

Christian Life Coordinators

The Office of Christian Development is looking for individuals who have a heart for God and a desire to walk life with other people of the Mississippi College family. We are not looking for “perfect Christians.” Instead, we’re looking for students who have a mature and growing relationship with Jesus and who want to be used in the lives of fellow students. This ministry is about building relationships and doing life together. Each Christian Life Coordinator will serve on a Christian Life Team that will be assigned to a specific residence hall. Your ministry as a CLC would likely include hanging out with men/women in your hall, getting involved with their residence hall activities, grabbing coffee or lunch, worshipping together, serving together and potentially leading a small group in the hall. Honestly, there is no “one-size-fits-all” for this ministry. Whatever the CLC is willing to give will directly connect to what he or she gets out of the experience.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Support the purpose, mission and goals of Mississippi College and the Department of Christian Development
- Serve students alongside the Office of Christian Development (campus ministries and local churches) and the residential staff, through being a personal example, encourager, and disciple maker
