on the LSAC website.

Requirements are subject to change without notice.

Applications are received from September 1 of the year preceding entry until July 15 prior to fall registration or until the class closes. Candidates are encouraged to submit their applications and complete their files as early as possible. When an applicant is accepted, a $250 deposit must be received by April 1 or within two weeks of receipt of notification of acceptance, whichever is later. However, in order to assure a place in the entering class, the applicant may send the deposit any time after acceptance. A second deposit of $350 must be received by June 1. Upon enrollment, both nonrefundable deposits are credited to the applicant's tuition. For additional information see the Law School website at http://www.law.mc.edu/.

Several schools at Mississippi College have a 3/3 arrangement with the law school that will allow students to be admitted to the law school early and have their first year of law school count for their senior undergraduate year. Check with your department to determine if you are eligible to participate.

History of Mississippi College

About Mississippi College

Mississippi College is an accredited comprehensive university affiliated with the Mississippi Baptist Convention. Its academic programs of liberal arts and sciences and professional studies are dedicated to the pursuit of academic excellence. The Board of Trustees is elected by the Convention for three-year terms, and its members serve on a rotating basis. The University receives support from the Mississippi Baptist Cooperative Program, alumni and friends of the University, corporations, endowment income, and student fees.

Vision Statement

Mississippi College seeks to be known as a university recognized for academic excellence and commitment to the cause of Christ.

The Early Years

Mississippi College, the oldest institution of higher learning in the Magnolia State, traces its roots to the early 19th century, less than a decade after Mississippi became a state. In 1826, the state legislature issued a charter to Hampstead Academy, located on a five-acre tract of land in central Mississippi near the Mount Salus community. The property was part of the six million acres transferred to the United States by the Choctaw Nation in 1820.

At the time the institution was chartered, land was selling for $1.25 per acre, America was celebrating its 50th birthday, John Quincy Adams was U.S. president, and the growing nation had a population of just more than 9.6 million.

By the time the school opened in January 1827, Hampstead Academy had been renamed Mississippi Academy. Classes, including rhetoric, were offered to both boys and girls. The first building on campus, known for decades as the "academic edifice," contained four "handsome" rooms, each with two fireplaces. The building was large enough to accommodate 150-200 students.

The academy was renamed Mississippi College in 1830. It was authorized "to confer . . . such degrees in the arts, sciences, and languages as are usually conferred in the most respectable colleges in the United States . . . "

As a private, coeducational institution, Mississippi College made history in December 1831 when it became the first college in the nation to grant a degree to a woman. This first group of female graduates received gold medallions. The college continued to teach both men and women until 1850 when the school's Female Department was discontinued. Women's higher education returned to Clinton three years later when Central Female Institute, eventually renamed Hillman College, opened a short distance from the MC campus.

In 1842, Mississippi College was given to the Presbyterian Church, which operated the institution for eight years until financial issues prompted the denomination to return it to its original owners. In 1850, the Mississippi Baptist Convention acquired Mississippi College, making it the second-oldest Baptist educational institution still operating in America today. MC continued its growth throughout the next decade, adding the landmark now known as Provine Chapel, which opened its doors in 1860.

The Civil War and Beyond

The Civil War brought tumultuous times to Mississippi, the town of Clinton (formerly Mount Salus), and Mississippi College. A large group of MC students, three faculty members, a trustee, and local citizens from Clinton organized a military company known as the Mississippi College Rifles. The company boarded a train for Corinth in the early days of the war and participated in a lengthy series of battles, primarily in northern Virginia. Sadly, only a few members of the group returned home alive.

The college kept its doors open during the war years, maintaining an average enrollment of about 30 students. As Union troops crisscrossed central Mississippi, the campus was used by General Ulysses S. Grant and his men. The newly constructed chapel became a hospital for wounded troops, and tradition states the ground floor of the two-story structure was used by Grant as a stable for his horses.

Today, Provine Chapel remains the oldest building on the Clinton campus, housing the classrooms and offices of the Department of Christian Studies, and serving as the site for Christmas concerts by the Mississippi College Singers and as a classic venue for weddings year-round.

When the war ended, Mississippi College faced numerous challenges. Its endowment had been wiped out, its physical plant was deteriorating, and many of its students had left to fight in the war. Nevertheless, under the leadership of President Walter Hillman, the institution was restored.

Hillman's administration was followed by the presidencies of Dr. Warren Webb, Dr. W.T. Lowery, and Dr. J.W. Provine. These men oversaw a continuing resurgence at the college, including the construction of new buildings, the redevelopment of the school's endowment, and enrollment growth. During the Provine presidency, enrollment stood at 400 students, and the endowment reached more than $500,000.

The Early 20th Century

Shortly after the turn of the century, work began on what would become another campus landmark: Jennings Hall. When it opened in 1907, the building was considered among the most elegant residence halls in the South. It provided meals in a well-furnished dining hall, it was heated with steam, and its residents bragged that there was electric light in every room.

While Jennings Hall is no longer being used as a dormitory, students and visitors continue to enjoy its beautiful central courtyard and fountain. The stately building has been renovated to provide classrooms and faculty offices for English, history, sociology, and modern languages.

Another familiar sight, Alumni Hall, was built during the prosperous years of the 1920s. The multipurpose facility, which opened its doors in 1925 as the University prepared to mark its centennial, is now home to the student mailroom, the student counseling center, conference rooms for the Board of Trustees, a food court, and a student gathering spot, boasting large flat-screen TVs.

After years of financial stability, adversity returned to Mississippi College, American higher education in general, and the nation in 1929 with the arrival of the Great Depression. The financial collapse brought widespread poverty to millions, and its effects lingered for more than a decade. At times, MC students found creative ways to continue their education, even making tuition payments with a wagonload of potatoes. In addition to monetary contributions, the college welcomed gifts of land, houses, and other resources to help it survive.

The institution's neighbor, Hillman College, was not as fortunate. While it had prospered throughout the late 1920s, even constructing two brick cottages for a dozen female students and one faculty member on its campus, the small women's school did not survive the Great Depression. Hillman closed its doors and consolidated its operations with Mississippi College in 1942.

Post-World War II

The return of many education-seeking WWII veterans from overseas battles, combined with the influx of women students, brought an enrollment boom to Mississippi College. A growing number of students brought the need for more learning and living space, and new buildings were added to the Clinton campus to meet that need.

Nelson Hall, the cornerstone of the University, which serves as the hub of its administrative offices and houses its main auditorium, was built in 1948. Additional dormitories and classroom buildings soon followed, including Ratliff Hall; the B.C. Rogers Student Center; the Leland Speed Library; Aven Hall, which houses the Departments of Communication, Music, and Art; and Self Hall, home to the MC School of Business.

More recent additions to the Clinton campus include the Hederman Science Building; Cockroft Hall, which is shared by the School of Nursing and the Department of Kinesiology; the A.E. Wood Coliseum, the University's basketball arena and the setting for degree ceremonies; and new sports facilities for baseball and football.

The University expanded its educational offerings when it opened the Mississippi College School of Law in downtown Jackson in 1975, just one year short of its 150th birthday.

From new buildings and new academic programs to successful fundraising drives, hiring award-winning faculty, and employing the latest technology, Mississippi College experienced tremendous advances under the leadership of presidents D.M. Nelson, R.A. McLemore, Lewis Nobles, and Dr. Howell Todd.

Todd's administration was committed to preparing Mississippi College for the 21st century. As part of that mission, he targeted a number of physical improvements that would maintain and replicate the MC campus's architectural character. Renovations and remodeling projects for Latimer-Webb, Mary Nelson, and Whittington residence halls were completed, while Self, Farr, and Aven Halls were also renovated. A multimedia language lab was added to Jennings Hall, and soundproof practice rooms for music students were installed in Aven Hall. New residence halls for men and women, a 106,000-square-foot health facility, and a math, computer science, and chemistry complex were also constructed. MCNet, a campus-wide computer network, was installed to offer a communications link and Internet access to all administrators, faculty, staff, and students.

Entering the 21st Century

As the new century began, Todd's seven-year tenure as the University's president ended with his retirement in June 2001. The Board of Trustees appointed Dr. Lloyd Roberts, vice president for business affairs and professor of management, to serve as interim president until a new leader could be found.

On July 1, 2002, Dr. Lee G. Royce, the former president of Anderson University in South Carolina, became the 19th president of Mississippi College. That same year, the institution successfully completed the $100 million "New Dawn" capital campaign. Begun in 1996, the project was the largest financial campaign in school history. With Royce at the helm, Mississippi College saw steady growth in enrollment, revitalization of its facilities, and extraordinary levels of giving. The student population climbed from just more than 3,200 to almost 5,300 students. That enrollment included an increase in the number of international students.

A five-year, $65 million campaign to boost student scholarships, build the University's endowment, enhance its facilities, and strengthen its academic programs began in 2006. Despite a weak U.S. economy, the Board of Trustees increased the goal to $80 million. The faith of the members of the Board was confirmed in fall 2011, when the "Growing the Vision" campaign concluded, having raised $87.4 million.

The University's doctoral programs in educational leadership and professional counseling also added new students. MC made history in August 2011, when it awarded its first educational leadership doctorate to a Jackson elementary school principal.

MC continued to enhance its academic offerings with the addition of new programs. Begun in 2011, the Physician Assistant program is the first of its kind in the Magnolia State. The two-and-a-half-year Master of Science in Medicine program enrolled 90 students. Based in newly renovated facilities at the Baptist Healthplex, the program works closely with the University of Mississippi Medical Center and federal clinics and hospitals in the region to train professionals to work under the supervision of physicians. P.A. program graduates play critical roles in easing the medical care shortages in underserved areas of the state and nation. The first class, consisting of 29 students, graduated in December 2013.

While undergraduates continue to take advantage of the London Semester program, the Mississippi College School of Law offers overseas study programs in Germany, France, Mexico, China, and Korea. MC Law also offers students the opportunity to participate in moot court competitions, having sent 26 teams to regional/national competitions in recent years.

Mississippi College's extensive list of building projects includes a new front entrance to Robinson-Hale Stadium, a new soccer complex, and a baseball facility. New athletic facilities helped MC transition to NCAA Division II athletics, as it returned to the Birmingham-based Gulf South Conference in fall 2014. Adding to the building renaissance: a three-story parking garage, a prayer garden outside Alumni Hall, and a bookstore next door to Pimento's café in Olde Towne Clinton. Overlooking MC's hometown on a hilltop sits the Phillips House, a new residence for the MC president. The new medical sciences building opened in January 2013 and includes classrooms, a cadaver lab, and the latest research facilities.

Other notable construction projects include the August 2015 opening of the University Place residence halls. Costing $16 million, the eight three-story units house 189 students.

The Mississippi College community has welcomed an all-star lineup of prominent national speakers for its spring scholarship dinners. New Orleans Saints quarterback Drew Brees spoke at the 2019 dinner, and renowned country music artist Reba McEntire participated in the 2022 event. Since 2008. the University's signature event has raised more than $4.1 million for student scholarships. MC's impact on the local economy remains strong, with more than a $75 million budget, more than 500 employees, and net assets exceeding $172 million.

National and state recognition continues for Mississippi College. The fall 2017 issue of "U.S. News & World Report" ranked MC No. 12 as a Best Value School among the South's regional universities; MC was ranked the No. 1 online Christian college in the U.S. by onlinechristiancolleges.com in summer 2019; "The Wall Street Journal" lauded MC as the best private college in Mississippi in fall 2019; Intelligent.com named MC the Best Christian Institution of Higher Learning in the state in fall 2022; WalletHub ranked MC as the state's best college and university, public or private, at the most reasonable cost to graduates in fall 2022; and the national Military Friendly© program once again selected MC as a Military Friendly© Silver School for the 2023-24 Military Friendly© Cycle.

Royce retired in late June 2018 after 16 extraordinary years leading the Christian University. He and his wife, Rhoda, moved to Northern Virginia. The Lee Royce Medical Science Center along College Street was named in his honor, while the Rhoda Royce Prayer Garden near Alumni Hall was named as a tribute to MC's former First Lady.

Dr. Blake Thompson became the University's 20th president on July 1, 2018. Inaugurated in March 2019 as MC's 20th president, Thompson's diverse background includes leadership in higher education, international research, and the U.S. government. The MC presidency represents a homecoming for Thompson and his wife, Jana, both raised in the small community of Rienzi, Mississippi.

Thompson was formerly vice president and secretary to the Board of Trustees at Ohio State University. He had several leadership positions at 66,000-student OSU, one of the largest universities in the country. Thompson served as vice president for economic and workforce development, led the university's Science and Technology Campus, and spearheaded the development of the endowed Battelle Center for Science and Technology Policy.

In addition to his duties with OSU, Thompson had a joint vice-presidential appointment with Battelle, the world's leading nonprofit research and development organization. He also served in Washington, D.C., as a senior staffer to the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee and to the late Sen. Thad Cochran. The Thompsons, who operate a blueberry farm in North Mississippi, are both graduates of the University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy. Thompson received three degrees in pharmaceutical sciences from the University of Mississippi, including his doctorate. He has an executive master's degree from the Georgetown University School of Business. The Thompsons have three children: Grey, Sarah Blake, and Cate.

During the early stages of the Thompson era, MC enrollment climbed to 5,138 students in fall 2018, including the law school.

Mississippi College programs are truly world-class. In fall 2017, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International granted accreditation to the MC School of Business. Only 25 percent of business schools in the U.S. and less than 5 percent of business schools worldwide have achieved this recognition.

The passage rate for Mississippi College students taking the Physician Assistant National Certifying Exam is 97 percent, or the national average. The MC School of Nursing passage rate on national standardized exams is 94 percent. The graduates must pass these exams to enter their respective professions.

MC made history with Anthony Jackson's election as the first African American to serve as Student Government Association president on the Clinton campus in 2018-19.

Thompson launched the institution's first Honors College. The first 14 freshmen enrolled in August 2019. He expanded international programs by creating the Edward McMillan Center for Education Abroad. The center is named for a longtime history professor and administrator who established the London Abroad program in 1990. McMillan died in 2018. Dr. Beth Stapleton, a 1992 MC graduate and a Spanish and linguistics professor, heads the center.

The MC Dyslexia Center was expanded in January 2019 to include additional rooms to evaluate children with the learning disability, and other offices. New classes for MC in fall 2019 included a master's degree in nursing, and the MC Choctaws football program continued to progress under head coach John Bland, who was named co-coach of the year in the Gulf South Conference in 2019.

The MC story in 2020 focused on its response to the global COVID-19 pandemic. Following Spring Break in March, MC switched to virtual learning for the remainder of the semester.

In July 2020, MC adopted the focus "Strong & Courageous" for the 2020-21 academic year. The theme was drawn from Joshua 1:9: "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

The University welcomed students back to campus for the fall 2020 semester. Faculty and students wore masks and adhered to strict COVID-19 safety standards to keep the campus open and keep everyone safe.

The year 2020 also focused on racial and social justice in America. MC took a strong stand in favor of changing Mississippi's state flag to a design that did not include the Confederate battle emblem. In a letter outlining MC's stance on the issue, Thompson wrote:

"Our flag is hurtful to a significant number of people in our state. It is perceived by many Mississippians as a symbol of hatred, bigotry, and racism. It does not build up. It does not honor our neighbors. It does not reflect devotion to one another. Instead, we need a symbol that represents all that's good about Mississippi."

The state flag was changed in 2020 to a more inclusive design that includes the phrase, "In God We Trust."

Mississippi College filled a key administrative post in 2020 with the hiring of Dr. Keith Elder, a distinguished administrator and scholar in the public health field. Elder joined MC as provost and executive vice president in July.

Renovations to MC's Alumni Hall, including the addition of Chick-fil-A and Einstein Bros. Bagels restaurants, were completed just as the fall semester began. MC admitted 15 additional students to its Honors College for the fall 2020 semester and hosted its first virtual commencement on Dec. 12, 2020, to honor 1,400 graduates.

The University launched a new church partnership program in late spring 2021. This program is open to all Mississippi Baptist churches and guarantees a minimum financial aid package of $10,000 per year to residential students who are members of partner churches.

One of the nation's leading providers of education services included the Mississippi College School of Law on its 2022 Best Law Schools list. The Princeton Review, one of the most trusted tutoring, test preparation, and admission organizations, named MC Law to its roll call of prestigious legal education institutions after a rigorous review of the school's institutional and student survey data. In addition, the organization ranked MC Law No. 9 In the nation for "Most Conservative Students," a distinction the Princeton Review calls an area "that college applicants and their parents told us mattered to them."

The old Clinton Junior High School building on the East Campus, acquired by MC in 2010, will be dedicated in spring 2023 as the Sam Gore Arts Complex in honor of the renowned artist and "founding father" of MC's Art Department. It includes studios for drawing, painting, sculpting, papermaking, pastels, and woodworking. It features an outdoor, covered kiln courtyard for firing ceramics, which was high on Gore's list of priorities for the department.

MC offered two fully accredited minor programs of study - one in African American studies and the other in missions – in the fall 2022 semester that expanded the Christian University's repertoire of world-class educational offerings and enhanced its mission to promote the spiritual, social, and emotional development of its students. Students majoring in any academic discipline may seek to obtain either of the minors designed to inspire them to lead lives centered on Christ.

In July 2022, Mississippi College administrative leaders gathered with members of the Choctaw Tribal Council to witness Thompson and Cyrus Ben, tribal chief of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians and a 2001 MC graduate, sign a memorandum of understanding solidifying the Christian University's special relationship with the only federally recognized American Indian tribe living in Mississippi. The MOU created a valuable tuition assistance program for Choctaw students and established an expanded cultural exchange between MC and the MBCI. Ben was selected as the distinguished speaker at Mississippi College's Central Ceremony during the University's Spring Commencement.

In the fall of 2022, MC introduced an enhanced version of the University's iconic brand mark and a vibrant new athletic logo. The traditional MC letters received a nuanced adjustment, with clean, symmetrical lines, sharp, thin edges, and a more modern look, while the new colors are a richer version of the beloved blue and gold. The new athletic logo is a stylized profile of an eagle, an important animal in the culture of the Choctaw people, adorned with feathers modeled after those prominently displayed in Choctaw culture, offset by diamond shapes commonly found in items crafted by Choctaw artisans. The refreshed look was part of a new branding initiative at the University to make certain elements of MC's look more cohesive and appealing to the next generation of students and quietly set the stage for the institution's upcoming bicentennial celebration.

The Rankin Mission Center, a dynamic, interactive exhibit filled with displays, artifacts, and resources donated to the University by Dr. Jerry A. Rankin, president emeritus of the Southern Baptist Convention International Mission Board, was dedicated on Oct. 28, 2022. The highlight of the newly renovated Baptist Student Union building, the center serves as an invaluable archive for mission scholars and an inspirational resource for students interested in following in the footsteps of the internationally known mission leader, MC Hall of Famer, and longtime adjunct mission professor in the School of Christian Studies.

In March 2023, Anthony Thaxton, filmmaker, television producer, artist, writer, and 2019 Distinguished Art Alumnus of the Year, and Robert St. John, writer, restaurateur, filmmaker, and producer, announced the establishment of the Institute for Southern Storytelling at Mississippi College. Located at the Gore Arts Complex, the Institute will bring an interdisciplinary approach to storytelling through studying the Southern experience. Thaxton, an honors graduate of MC and a Southeast EMMY Award recipient, said the Institute will give MC students a place to become apprentice filmmakers and storytellers with professional collaborators.

Beginning with the fall 2023 semester, Mississippi College is the only institution of higher learning in the state to offer full-tuition scholarships for all qualified students from Mississippi. The Leland Speed Scholarship provides full tuition for all admitted high school or undergraduate transfer students who are residents of the Magnolia State. Eligible students who receive the Speed Scholarship pay no tuition, and all federal, state, and institutional grants and scholarships can be applied to their remaining balance. Thompson calls the scholarship a legacy that will allow generations of young people in Mississippi to attend MC. The visionary Jackson businessman and real estate developer served for more than four decades as a member of the MC Board of Trustees. He was serving as chair of the Mississippi College Foundation Board at the time of his death on Jan. 27, 2021.
