

Job Position Description
Director of Pre-Law and Paralegal Studies

The Department of History and Political Science at Mississippi College invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position to direct the Pre-Law and Paralegal Studies programs beginning in the Fall 2026 semester. The successful applicant will have either a JD, a Ph.D. or be an ABD candidate near completion.

The successful applicant will direct our Paralegal Studies program and the Pre-Law minor. Ability to teach Introduction to Law and other law-focused classes is necessary. Candidates with the credentials to teach either History or Political Science classes preferred. The director will also oversee internships for students, carry a full-time teaching load, advise students, facilitate curriculum development at the undergraduate and graduate level, and serve on department and university committees.

Please complete the application form at <https://www.mc.edu/offices/human-resources/how-to-apply> and send it accompanied by a letter of application, CV, and three letters of reference electronically to humanresources@mc.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Inquiries can be directed to Dr. Patrick Connelly, Chair, Department of History and Political Science, Mississippi College, Clinton, MS 39058.

Additional materials may be requested after initial screening, and shortlisted candidates will be invited to interview.

Mississippi College is a private liberal arts university that seeks to be recognized for academic excellence and commitment to the cause of Christ. We seek faculty and staff who are committed to this mission.
