This course is the sequel to ENG 101, and is designed for those who have successfully completed it. In ENG 101, the purpose was to get you into the habit of writing and becoming aware of the writing process, including finding your personal voice as a writer. ENG 102 takes this a step further, and is a research course, where you will learn to effectively combine research and writing.

Be sure to buy the textbooks required for this course. (Hint: they're cheaper on amazon.com!)
