

Assistant Professor
(Full-time, Tenure-Track Faculty)
Mississippi Christian University School of Law

POSITION SUMMARY: This position is responsible for teaching law courses at Mississippi Christian University School of Law.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Teaching, preparing for classes, being available for student consultation about those classes, assessing student performance in those classes, and remaining current in the subjects being taught;
- Participating in academic advising, creating an atmosphere in which students and faculty may voice opinions and exchange ideas, and assessing student learning at the law school;
- Engage in scholarship and publish articles;

OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide service to the law school and university community, including participation in the governance of the law school, curriculum development, and other institutional responsibilities
- Provide service to the profession, including working with judges and practicing lawyers to improve the profession;
- Provide service to the public, including participation in pro bona activities
- Serve on selected Law School and Main Campus committees
- Other duties as assigned

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Juris Doctorate required; PhD preferred
- 3-5 years of teaching experience

Reports to: Dean, School of Law

FSLA Status: Exempt